Harold Ellens, 2013-11-26 The product of 35 senior scholars research these volumes examine the psychology driving the religious political and economic forces that cause turbulence and violence in human society Religious political and economic revolts have defined the human experience throughout history These kinds of universal turbulence continue to be the dominate source of human suffering and perplexity during the first decade of the 21st century What can intensive study of the psychodynamics of cultural and social eruptions tell us that may serve to move cultures around the world beyond ongoing strife This work seeks to find out examining the spectrum of cultural and social eruptions from ancient Jewish Christian and Muslim revolutions to the modern day economic and political turbulence in Eastern Europe the Near East and Latin America The breadth of this three volume set ranges from the 12th century BCE to the current struggles in Iraq Afghanistan and Syria and from the irrational violence of the French Revolution to the genuine quest for liberty of the American Revolution and the Singing Revolutions in the Baltic States in recent decades Each volume is introduced with a description of its philosophical perspective and concludes with a brief summarization of the takeaways of the research presented Women in Soviet Film Marina Rojavin, Tim Harte, 2017-09-22 This book illuminates and explores the representation of women in Soviet cinema from the late 1950s through the 1960s and into the 1970s a period when Soviet culture shifted away to varying degrees from the well established conventions of socialist realism Covering films about working class women rural and urban women and women from the intelligentsia it probes various cinematic genres and approaches to film aesthetics while it also highlights how Soviet cinema depicted the ambiguity of emerging gender roles pressing social issues and evolving relationships between men and women It thereby casts a penetrating light on society and culture in this crucial period of the Soviet Union s development The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov James Steffen, 2013-10-31 Sergei Parajanov 1924-90 flouted the rules of both filmmaking and society in the Soviet Union and paid a heavy personal price An ethnic Armenian in the multicultural atmosphere of Tbilisi Georgia he was one of the most innovative directors of postwar Soviet cinema Parajanov succeeded in creating a small but marvelous body of work whose style embraces such diverse influences as folk art medieval miniature painting early cinema Russian and European art films surrealism and Armenian Georgian and Ukrainian cultural motifs The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov is the first English language book on the director s films and the most comprehensive study of his work James Steffen provides a detailed overview of Parajanov s artistic career his identity as an Armenian in Georgia and its impact on his aesthetics his early films in Ukraine his international breakthrough in 1964 with Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors his challenging 1969 masterpiece The Color of Pomegranates which was reedited against his wishes his unrealized projects in the 1970s and his eventual return to international prominence in the mid to late 1980s with The Legend of the Surami Fortress and Ashik Kerib Steffen also provides a rare behind the scenes view of the Soviet film censorship process and tells the dramatic story of Parajanov's conflicts with the authorities culminating in his 1973 arrest and imprisonment on charges related to homosexuality. Ultimately the figure of Parajanov offers a fascinating case study in the complicated dynamics of power, nationality, politics, ethnicity, sexuality and culture in the republics of the former Soviet Union. Persianate Verse and the Poetics of Eastern Internationalism Samuel Hodgkin, 2023-12-21 At the height of literary nationalisms in the twentieth century, leftist internationalists from Turkey, Iran, Afghanistan, India and the Soviet East bonded over their shared love of the classical Persian verses of Hafiz and Khayyam. At writers' congresses and in communist literary journals they affirmed their friendship and solidarity with lyric ghazals and rubaiyat. Persianate poetry became the cultural commons for a distinctively Eastern internationalism shaping national literatures in the Soviet Union, the Middle East and South Asia. By the early Cold War the literary entanglement between Persianate culture and communism had established models for cultural decolonization that would ultimately outlast the Soviet imperial project. In the archive of literature produced under communism in Persian, Tajik, Dari, Turkish, Uzbek, Azerbaijani, Armenian and Russian, this book finds a vital alternative to Western globalized world literature.

My Year 2004 Douglas Messerli, 2008 The third volume in Messerli's ongoing cultural memoirs, beginning in the year 2000, considers all things under the skin: readings, events and memories that have defined him as a person. In his ongoing attempt to write about a life defined by cultural experiences, Messerli delves deep into the cultural events both popular and literary he was witness to during his lifetime. Crowtett 1 Mac

Wellman, 2000 An edition of the first two plays in Mac Wellman's highly successful quartet of plays. The Exterminating Angel Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, 2003 An aristocrat called Nobile invites several society friends to his house after the opera. But even as the dinner preparations are underway, servants feel compelled to leave. Despite threats of dismissal, the footman also leaves, and as other guests arrive, other servants escape. Dinner is served and hours pass but the guests do not leave. Finally, each refusing to be the first to leave, the party distrust sets in and the guests turn on their host, blaming him for their self-induced captivity. One of Buñuel's most sardonically humorous and visually stunning works. Discourse, 1999

Sergei Parajanov (1924-1990) Sergei Paradzhanov, 2002 The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century Douglas Messerli, 2000 The fifth volume of this acclaimed anthology features the work of innovative poets of southern California. This gathering of 28 poets does not write a particular kind of poetry but as individuals they have worked together through a series of intersecting ideas and interests to create some of the best writing of contemporary poetry, contradicting many of the simplistic notions of people outside of the region. In his introduction, editor Douglas Messerli provides a complete history of the loosely knit group and the interrelationships within it. In the Mirror of the Eighth King Christopher Middleton, 1999 A collection of essays by the British poet and translator. Sand Dennis Phillips, 2002 The ninth collection of poetry by Los Angeles author Dennis Phillips. Gold Fools Gilbert Sorrentino, 2001 The most recent novel by the noted American novelist Gilbert Sorrentino Tousled Beauty Dieter M. Gräf, 2005 Selection of the young German poet's work emphasising poetry often broken and scruffy from before the 21st century Many of the poems were written on the road in Europe and Asia as well as during a stay at the villa Aurora in Los Angeles in 1999 The poems were translated in unusually close co operation between author and translator with the author even revising some of the German poems in the process The Disparities Rodrigo Toscano, 2002 A first book of poetry by Toscano Lichtzwang Paul Celan, 2005 Lightduress was written between June and December 1967 and appeared approximately three months after the poet's suicide in 1970 1967 the year in which he composed most of this book had been a difficult year for Celan He was accused of plagiarism attempted suicide was interned in a psychiatric hospital and also separated from his wife During this same period on the other hand Celan wrote more than half of the poems of Threadsun and a major part of this volume and in July he lectured at a German university Translated by noted poet Pierre Joris Displeasures of the Table Martha Clare Ronk, 2001 A delightfully comic and serious trip through food by a woman who finds eating it not Russian Studies in Literature, 2004 The Twofold Vibration Raymond Federman, 2000 A reprinting of the important novel by Raymond Federman
