The Royal Ballet: 75 Years Zoë Anderson, 2011-02-17 This book is a perceptive and critical account of the first 75 years of The Royal Ballet tracing the company's growth and its great cultural importance an indispensable book for all lovers of ballet In 1931 Ninette de Valois started a ballet company with just six dancers Within twenty years The Royal Ballet as it became was established as one of the world's great companies It has produced celebrated dancers from Margot Fonteyn to Darcey Bussell and one of the richest repertoires in ballet The company danced through the Blitz won an international reputation in a single New York performance and added to the glamour of London's Swinging Sixties It has established a distinctive English school of ballet a pure classical style that could do justice to the 19th century repertory and to new British classics Leading dance critic Zo Anderson vividly portrays the extraordinary personalities who created the company and the dancers who made such an impact on their audiences She looks at the bad times as well as the good examining the controversial directorships of Norman Morrice and Ross Stretton and the criticism fired at the company as the Royal Opera House closed for redevelopment

Screening the Royal Shakespeare Company John Wyver, 2019-06-27 No theatre company has been involved in such a broad range of adaptations for television and cinema as the Royal Shakespeare Company Starting with Richard III filmed in the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre before World War One the RSC's accomplishments continue today with highly successful live cinema broadcasts The Wars of the Roses BBC 1965 Peter Brook's film of King Lear 1971 Channel 4's epic version of Nicholas Nickleby 1982 and Hamlet with David Tennant BBC 2009 are among their most iconic adaptations Many other RSC productions live on as extracts in documentaries as archival recordings in trailers and in other fragmentary forms Screening the Royal Shakespeare Company explores this remarkable history of collaborations between stage and screen and considers key questions about adaptation that concern all those involved in theatre film and television John Wyver is a broadcasting historian and the producer of RSC Live from Stratford upon Avon and is uniquely well placed to provide a vivid account of the company's television and film productions He contributes an award winning practitioner's insight into screen adaptation's numerous challenges and rich potential The Composer on Screen Paul Fryer, 2018-05-15 This collection of new essays explores the many ways in which composers have been depicted in film and what audiences have taken away from such depictions Beginning with some of the earliest silent film examples including some of the first feature length bio pics ever produced these essays range from the 12th century abbess Hildegard of Bingen to the great classical and romantic eras of Verdi Wagner Berlioz and Strauss up to the 20th century's Elgar Delius Gershwin and Blitzstein Live Cinema Sarah Atkinson, Helen W. Kennedy, 2017-12-28 Live Cinema is a term used to capture a diverse range of experiences that incorporate a live element in relation to a film's exhibition The live augmentation of cinema screenings is not a new phenomenon indeed this tendency is present throughout the entire history of cinema in the form of live musical accompaniments to silent screenings showmanship practices and cult film audience behaviours The contemporary revival of experiential cinema captured within this volume presents instances where the live transcends the mediated and escapes beyond the boundaries of the auditorium Our contributors investigate film exhibition practices that include synchronous live performance site specific screenings technological intervention social media engagement and all manner of simultaneous interactive moments including singing dancing eating and drinking These investigations reveal new cultures of reception and practice new experiential aesthetics and emergent economies of engagement This collection brings together fifteen contributions that together trace the emergence of a vivid new area of study Drawing on rich diverse and interdisciplinary fields of enquiry this volume encapsulates a broad range of innovative methodological approaches offers new conceptual frameworks and new critical vocabularies through which to describe and analyse the emergent phenomena of Live Cinema Catalog of the Theatre and Drama Collections: Theatre Collection: books on the theatre. 9 v New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1967 Plays and Players, 1958 Dance Me a Song Beth Genné, 2018-05-30 Dancer choreographer directors Fred Astaire George Balanchine and Gene Kelly and their colleagues helped to develop a distinctively modern American film dance style and recurring dance genres for the songs and stories of the American musical Freely crossing stylistic and class boundaries their dances were rooted in the diverse dance and music cultures of European immigrants and African American migrants who mingled in jazz age America The new technology of sound cinema let them choreograph and fuse camera movement light and color with dance and music Preserved intact for the largest audiences in dance history their works continue to influence dance and film around the world This book centers them and their colleagues within the history of dance where their work has been marginalized as well as film tracing their development from Broadway to Hollywood 1924 58 and contextualizing them within the American history and culture of their era This modern style like the nation in which it developed was pluralist and populist It drew from aspects of the old world and new high and low theatrical and social dance forms creating new sites for dance from the living room to the street A definitive ingredient was the freer more informal movement and behavior of their jazz age generation which fit with song lyrics that poeticized slangy American English The Gershwins Rodgers and Hart and others wrote not only songs but extended dance driven scores tailored to their choreography giving a new prominence to the choreographer and dancer actor This book discuss how these choreographers collaborated with directors like Vincente Minnelli and Stanley Donen and cinematographers like Gregg Toland musicians dancers designers and technicians to synergize music and moving image in new ways Eventually concepts and visual musical devices derived from dance making would give entire films the rhythmic flow and feeling of dance Dancing Americans came to be seen around the world as archetypal embodiments of the free spirited optimism and energy of America itself
