Final Solutions Sabby Sagall, 2013-10-09 What causes genocide Through an examination of four modern genocides the Native Americans the Armenians the Jews and the Rwandan Tutsis Sabby Sagal formulates a theoretical framework for understanding some of the darkest hours of humanity Drawing on the scholarship of a range of Marxist psychoanalysts from the Frankfurt School to Wilhelm Reich shows how genocides are enacted by social classes or communities that have experienced isolation and denial of human needs prostration and humiliation at the hands of major historical defeats or powerlessness These denials or degradations produce severe reactions hatred destructiveness and an impotent rage which is often projected onto a perceived other Through close analysis and theorising of the commonalities and differences between recent genocides Sagal hopes to produce greater understanding of the socio psychological rationale behind atrocities in order to prevent recurrences

Phenomenologies of the Stranger Richard Kearney, Kascha Semonovitch, 2011 What is strange Or better who is strange When do we encounter the strange This volume takes the question of hosting the Stranger to the deeper level of embodied imagination and the senses It asks How does the embodied imagination relate to the Stranger in terms of hospitality or hostility given the common root of hostis as both host and enemy How do humans sense the dimension of the strange and alien in different religions arts and cultures How do the five physical senses relate to the spiritual senses especially the famous sixth sense as portals to an encounter with the Other Is there a carnal perception of alterity which would operate at an affective prereflective preconscious level What exactly do embodied imaginaries of hospitality and hostility entail And what finally are the topical implications of these questions for an ethics and practice of tolerance and peace

Unconscionable Crimes Paul C. Morrow, 2020-09-22 The first general theory of the influence of norms moral legal and social on genocide and mass atrocity How can we explain and prevent such large scale atrocities as the Holocaust In Unconscionable Crimes Paul Morrow presents the first general theory of the influence of norms moral legal and social on genocide and mass atrocity After offering a clear overview of norms and norm transformation rooted in recent work in moral and political philosophy Morrow examines numerous twentieth century cases of mass atrocity drawing on documentary and testimonial sources to illustrate the influence of norms before during and after such crimes

Genocide, Mass Atrocity, and War Crimes in Modern History James Larry Taulbee, 2017-02-06 Defining genocide as an international crime this two volume set provides a comparative study of historical cases of genocide and mass atrocity clearly identifying the factors that produced the attitudes and behaviors that led to them discusses the reasons for rules in war and examines how the five principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have functioned in modern warfare Written by an expert on international politics and law Genocide Mass Atrocity and War Crimes in Modern History Blood and Conscience is an easy to understand resource that explains why genocides and other atrocities occur why humanity saw the need to create rules that apply during war and how culture rules about war and the nature of war intersect

The first volume addresses the history and development of the normative regimes that define genocide and mass atrocity. Through a comparative study of historical cases that pay particular attention to the factors involved in producing the attitudes and behaviors that led to the incidents of mass slaughter and mistreatment, the author identifies the reasons that genocides and mass atrocities in the 20th century were largely ignored until the early 1990s and why even starting then responses were inconsistent. The second book discusses why rules in war exist, which factors may lead to the adoption of rules, what defines a war crime, and how the five fundamental principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have actually functioned in modern warfare. It also poses and answers the interesting question of why we should obey rules when our opponents do not. The final chapter examines what actions could serve to identify future situations in which mass atrocities may occur and identifies the problems of timely humanitarian intervention in international affairs.

The World of The Walking Dead Matthew Freeman, 2019-02-08 An accessible introduction to the world of The Walking Dead, this book looks across platforms and analytical frameworks to characterize the fictional world of The Walking Dead and how its audiences make use of it. In doing so, he establishes a new transdisciplinary framework for analyzing imaginary worlds across multiple media platforms, bolstering the critical arena of world building studies by providing a greater array of vocabulary, concepts, and approaches. The World of The Walking Dead is an engaging exploration of stories, their platforms, and their reception, ideal for students and scholars of world building, film, and TV studies, new media, and everything in between. Louisiana Planter and Sugar Manufacturer, 1925 The Louisiana Planter and Sugar Manufacturer, 1904 The Season's End Steven McGonigal, 2012 A series of articles contributed by a varied selection of authors. It covers experiences of the respective authors in the field along with their companions. Embodied Difference Jamie A. Thomas, Christina Jackson, 2019-02-20 Focusing on the body as a visual and discursive platform across public space, we study marginalization as a sociocultural practice and hegemonic schema. Whereas mass incarceration and law enforcement readily feature in discussions of institutionalized racism, we differently highlight understudied sites of normalization and exclusion. Our combined effort centers upon physical contexts: skeletons, pageant stages, gentrifying neighborhoods, discursive spaces, medical textbooks, legal battles, dance, pedagogy, vampire narratives, and philosophical arenas: morality, genocide, physician-assisted suicide, cryonic preservation, transfeminism, to deconstruct seemingly intrinsic connections between body and behavior. Whiteness and normativity. The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 Billboard, 2007-10-13 In its 114th year, Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand, content, and data licensing platform. Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music, video, gaming, media, digital, and mobile.
