singles gaining wisdom and encouragement from women who've been there and have found God's ways to be true and good. Imagine all women from older women to young girls living out His transforming gospel together growing the entire body of Christ to be more beautiful. This is Christian community as God designed it. Read this book and take your relationships to new depths that your life might find its fullest meaning as you adorn the gospel of Christ. Faith Reads David Rainey, 2008-07-30. At last a resource for librarians who wish to build or develop their nonfiction collection and use it to better serve the needs of adult Christian readers. Covering the three major branches of Christianity: Roman Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox, the author organizes more than 600 titles into subject categories ranging from biography, the arts, and education to theology, devotion, and spiritual warfare. Award-winning classics are noted. Introductory narrative frames the literature and helps librarians better understand Christian literature and learn how to establish selection criteria for building a Christian nonfiction collection.

Secret Keeper Dannah Gresh, 2002. The author helps single Christian women discover the lost art of modesty in this age of low-rise jeans and belly button rings, teaching that modesty not only issues a challenge for one man to romantically earn their virtue but also expresses their love for and obedience to God.
