remember well the feelings roused in my mind at mention or sight of the name Lucifer during the earlier years of my life It stood for me as the name of a being stupendous dreadful in moral deformity lurid hideous and mighty I remember also the surprise with which when I had grown somewhat older and begun to study Latin I came upon the name in Virgil where it means the Light bringer or Morning star the herald of the sun Many years after I had found the name in Virgil I spent a night at the house of a friend in Milwaukee Wisconsin right at the shore of Lake Michigan The night was clear but without a moon a night of stars which is the most impressive of all nights vast brooding majestic At three o clock in the morning I woke and being near an uncurtained window rose and looked out Rather low in the east was the Morning star shining like silver with a bluish tinge of steel I looked towards the west the great infinity was filled with the hosts of heaven ranged behind this Morning star I saw at once the origin of the myth which grew to have such tremendous moral meaning because the Morning star was not in this case the usher of the day but the chieftain of night the Prince of Darkness the mortal enemy of the Lord of Light I returned to bed knowing that the battle in heaven would soon begin I rose when the sun was high next morning All the world was bright shining and active glad some and fresh from the rays of the sun the kingdom of light was established but the Prince of Darkness and all his confederates had vanished cast down from the sky and to the endless eternity of God their places will know them no more in that night again They are lost beyond hope or redemption beyond penance or prayer I have in mind at this moment two Indian stories of the Morning star one Modoc the other Delaware The Modoc story is very long and contains much valuable matter but the group of incidents that I wish to refer to here are the daily adventures and exploits of a personage who seems to be no other than the sky with the sun in it This personage is destroyed every evening He always gets into trouble and is burned up but in his back is a golden disk which neither fire nor anything in the world can destroy From this disk his body is reconstituted every morning and all that is needed for the resurrection is the summons of the Morning star who calls out It is time to rise old man you have slept long enough Then the old man springs new again from his ashes through virtue of the immortal disk and the compelling word of the star Now the Morning star is the attendant spirit or medicine of the personage with the disk and cannot escape the performance of his office he has to work at it forever So the old man cannot fail to rise every morning As the golden disk is no other than the sun the Morning star of the Modocs

is the same character as the Lucifer of the Latins Myths and Folk-Tales Jeremiah Curtin,1971 Individual Guidance in a CCC Camp Kirkland Sloper,1939 Theory of Seven I. 7 roles of the team. 7 faces of the soul. 7 types of character (english edition) Nikolay Tatarov,2018-11-04 Theory of Seven I am psychology what it should be simple clear without clever words This is the doctrine of the seven inner self from which the character of man is formed 7 psychical types and 7 team roles are born The theory of seven I is a powerful tool for knowledge the inner world it allows you to understand yourself and others beings find in the depths of the soul hidden self turn the peculiarities of his nature to competitive advantage Index to Fairy Tales, Myths, and Legends Mary Huse Eastman,1926 The Water of Life Nathalie Baratoff ,2020-12-01 C G Jung s psychology provides a unique understanding of the seven tales in this volume The archetypal images therein are many layered We can see them from the mythological viewpoint as dragons demons and witches we find them in rivers of fire in kingdoms at the bottom of the sea in talking animals and in endless transformations that defy human experience The same images mirror situations of everyday life the joys of love success in one s endeavors but also abandonment yearning for offspring loss of a sheltered existence as well as the many insurmountable tasks which confront us in life But the most significant of Jung s insights into the psyche is the realization that all such experiences rest upon an inner reality which needs to be understood symbolically This is where the archetypal nature of fairy tales is most relevant for it explains why people of all ages and all levels of society have been fascinated by them people often without much formal education gathered around a fire at the end of a hard day and gazing into the flames followed the images arising from the storyteller s words Today many have by and large lost the capacity for such experiences Children still do adults are often distracted by the demands of outer life And yet fairy tales retell fundamental experiences of life which are timeless The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan,Diane Goetz Person,2005-01-01 Provides articles covering children s literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi C S Lewis J K Rowling and Anno Mitsumasa
