Salt Air Wesleyan New Poets:

Salt Air Sharon Bryan, 1983 The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959 the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry One of the country's oldest programs its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes National Book Awards and many other honors At a time when other programs are being phased out Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition Drawing from some 250 volumes editor Michael Collier documents the wide ranging impact of these works In his introduction he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose lyric style Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators no other program has had such a fundamental impact Works by the eighty six poets included here both document and celebrate that contribution Contemporary American Poetry Lloyd M. Davis, 1985 Lists over 5 200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983 Sharp Stars Sharon Bryan, 2015-06-20 Sharon Bryan's fourth poetry collection blends such disparate subjects as biology astronomy sports philosophy and music to probe humankind's desire for spiritual even physical transcendence From Charles Mingus to Charles Barkley from Buddy Holly to Bishop Berkeley no reference is squandered in Bryan's prodigious imagination Sharon Bryan's awards include the Academy of American Poets Prize the Discovery Prize from The Nation and two NEA fellowships She has published three poetry collections and edited Planet on the Table Poets on the Reading Life and Where We Stand Women Poets on Literary Tradition She is a visiting professor of poetry at the University of Connecticut at Storrs The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1989 Facing the Lion Kurt Brown, 1996-06-30 Now writers or would be writers can read the most provocative and the most useful lectures on life and craft presented at such select conferences as Bread Loaf the Wesleyan Writers Conference and the Napa Valley Writers Conference In these addresses Ellen Bryant Voigt X J Kennedy Francine Prose and Marvin Bell among others give intimate accounts of the struggle to create something worthy of being published and read The New American Poetry of Engagement Ann Keniston, Jeffrey Gray, 2012-08-17 This anthology of poetry collects 21st century American works by both established and emerging poets that deal with the public events government policies ecological and political threats economic uncertainties and large scale violence that have largely defined the century to date But these 138 poems by 50 poets do not simply describe lament or bear witness to contemporary events they also explore the linguistic temporal and imaginative problems involved in doing so In this way the anthology offers a comprehensive look at contemporary American poetry demonstrating that poets are moving at once toward a new engagement with public concerns and toward a focus on the problems of representation A detailed introduction by the editors along with poetics statements by many of the poets add depth and context to a book that will appeal to anyone interested in the state and evolution of contemporary American poetry. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine, 1880 Planet on the Table Sharon Bryan, William Olsen, 2003 Essential reading for the student of creative writing and all writers Book Review Digest, 1984 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications. Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language. Reviews of the following types of books are excluded: government publications, textbooks, and technical books in the sciences and law. Reviews of books on science for the general reader, however, are included. The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities, social sciences, and general science published in the United States, Canada, and Great Britain. Publisher Contemporary Poetics Louis Armand, 2007 Exploring the boundaries of one of the most contested fields of literary study, a field that in fact shares territory with philology, aesthetics, cultural theory, philosophy, and even cybernetics, this volume gathers a body of critical writings that taken together broadly delineate a possible poetics of the contemporary. In these essays, the most interesting and distinguished theorists in the field renegotiate the contours of what might constitute contemporary poetics, ranging from the historical advent of concrete poetry to the current technopoetics of cyberspace. Concerned with a poetics that extends beyond our own time as a mere marker of present-day literary activity, their work addresses the limits of a writing practice beginning with Stéphane Mallarmé in the late nineteenth century that engages concretely with what it means to be contemporary. Charles Bernstein's Swiftian satire of generative poetics and the textual apparatus, together with Marjorie Perloff's critical historical treatment of writing after Bernstein and other proponents of language poetry, provides an itinerary of contemporary poetics in terms of both theory and practice. The other essays consider precursors, recognizable figures within the histories or prehistories of contemporary poetics, from Kafka and Joyce to Wallace Stevens and Kathy Acker, conjunctions in which more strictly theoretical and poetical texts enact a concerted engagement with rhetoric, prosody, and the vicissitudes of intelligibility, cursors which point to the open possibilities of invention. From Augusto de Campos's concrete poetics to the codework of Alan Sondheim and transpositions defining the limits of poetic invention by way of technology Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine, 1880 Vital Signs Ronald Wallace, 1989 This anthology includes 179 poets published by university presses in recent years. It seeks to provide a rich overview of the best contemporary American poetry, irrespective of publisher, age of poet, aesthetic program, or current status in the literary canon, to celebrate the work of university presses in discovering and supporting that poetry and to suggest some questions about American poetry: its democratization, canonization, aesthetics, politics, and sociology. The volume includes brief histories of poetry publishing at each press, their poetry lists, and an essay on the American poetry scene of the last 20 years. It features poems by such established poets as John Ashbery, Marge Piercy, Adrienne Rich, and James Wright.
