conventional imperialism with nineteen of settler colonialism and offering a substantial basis for assessing the various factors leading to genocide This volume also considers cases where genocide did not occur permitting a global consideration of the role of imperialism and settler Indigenous relations from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries It ends with six pre 1918 cases from Australia China the Middle East Africa and Europe that can be seen as premonitions of the major twentieth century genocides in Europe and Asia

Ancient Sculpture and Twentieth-Century American Womanhood Hallie Franks, 2025-01-09 This book examines the reception of Graeco Roman sculptures of Venus and their role in the construction of the body aesthetics of the fit American woman in the decades around the turn of the 20th century In this historical moment 19th century anthropometric methods the anti corset dress reform movement and early fitness culture were united in their goal of identifying and producing healthy procreative female bodies These discourses presented ancient statues of Venus most frequently the Venus de Milo as the supreme visual model of a superior fit feminine physique An America of such Venuses would herald the future prosperity of the American race by reviving the robust health and moral righteousness of the ancient Greeks Venuses had long been symbols of beauty but the new situation of Venus statues as an aesthetic and moral destination for women set up a slippage between ideal sculpture and living bodies what did it mean for a woman to embody or to try to embody the perfect health and beauty of an ancient statue How were women expected to translate this model into flesh What were the political stakes to which this vision of a nation of American Venuses was bound Who was believed to conform to this ideal and who was excluded from it In taking on these questions Franks engages with physical culture and dress reform media modern artwork that adapts Graeco Roman traditions anthropological texts art histories of ancient Greece film advertising and medical reporting on women's health

The Routledge Handbook of the History of Settler Colonialism Edward Cavanagh, Lorenzo Veracini, 2016-08-12 The Routledge Handbook of the History of Settler Colonialism examines the global history of settler colonialism as a distinct mode of domination from ancient times to the present day It explores the ways in which new polities were established in freshly discovered New Worlds and covers the history of many countries including Australia New Zealand Israel Japan South Africa Liberia Algeria Canada and the USA Chronologically as well as geographically wide reaching this volume focuses on an extensive array of topics and regions ranging from settler colonialism in the Neo Assyrian and Roman empires to relationships between indigenes and newcomers in New Spain and the early Mexican republic to the settler dominated polities of Africa during the twentieth century Its twenty nine inter disciplinary chapters focus on single colonies or on regional developments that straddle the borders of present day states on successful settlements that would go on to become powerful settler nations on failed settler colonies and on the historiographies of these experiences Taking a fundamentally international approach to the topic this book analyses the varied experiences of settler colonialism in countries around the world With a synthesizing yet original introduction this is a landmark contribution to the emerging field of settler colonial studies and will be a valuable resource for anyone interested in the global history of imperialism and colonialism      Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century African History Dickson Eyoh, Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 2005-10-24 With nearly two hundred and fifty individually signed entries the Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century African History explores the ways in which the peoples of Africa and their politics states societies economies environments cultures and arts were transformed during the course of that Janus faced century Overseen by a diverse and distinguished international team of consultant editors the Encyclopedia provides a thorough examination of the global and local forces that shaped the changes that the continent underwent Combining essential factual description with evaluation and analysis the entries tease out patterns from across the continent as a whole as well as within particular regions and countries it is the first work of its kind to present such a comprehensive overview of twentieth century African history With full indexes and a thematic entry list together with ample cross referencing and suggestions for further reading the Encyclopedia will be welcomed as an essential work of reference by both scholar and student of twentieth century African history Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2004      The Long Twentieth Century Giovanni Arrighi, 1994 Winner of the American Sociological Association PEWS Award 1995 for Distinguished Scholarship The Long Twentieth Century traces the epochal shifts in the relationship between capital accumulation and state formation over a 700 year period Giovanni Arrighi masterfully synthesizes social theory comparative history and historical narrative in this account of the structures and agencies which have shaped the course of world history over the millennium Borrowing from Braudel Arrighi argues that the history of capitalism has unfolded as a succession of long centuries ages during which a hegemonic power deploying a novel combination of economic and political networks secured control over an expanding world economic space The modest beginnings rise and violent unraveling of the links forged between capital state power and geopolitics by hegemonic classes and states are explored with dramatic intensity From this perspective Arrighi explains the changing fortunes of Florentine Venetian Genoese Dutch English and finally American capitalism The book concludes with an examination of the forces which have shaped and are now poised to undermine America's world power      Asian Settler Colonialism Jonathan Y. Okamura, Candace Fujikane, 2008-08-31 Asian Settler Colonialism is a groundbreaking collection that examines the roles of Asians as settlers in Hawai'i Contributors from various fields and disciplines investigate aspects of Asian settler colonialism to illustrate its diverse operations and impact on Native Hawaiians Essays range from analyses of Japanese Korean and Filipino settlement to accounts of Asian settler practices in the legislature the prison industrial complex and the U.S. military to critiques of Asian settlers' claims to Hawai'i in literature and the visual arts      The Returns of Zionism Gabriel Piterberg, 2008-06-17 In this original and wide ranging study Gabriel Piterberg examines the ideology and literature behind the colonization of Palestine from the late nineteenth century to the present Exploring Zionism's origins in Central Eastern European nationalism and settler movements he shows how its texts can be placed within a wider discourse of western colonization Revisiting the work of Theodor Herzl and Gershom Scholem Anita Shapira and David Ben Gurion and bringing to light the writings of lesser known scholars and thinkers influential in the formation of the Zionist myth. Piterberg breaks open prevailing views of Zionism demonstrating that it was in fact unexceptional, expressing a consciousness and imagination typical of colonial settler movements. Shaped by European ideological currents and the realities of colonial life, Zionism constructed its own story as a unique and impregnable one in the process, excluding the voices of an indigenous people, the Palestinian Arabs.

Settler Militarism Juliet Nèbolon, 2024-09-27. Under martial law during World War II, Hawai'i was located at the intersection of home front and war front. In Settler Militarism, Juliet Nèbolon shows how settler colonialism and militarization simultaneously perpetuated and concealed one another in wartime Hawai'i for the purposes of empire building in Asia and the Pacific Islands. She demonstrates how settler militarism operated through a regime of racial liberal biopolitics that purported to protect all people in Hawai'i even as it intensified the racial and colonial differentiation of Kanaka Maoli, Asian settlers, and white settlers. Nèbolon identifies settler militarism's inherent contradiction: It depends on life, labor, and land to reproduce itself yet it avariciously consumes via violent and extractive projects those same lives and natural resources that it needs to subsist. From vaccination and blood bank programs to the administration of internment and prisoner of war camps, Nèbolon reveals how settler militarism and racial liberal biopolitics operated together in the service of capitalism. Collectively, the social reproduction of these regimes created the conditions for the late twentieth century expansion of US military empire.

The Relationship Between Nkrumahism and Twentieth Century Leftist Thought in the African World Michael Warren Williams, 1989.

Settler Colonialism Patrick Wolfe, 1999-01-01. This is a brilliant history of anthropology from its origins in 19th century Europe to the present day. Underlying this and closely connected to this meta narrative is the story of European settlement and colonialization of Australia, and the distressing history of Australian official policy towards the Australian aboriginal population. Other colonial enterprises are also examined; for instance, the book incorporates a discussion of the late 19th century development of American cultural anthropology and its relation to the European settlement of North America. He shows how anthropological theory emerged from the political and intellectual culture of Victorian England and to a lesser extent Germany and the United States, and examines its relationship to science, particularly evolutionary science.
