Settling A Dispute Towards A Legal Anthropology Of Late Antique Egypt:

Settling a Dispute Traianos Gagos, 1994 Family squabbles and fights over real estate were no less complex in sixth century Egypt than they are in the modern world In this unusual volume Peter van Minnen and Traianos Gagos investigate just such a struggle as described in a two part papyrus some five feet long Composed by the ancient equivalent of a notary public the papyrus describes the outcome after mediation of a family dispute about valuable real estate Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen offer an English translation and a clear Greek text of the two papyrus fragments as well as an important discussion of the nature of such mediation its role in contemporary society a consideration of the town of Aphrodito and its social and political elite as well as many other topics that spring from this kind of document The use of methodologies from modern jurisprudence and anthropology together with an accessible style of writing mean that Settling a Dispute will be of interest to persons in many fields including history Classics and Near Eastern studies All Greek is translated and an extensive commentary offers much helpful information on the text Traianos Gagos is Associate Archivist of the University of Michigan's papyri collection Peter van Minnen is Senior Research Associate in the papyri collection at Duke University

The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-27 Darlene L Brooks Hedstrom offers a new history of the field of Egyptian monastic archaeology It is the first study in English to trace how scholars identified a space or site as monastic within the Egyptian landscape and how such identifications impacted perceptions of monasticism Brooks Hedstrom then provides an ecohistory of Egypt's tripartite landscape to offer a reorientation of the perception of the physical landscape She analyzes late antique documentary evidence early monastic literature and ecclesiastical history before turning to the extensive archaeological evidence of Christian monastic settlements In doing so she illustrates the stark differences between idealized monastic landscape and the actual monastic landscape that was urbanized through monastic constructions Drawing upon critical theories in landscape studies materiality and phenomenology Brooks Hedstrom looks at domestic settlements of non monastic and monastic settlements to posit what features makes monastic settlements unique thus offering a new history of monasticism in Egypt

A Companion to Greco-Roman and Late Antique Egypt Katelijn Vandorpe, 2019-06-05 An authoritative and multidisciplinary Companion to Egypt during the Greco Roman and Late Antique period With contributions from noted authorities in the field A Companion to Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt offers a comprehensive resource that covers almost 1000 years of Egyptian history starting with the liberation of Egypt from Persian rule by Alexander the Great in 332 BC and ending in AD 642 when Arab rule started in the Nile country The Companion takes a largely sociological perspective and includes a section on life portraits at the end of each part The theme of identity in a multicultural environment and a chapter on the quality of life of Egypt's inhabitants clearly illustrate this objective The authors put the emphasis on the changes that occurred in the Greco

Roman and Late Antique periods as illustrated by such topics as Traditional religious life challenged Governing a country with a past between tradition and innovation and Creative minds in theory and praxis This important resource Discusses how Egypt became part of a globalizing world in Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine times Explores notable innovations by the Ptolemies and Romans Puts the focus on the longue dur e development Offers a thematic and multidisciplinary approach to the subject bringing together scholars of different disciplines Contains life portraits in which various aspects and themes of people s daily life in Egypt are discussed Written for academics and students of the Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt period this Companion offers a guide that is useful for students in the areas of Hellenistic Roman Byzantine and New Testament studies

Late Antique Egypt , Features an excerpt from the introduction to Settling a Dispute Toward a Legal Anthropology of Late Antique Egypt written by Traianos Gagos and Peter van Minnen and published by the University of Michigan Press in 1994 Discusses the importance of private settlements in late antique society in Egypt

