Armelin, 2016-08-15

The primary purpose of this book is to inspire Christian clergymen, leaders and educators as well as parents and students to embrace, promote and support the God-ordained vision and mission of private Christian day schools. Also, this book profoundly expounds on how and why Christian day schools are very much relevant or needed in today's troublesome world. This book is divided into four parts which expound on foundational principles of a Christian day school, God-ordained assignments in the organizational structure of a Christian day school, practical components of a quality Christian day school and posterity of Christian day schools. The importance of being called, equipped and anointed by God to serve within any capacity of a Christian day school is highlighted in this book as well. Most importantly, Christian day schools are established to meet the needs of the whole child: spirit, soul and body.

Freedom in Christ Course, Participant's Guide Neil T. Anderson, Steve Goss, 2017-09-22

Churches have made many converts but far too few real disciples. Many Christians struggle to take hold of basic biblical truth and live it out. We often take a painfully long time to mature. This is not because we lack resources or teaching but because we struggle to connect with truth. This is where the Freedom in Christ course comes in. It is specifically designed to help Christians take hold of who they are in Christ, resolve personal and spiritual conflicts through genuine repentance and move on to maturity.

Mission Drift? Oddvar Sten Ronsen, 2016-02-14 The Lausanne congress of 1974 marked the widespread adoption of integral mission as essential to the evangelical witness of Christ in our world Ever since there has been ongoing debate as to the roles of evangelism and social action In this book Oddvar Sten Ronsen argues that instead of the priority of evangelism over social action there should be the anticipation of evangelism as a result of social action Although evangelism and social action may not occur at the same time the author warns of the possibility of mission drift where projects begin with the intention of meeting the social and spiritual needs of the people but fail to proceed to evangelism In succumbing to this mission drift projects cease to be true to the principles of integral mission Combining theological reflection with case studies of microfinance enterprises in the Philippines and Thailand Ronsen evaluates the sustainability of and social good delivered by these Christian projects to the communities they serve The research sheds light on the causes of a drift from integral mission how these can be managed and whether microfinance can be a bridge for the gospel
