Classen,2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic London and Its Environs Karl Baedeker (Firm),1883 London and Its Environs, Including Excursions to Brighton, the Isle of Wight, Etc Karl Baedeker,1883 Catalogue of the Royal Picture Gallery in Dresden Gemäldegalerie (Dresden, Germany),1884 The Eschatological Imagination Wietse de Boer,Christine

Göttler,2024-10-21 How did the early modern Christian West conceive of the spaces and times of the afterlife The answer to this question is not obvious for a period that saw profound changes in theology when the telescope revealed the heavens to be as changeable and imperfect as the earth and when archaeological and geological investigations made the earth and what lies beneath it another privileged site for the acquisition of new knowledge With its focus on the eschatological imagination at a time of transformation in cosmology this volume opens up new ways of studying early modern religious ideas representations and practices The individual chapters explore a wealth of at times little known visual and textual sources Together they highlight how closely concepts and imaginaries of the hereafter were intertwined with the realities of the here and now Contributors Matteo Al Kalak Monica Azzolini Wietse de Boer Christine G ttler Luke Holloway Martha McGill Walter S Melion Mia M Mochizuki Laurent Paya Rapha le Preisinger Aviva Rothman Minou Schraven Anna Claire Stinebring Jane Tylus and Antoinina Bevan Zlatar     The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1894     The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1893

A History of the Low Countries Paul Arblaster,2018-10-26 This introductory overview of the Low Countries history traces their development since Roman times providing equal weighting to the Netherlands Belgium and Luxembourg Paul Arblaster looks at political cultural and social history including the rise of the merchant classes the Renaissance and Golden Age and the two world wars of the 20th century The final chapter has been expanded and revised to take into account developments since 2011 This third edition is thoroughly updated and revised throughout and benefits from our recently refreshed series design This timely and engaging narrative provides an invaluable starting point for students of History focusing on the Low Countries European Studies and Dutch studies New to this Edition More detail on the EU particularly current in light of Brexit and Euroscepticism More environmental and global history Coverage of the latest political developments More maps to bridge the gap between the 15th century and the present day An updated bibliography     From Criminal to Courtier David Kunzle,2021-10-11 The art of the Netherlands Dutch and Flemish is unique in Early Modern Europe in its concern for military cruelty against civilians principally the peasantry Decimated by time and changes in taste this popular iconography proves varied and extensive stretching from Bruegel to and past Rubens Massacres of the Innocents continue to be a favourite subject through the Eighty Years War in contrast to ruling class glorifications of war Dutch patriotic siege prints lay claim to scientific precision in landscapes free of military terror while the idea of military conquest is presented as generous rather than cruel in the ever popular figure of Scipio Africanus Most of the pictorial material is unfamiliar some of it even to specialists and never before published new light is shed on the more familiar phenomena of the civic guard groups and Ter Borch courtier officers good soldiers overcoming a bad image
