Shahnama Robert Hillenbrand, 2017-07-05 Shahnama The Visual Language of the Persian Book of Kings presents the first comprehensive examination of the interplay between text and image in the celebrated Persian national epic the Shahnama written by the poet Firdausi of Tus The Shahnama is one of the longest poems ever composed and recounts the history of Iran from the dawn of time to the Muslim Arab conquests of the seventh century AD There is no Persian text in prose or poetry which has been so frequently and lavishly illustrated Offering fresh insights through a range of varied art historical approaches to the Shahnama the essays in this volume reveal how the subtle alterations in text and image serve to document changes in taste and style and can be understood as reflections of the changing role of the national epic in the imagination of Iranians and the equally changing messages often political in nature which the familiar stories were made to convey over the centuries      Journal of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, 1917      Muqarnas Gulru Necipoglu, David J. Bayana Shokoohy Mehrdad Shokoohy, 2020-03-18 Bayana in Rajasthan and its monuments challenge the perceived but established view of the development of Muslim architecture and urban form in India At the end of the twelfth century early conquerors took the mighty Hindu fort building the first Muslim city below on virgin ground They later reconfigured the fort and constructed another town within it These two towns were the centre of an autonomous region during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Going beyond a simple study of the historic architectural and archaeological remains this book takes on the wider issues of how far the artistic traditions of Bayana which developed independently from those of Delhi later influenced north Indian architecture It shows how these traditions were the forerunners of the Mughal architectural style which drew many of its features from innovations developed first in Bayana *HENRY G.