Payne, 2015-09-01 Christian communities flourished during late antiquity in a Zoroastrian political system known as the Iranian Empire that integrated culturally and geographically disparate territories from Arabia to Afghanistan into its institutions and networks Whereas previous studies have regarded Christians as marginal insular and often persecuted participants in this empire Richard Payne demonstrates their integration into elite networks adoption of Iranian political practices and imaginaries and participation in imperial institutions The rise of Christianity in Iran depended on the Zoroastrian theory and practice of hierarchical differentiated inclusion according to which Christians Jews and others occupied legitimate places in Iranian political culture in positions subordinate to the imperial religion Christians for their part positioned themselves in a political culture not of their own making with recourse to their own ideological and institutional resources ranging from the writing of saints lives to the judicial arbitration of bishops In placing the social history of East Syrian Christians at the center of the Iranian imperial story A State of Mixture helps explain the endurance of a culturally diverse empire across four centuries New Frontiers Paul J du Plessis, 2014-03-17 An interdisciplinary edited collection on social science methodologies for approaching Roman legal sources Roman law as a field of study is rapidly evolving to reflect new perspectives and approaches in research Scholars who work on the subject are i Petitions, Litigation, and Social Control in Roman Egypt Benjamin Kelly, 2011-10-13 This book examines the contribution that petitioning and litigation made to the maintenance of the social order in Roman Egypt between 30 BC and AD 284 Through the analysis of the many hundreds of documents surviving on papyrus especially petitions reports of court proceedings and letters Kelly focuses on how the legal system achieved its formal goals that is the resolution of disputes through judgments and discusses in detail the contribution made by the litigation process to informal methods of social control With particular emphasis on the roles that this process played in the transmission of political ideologies in the maintenance of family solidarity and in the fostering of private mechanisms of dispute resolution the book argues that although the legal system was less than successful when judged by its formal aims it did have a real social impact by contributing indirectly to some of the informal mechanisms that ensured order in this province of the Roman Empire However arguing that on occasion one can also see petitioning and litigation being abused for the pursuit of feud and vengeance Kelly also recognizes that the social impacts of petitioning and litigation were multifaceted and in some senses even contradictory Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, 2021-09-09 Egypt played a crucial role in the Roman Empire for seven centuries It was wealthy and occupied a strategic position between the Mediterranean and Indian Ocean worlds while its uniquely fertile lands helped to feed the imperial capitals at Rome and then Constantinople The cultural and religious landscape of Egypt today owes much to developments during the Roman period including in particular the forms taken by Egyptian Christianity Moreover we have an abundance of sources for its history during this time especially because of the recovery of vast numbers of written texts giving an almost uniquely detailed picture of its society economy government and culture This book the work of six historians and archaeologists from Egypt the US and the UK provides students and a general audience with a readable new history of the period and includes many illustrations of art archaeological sites and documents and quotations from primary sources

Women and Society in Greek and Roman Egypt Jane Rowlandson, Roger S. Bagnall, 1998-11-26 The period of Egyptian history from its rule by the Macedonian Ptolemaic dynasty to its incorporation into the Roman and Byzantine empires has left a wealth of evidence for the lives of ordinary men and women Texts often personal letters written on papyrus and other materials objects of everyday use and funerary portraits have survived from the Graeco Roman period of Egyptian history But much of this unparalleled resource has been available only to specialists because of the difficulty of reading and interpreting it Now eleven leading scholars in this field have collaborated to make available to students and other non specialists a selection of over three hundred texts translated from Greek and Egyptian as well as more than fifty illustrations documenting the lives of women within this society from queens to priestesses property owners to slave girls from birth through motherhood to death Each item is accompanied by full explanatory notes and bibliographical references The Social History of Byzantium John Haldon, 2016-07-29 With original essays by leading scholars this book explores the social history of the medieval eastern Roman Empire and offers illuminating new insights into our knowledge of Byzantine society Provides interconnected essays of original scholarship relating to the social history of the Byzantine empire Offers groundbreaking theoretical and empirical research in the study of Byzantine society Includes helpful glossaries of sociological theoretical terms and Byzantine medieval terms Coptic Studies on the Threshold of a New Millennium Mat Immerzeel, Jacques van der Vliet, 2004 The congresses organised every four years under the auspices of the International Association for Coptic Studies IACS are the main forum for scholars of Egyptian Christian life and culture through the ages The proceedings of the seventh congress which was held in Leiden in 2000 comprise ninety nine papers reflecting the growth and diversification of Coptic studies worldwide They include valuable and sometimes groundbreaking essays in topics of for example Coptic language literature monasticism and archaeology A particularly noteworthy and important feature of the present proceedings are the state of the art reviews of current trends and achievements in the main fields of the discipline written by invited experts and accompanied by extensive bibliographies These review articles cover aspects of Coptic studies as diverse as papyrology gnosticism liturgy Copto Arabic and art history They turn these two volumes into real reference books indispensable for every scholar of early Church history late antiquity and Near Eastern Christianity Unending Variety, 2024-03-11 This is a Festschrift offered by friends and colleagues to papyrologist and ancient historian Peter van Minnen The volume contains the edition or re edition of 52 papyri and ostraca dating from between the third century BCE and the eighth century CE Their subjects vary from Demosthenes to the delivery of camels in early Islamic Egypt and their provenances stretch from the Eastern to the Western Desert and from the Egyptian Nile valley to Qasr Ibrim in northern Nubia All texts are published with transcription translation commentary and colour photographs In addition there are five studies reflecting the honoree's wide ranging interests

