Gothic Imagination in Latin American Fiction and Film Carmen A. Serrano, 2019-05-15 This work traces how Gothic imagination from the literature and culture of eighteenth and nineteenth century Europe and twentieth century US and European film has impacted Latin American literature and film culture Serrano argues that the Gothic has provided Latin American authors with a way to critique a number of issues including colonization authoritarianism feudalism and patriarchy The book includes a literary history of the European Gothic to demonstrate how Latin American authors have incorporated its characteristics but also how they have broken away or inverted some elements such as traditional plot lines to suit their work and address a unique set of issues The book examines both the modernistas of the nineteenth century and the avant garde writers of the twentieth century including Huidobro Bombal Rulfo Roa Bastos and Fuentes Looking at the Gothic in Latin American literature and film this book is a groundbreaking study that brings a fresh perspective to Latin American creative culture Woman and the Infinite Violla Hartfield-Méndez, 1996 Woman and the Infinite demonstrates how Pedro Salinas's poetry and frequently overlooked narrative and theater reveal a preoccupation with the nature of time especially extraordinary moments that transcend space and time Many of these moments are intimately connected with the man woman yo tu relationship Salinas's exploration of this theme is best understood in the context of other modern literary evocations of epiphanic moments Such literary phenomena as William Wordsworth's spots of time and James Joyce's epiphanies are among the precursors of Salinas's moments of eternity as are moments of timelessness in works by Marcel Proust and the French Symbolist poets Salinas's reception of the Symbolists was direct but also refracted through his reading of the Latin American modernistas especially Ruben Dario In his well known commentary on Dario Salinas connects the perception of woman with a visionary moment of extraordinary lucidity a connection found in his own works Woman is elusive for Salinas She has a multiplicity of forms and varying identities that are expressed with mirrors and shadows or Classical and Biblical mythological archetypes All of these are found in Aurora de verdad from Vispera del gozo a narrative piece which can be read as representative of Salinas's work as a whole Specific images in the story including mirrored figures and references to mythological goddesses are also key elements in a trajectory in Salinas's works in general toward an all encompassing absolute and infinite moment
