Russia Against Japan, 1904-1905 J. N. Westwood,1986 An Outline of the Russo-Japanese War 1904, 1905 Charles Ross,2014-03-25 The Russo Japanese War 8 February 1904 5 September 1905 was the first great war of the 20th century It grew out of rival imperial ambitions of the Russian Empire and the Empire of Japan over Manchuria and Korea The major theatres of operations were Southern Manchuria specifically the area around the Liaodong Peninsula and Mukden and the seas around Korea Japan and the Yellow Sea Russia sought a warm water port on the Pacific Ocean for their navy as well as for maritime trade From the end of the First Sino Japanese War and 1903 negotiations between Russia and Japan had proved impractical Japan offered to recognize Russian dominance in Manchuria in exchange for recognition of Korea as a Japanese sphere of influence Russia refused this so Japan chose war to counter what it described as Russian aggression in Asia After discussions broke down in 1904 the Japanese Navy attacked the Russian eastern fleet at Port Arthur a naval base in the Liaotung province leased to Russia by China which led to war The Japanese defeated the Russians in a series of battles on land and at sea The resulting campaigns in which the Japanese military attained victory over the Russian forces arrayed against them were unexpected by world observers Over time the consequences of these battles would transform the balance of power in East Asia resulting in a reassessment of Japan s recent entry onto the world stage The author in his study of war has been impressed by the numberless apparently trifling facts which appear in memoirs and reminiscences but which seldom appear in histories and which nevertheless often show up events in a perfectly new light This publication provides a recap of the events The original text and artwork have been used in this publication occasionally there may be instances of imperfections with these old texts i.e blurred or missing pages poor image quality 1904, 05. Press Cuttings Relating to the Russo-Japanese War of 1904-1905.
