Hajj Travelogues Richard van Leeuwen,2024-06-03 In Hajj Travelogues Texts and Contexts from the 12th Century until 1950 Richard van Leeuwen maps the corpus of hajj accounts from the Muslim world and Europe The work outlines the main issues in a field of study which has largely been neglected A large number of hajj travelogues are described as a textual type integrating religious discourse into the form of the journey Special attention is given to their intertextual embedding in the broader discursive tradition of the hajj Since the corpus is seen as dynamic and responsive to historical developments the texts are situated in their historical context and the subsequent phases of globalisation It is shown how in travelogues forms of religious subjectivity are constructed and expressed

A Walk across Africa Roy Bridges,2018-02-15 The Nile Expedition of 1860 1863 was one of the most important exploratory expeditions made in the nineteenth century The long debated question of the location of the source of the Nile was answered despite continuing arguments and the venture had important historical consequences Earlier accounts of the expedition have assumed James Augustus Grant to have been no more than the loyal second in command to John Hanning Speke the leader This new edition of Grant s 1864 book A Walk across Africa provides the opportunity to re examine his role The original text has been fully annotated with explanatory notes and also supplemented by extracts from the very remarkable detailed day to day journal which Grant kept Even more unusually this edition includes reproductions of the whole visual record which he made consisting of 147 watercolours and sketches This was the first ever visual record of large parts of East Africa and the Upper Nile Valley region These documentary and illustrative materials have been drawn from the extensive collection of Grant s papers now in the care of the National Library of Scotland The Library has co operated in the preparation of this volume to make possible its special features Grant emerges as a much more impressive and important figure than has previously been recognised He was a trained scientist and his narrative is a well organised perspective on the expedition and its activities His own growing understanding of Africa and of Africans becomes apparent and helps to explain his later activities The editor provides a context to the expedition and its results and this includes a new approach to the understanding of the Nile source problem by exposing the credulity of the way many previous commentators have used Ptolemy's information and also by suggesting that the problem should be approached in the light of geological and geomorphological as well as historical information The Introduction in addition discusses Grant's work in the light of the development of the academic understanding of the history of Africa and of European involvement in the region Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen, 1899 Dictionary of National Biography, 1896 The Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen, Sir Sidney Lee, 1909 The Dead Sea and the Jordan River Barbara Kreiger, 2016-03-21 For centuries travelers have been drawn to the stunning and mysterious Dead Sea and Jordan River a region which is unlike any other on earth in its religious and historical significance In this exceptionally engaging and readable book Barbara Kreiger chronicles the natural and human history of these storied bodies of water drawing on accounts by travelers pilgrims and explorers from ancient times to the present She conveys the blend of spiritual touristic and scientific motivations that have driven exploration and describes the modern exploitation of the lake and the surrounding area through mineral extraction and agriculture Today both lake and river are in crisis and stewardship of these water resources is bound up with political conflicts in the region The Dead Sea and the Jordan River combines history literature travelogue and natural history in a way that makes it hard to put down The Brunei Museum Journal Muzium Brunei, 1981 Pearson's Magazine, 1903 Pearson's Magazine 1899-1925 a monthly magazine devoted to literature politics and the arts was founded as a New York affiliate of the London periodical of the same name part of which it reprinted From 1916 to 1923 it was edited by Frank Harris Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society and Monthly Record of Geography Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain), 1892 Fieldwork of Empire, 1840-1900 Adrian S. Wisnicki, 2019-03-20 Fieldwork of Empire 1840-1900 Intercultural Dynamics in the Production of British Expeditionary Literature examines the impact of non-western cultural political and social forces and agencies on the production of British expeditionary literature it is a project of recovery The book argues that such non-western impact was considerable that it shaped the discursive and material dimensions of expeditionary literature and that the impact extends to diverse materials from the expeditionary archive at a scale and depth that critics have previously not acknowledged The focus of the study falls on Victorian expeditionary literature related to Africa a continent of accelerating British imperial interest in the nineteenth century but the study's findings have the potential to inform scholarship on European expeditionary imperial and colonial literature from a wide variety of periods and locations The book's analysis is illustrative not comprehensive Each chapter targets intercultural encounters and expeditionary literature associated with a specific time period and African region or location The book suggests that future scholarship especially in areas such as expeditionary history geography cartography travel writing studies and book history needs to adopt much more of a localized non western focus if it is to offer a full account of the production of expeditionary discourse and literature A List of Periodical Publications Currently Received by the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library,1903 Discovering the North-West Passage Glenn M. Stein,2015-10-27 From 1850 to 1854 the ambitious Commander Robert McClure captained the HMS Investigator on a voyage in search of the missing Franklin Expedition which sailed from England into the Arctic in 1845 to map the last uncharted section of the North West Passage The Investigator and her consort the Enterprise were to pass through the Bering Strait from the west but a Pacific storm separated them never to meet again Obsessed with traversing the passage McClure pressed on and HMS Investigator spent three years trapped in pack ice in Mercy Bay before the crew abandoned ship on foot This book chronicles the voyage in detail McClure and his relationships with his officers are at the heart of the story of the arduous journey vividly illustrated by the paintings of Lt Samuel Cresswell