Localized Law Kimberley Czajkowski, 2017 Localized Law examines the legal archives of Babatha and Salome Komaise which offer a window onto the practice of law in Maoza as it came under the control of the Roman Empire A series of case studies of the various agents involved in the legal transactions illuminates the legal culture of this community and its practice of law and justice

The Rise of Coptic Jean-Luc Fournet, 2022-01-11 Coptic emerged as the written form of the Egyptian language in the third century when Greek was still the official language in Egypt By the time of the Arab conquest of Egypt in 641 Coptic had almost achieved official status but only after an unusually prolonged period of stagnation Jean Luc Fournet traces this complex history showing how the rise of Coptic took place amid profound cultural religious and political changes in late antiquity For some three hundred years after its introduction into the written culture of Egypt Coptic was limited to biblical translation and private and monastic correspondence while Greek retained its monopoly on administrative legal and literary writing This changed during the sixth century when Coptic began to penetrate domains that were once closed to it such as literature liturgy regulated transactions between individuals and communications between the state and its subjects Fournet examines the reasons for Coptic's late development as a competing language which was unlike what happened with other vernacular languages in Near Eastern Greek speaking societies and explains why Coptic eventually succeeded in being recognized with Greek as an official language Incisively written and rich with insights The Rise of Coptic draws on a wealth of archival evidence to shed new light on the role of monasticism in the growing use of Coptic before the Arab conquest

Hellenistic and Roman Egypt Roger S. Bagnall, 2024-12-11 This second collection by Roger Bagnall brings together a further two dozen of his studies this time covering Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine Egypt published over the last thirty years Many of the articles deal with issues of historical and papyrological method the restoration of papyrus texts the direction of archaeological work in Egypt economic models for Roman Egypt the usefulness of postcolonial theory and approaches to the defective literary tradition for the Library of Alexandria Others concentrate on particular bodies of evidence ranging from inscriptions to ascetic literature from registers to women's letters

Economy and Society in the Age of Justinian Peter Sarris, 2006-09-28 The reign of the Byzantine Emperor Justinian 527-65 stands out in late Roman and medieval history Justinian re-conquered far-flung territories from the barbarians overhauled the Empire's administrative framework and codified for posterity the inherited tradition of Roman law This work represents a modern study in English of the social and economic history of the Eastern Roman Empire in the reign of the Emperor Justinian Drawing upon papyrological numismatic legal literary and archaeological evidence the study seeks to reconstruct the emergent nature of relations between landowners and peasants and aristocrats and emperors in the late antique Eastern Empire It provides a social and economic context in which to situate the Emperor Justinian's mid-sixth century reform programme and questions the implications of the Eastern Empire's pattern of social and economic development under Justinian for its subsequent post-Justinianic history
