Scooped Media Miss Real Story On Crime While Chasing Sex Sleaze And Celebrities:

Scooped! David J. Krajicek, 1998-05-06 Scooped surveys the impact of tabloid journalism in America and reveals that crime news and reporting say much about a society fascinated by sleaze and violence David Krajicek raises important questions about how and why certain crimes are reported and the ways in which these representations are framing debates concerning crime policy and the criminal justice system He challenges journalists in the tabloid television and otherwise respectable news media to fulfill their mission to inform and not inflame the public

The Depiction of Terrorists in Blockbuster Hollywood Films, 1980-2001 Helena Vanhala, 2014-01-10 This book examines how American foreign policy and the commercial film industry's economic interests influenced the portrayal of international terrorism in Hollywood blockbuster films from the time of the Iran hostage crisis to the 9 11 terrorist attacks Part I provides a historical overview of modern international terrorism and how it relates to the United States its news media and its film industry Part II covers depictions of terrorism during the Cold War under President Reagan including films like Commando and Iron Eagle Part III covers the Hollywood terrorist after the Cold War including European terrorists in the Die Hard franchise Passenger 57 Patriot Games Blown Away The Jackal and Ronin fundamentalist Islamic terrorists in True Lies and Executive Decision the return of the communist threat in Air Force One and 9 11 foreshadowing in The Siege

Bissler, Joan L. Connors, 2014-01-10 A scan of today's television programming reveals numerous media stories factual and fictional featuring some aspect of crime These depictions can stray far from reality with the effect of creating and reinforcing distorted impressions This collection offers a sociological analysis of race class and gender stereotypes within crime media Essays discuss particular examples of inequalities and stereotypes consider the implications of such portrayals and demonstrate how they influence the public's expectations and beliefs about real world crime Pulling Newspapers Apart Bob Franklin, 2008-03-07 Pulling Newspapers Apart Analysing Print Journalism explores contemporary UK national and local newspapers at a significant and pivotal moment in their development when some pundits are busily if mistakenly announcing their demise The book offers a detailed examination of features which previous studies have tended to neglect such as editorial formats aspects of newspaper design newspaper contents as well as the content of newspapers which is not generated by in house journalists Natural Born Celebrities David Schmid, 2024-05-31 This account of how serial killers impact society is a compelling examination of the media phenomenon of the celebrity criminal in American culture Joyce Carol Oates Jeffrey Dahmer Ted Bundy John Wayne Gacy Serial killers have become iconic figures in America the subject of made for TV movies and mass market paperbacks alike But why do we find such luridly transgressive and horrific individuals so fascinating What compels us to look more closely at these figures when we really want to look away Natural Born Celebrities considers how serial killers have become lionized in American culture and explores the consequences of their fame David Schmid provides a historical account of how serial killers became famous and how that fame has been used in popular media and the corridors of the FBI alike Ranging from H H Holmes whose killing spree during the 1893 Chicago

World's Fair inspired The Devil in the White City right up to Aileen Wuornos the lesbian prostitute whose vicious murder of seven men would serve as the basis for the hit film Monster Schmid unveils a new understanding of serial killers by emphasizing both the social dimensions of their crimes and their susceptibility to multiple interpretations and uses He also explores why serial killers have become endemic in popular culture from their depiction in film and TV to their becoming the stuff of trading cards and even Web sites where you can buy their hair and nail clippings Persuasively argued meticulously researched It is highly readable as well Joyce Carol Oates Captured by the Media Paul Mason, 2013-05-13 This book turns on the television opens the newspaper goes to the cinema and assesses how punishment is performed in media culture investigating the regimes of penal representation and how they may contribute to a populist and punitive criminological imagination It places media discourse in prisons firmly within the arena of penal policy and public opinion suggesting that while Bad Girls The Shawshank Redemption internet jail cams advertising and debates about televising executions continue to ebb and flow in contemporary culture the persistence of this spectacle of punishment its contested meaning and its politics of representation demands investigation Alongside chapters addressing the construction of popular images of prison and the death penalty in television and film Captured by the Media also has contributions from prison reform groups and prison practitioners which discuss forms of media intervention in penal debate This book provides a highly readable exploration of media discourse on prisons and punishment and its relationship to public attitudes and government penal policy At the same time it engages with the cultural turn within criminology and offers an original contribution to discussion of the relationship between prison public and the state It will be essential reading for students in both media studies and criminology as well as practitioners and commentators in these fields Esthetic Experiments Marek Wojtaszek, 2014-08-26 Contemporary American landscape is wrought with ongoing processes and phenomena of technicization observable at the intersections of multiple layers of society This book brings to attention their cultural and political aspects emphasizing timeliness and necessity of academic intervention into and evaluation of their specificity and ramifications Presenting critical and analytical account of cultural narratives which define speak of and use diverse technologies of writing sound media representations surveillance war the texts compiled in this volume investigate the coalescence between technological production on the one hand and the textual on the other The idea of the book responds to the current academic appeal inspired by postmodern questioning of the foundations and realized most importantly by deconstruction to dismantle one of the constitutive pillars of Western civilization namely between techne and episteme In their interpretative mode the texts proceed largely experimentally bridging the gap between techne and episteme In doing so they endeavor to reformulate and complexify an experience of American culture The book aims to clarify and exemplify that the junction of text and technology implies that meanings are embedded in a material Consequently the publication introduces and popularizes the assumption that American cultural experience emerges as a genuine experiment of an esthetic nature Missing: Half the Story Kalpana

Sharma, 2012-12-31 Toilets trees and gender Can there be a connection Is there a gender angle to a business story Is gender in politics only about how many women get elected to parliament Is osteoporosis a women s disease Why do more women die in natural disasters These are not the questions journalists usually ask when they set out to do their jobs as reporters sub editors photographers of editors Yet by not asking are they missing out on something perhaps half the story This is the question this book edited and written by journalists for journalists and the lay public interested in media raises Through examples from the media and from their own experience the contributors explain the concept of gender sensitive journalism and look at a series of subjects that journalists have to cover sexual assault environment development business politics health disasters conflict and set out a simple way of integrating a gendered lens into day to day journalism Written in a non academic accessible style this book is possibly the first of its kind in India one that attempts to inject a gender perspective into journalism Published by Zubaan
