

Tableau Groups VS Sets

The difference between Tableau's Groups and Tableau Sets was something that confused me a little when first started with Tableau. Tableau groups seem pretty self-explanatory, but sets seemed a little complicated. Grouping in Tableau is grouping multiple members/values into several groups which will create a higher category of the dimension. Creating a set in Tableau is putting multiple values IN my a single set depending on a condition or by manually picking them. In a set you have two options, you are either in my set or out my set.

Tableau Group vs Set [What's the Difference between Tableau's Sets and Groups?]

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a3SQPIHyofY>

We are going to start with a basic group. I am working with the Sample – Superstore data that comes with Tableau so you can follow along with me. First thing I am going to do is bring Sub-Category over so I can see what all the Sub-Categories are in the data. Now in this data, there is already a higher grouping of this field called Category but we going to act like this does not exist. Now that we have all the values out there let's go ahead and hold CTRL and select all the values we want to be in the first group. In this first group, I want to group the values Bookcases, Chairs, Furnishings and Tables. Once all of them are highlighted hover over one of the selected values and click on the paperclip that shows up in the dialog box.

These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts.

The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
