Seven Footprints to Satan (English Edition) Abraham Merritt, 2017-02-26 The clock was striking eight as I walked out of the doors of the Discoverers Club and stood for a moment looking down lower Fifth Avenue As I paused I felt with full force that uncomfortable sensation of being watched that had both puzzled and harassed me for the past two weeks A curiously prickly cold feeling somewhere deep under the skin on the side that the watchers are located an odd sort of tingling pressure It is a queer sort of a sensitivity that I have in common with most men who spend much of their lives in the jungle or desert It is a throwback to some primitive sixth sense since all savages have it until they get introduced to the white man's liquor Trouble was I couldn't localize the sensation It seemed to trickle in on me from all sides I scanned the street Three taxis were drawn up along the curb in front of the Club They were empty and their drivers busy talking There were no loiterers that I could see The two swift side rubbing streams of traffic swept up and down the Avenue I studied the windows of the opposite houses There was no sign in them of any watchers Yet eyes were upon me intently I knew it

Seven Footprints to Satan Abraham Merritt, 2020-08-25 Who was it that was watching me And why Some one from China who had followed after the treasure I had taken from the ancient tomb I could not believe it Kin Wang bandit though he might be and accomplished graduate of American poker as well as of Cornell would have sent no spies after me Our well call it transaction irregular as it had been was finished in his mind when he had lost Crooked as he might be with the cards he was not the man to go back on his word Of that I was sure Besides there had been no need of letting me get this far before striking No they were no emissaries of Kin Wang There had been that mock arrest in Paris designed to get me quickly out of the way for a few hours as the ransacked condition of my room and baggage showed when I returned A return undoubtedly much earlier than the thieves had planned due to my discovery of the ruse and my surprise sally which left me with an uncomfortable knife slash under an arm but I afterwards reflected pleasantly had undoubtedly left one of my guards with a broken neck and another with a head that would not do much thinking for another month or so Then there had been the second attempt when the auto in which I was rushing to the steamer had been held up between Paris and the Havre That might have been successful had not the plaques been tucked among the baggage of an acquaintance who was going to the boat by the regular train thinking by the way that he was carrying for me some moderately rare old dishes that I did not want to trust to the possible shocks of fast automobile travel to which the mythical engagement on the day of sailing had condemned me Were the watchers this same gang They must know that the jades were now out of my hands and safe in the museum I could be of no further value to these disappointed gentlemen unless of course they were after revenge Yet that would hardly explain this constant furtive patient watching And why hadn t they struck long before Surely there had been plenty of opportunities Well whoever the watchers were I had determined to give them the most open of chances to get at me I had paid all my bills The sixty six dollars and ninety five cents in my pocket comprised all my worldly goods but no one else had any claim on it Whatever unknown port I was clearing for with severely bare sticks and decks it was with no debts left behind Yes I had determined to decoy my enemies if enemies they were out into the open I had even made up my mind as to where it should be In all New York the loneliest spot at eight o clock of an October night or any night for that matter is the one which by day is the most crowded on all the globe Lower Broadway empty then of all its hordes and its canyon like cleft silent its intersecting minor canyons emptier and quieter even than their desert kin It was there that I would go
