The Cinema of Robert Lepage Aleksandar Dundjerovich, 2003 The Cinema of Robert Lepage is the first critical study of one of the most striking artists of Quebecois and Canadian independent filmmaking The book examines Lepage's creative methods of filmmaking in their cultural and social context and argues that his work cannot be seen separately from his oeuvre as a multidisciplinary artist and challenges the notions that Lepage should be considered only in the terms of Quebecois film tradition The author explores such themes with Lepage in a new exclusive and detailed interview Robert Lepage / Ex Machina James Reynolds, 2019-02-07 Robert Lepage Ex Machina Revolutions in Theatrical Space provides an ideal introduction to one of our most innovative companies and a much needed and timely reappraisal of

Lepage's oeuvre International interdisciplinary and intercultural to the core Ex Machina have negotiated some of the most complex creative and cultural challenges of our time This book maps the story of that journey by analysing the full spectrum of their richly varied work Through a comprehensive historiography of productions since 1994 Robert Lepage Ex Machina offers a detailed picture of the relationship between director and company while connecting Ex Machina to culturally specific features of Quebec and its theatre This book reveals for the first time how overlooked aspects of creativity and culture shaped the company's early work while installing a dynamic interplay between director and company that would spark a unique and ongoing evolution of praxis Central to this re-evaluation of practice is the book's identification of an architectural aesthetic at the heart of Ex Machina's work an aesthetic which provides its artistic and political centres of gravity Moreover this architectural aesthetic powers the emergence of concrete narrative as a new and distinctive mode of theatrical storytelling uniting story and space body and technology content and form and demanding that we discover the politics of these performances in the energetic gestures of theatre design and space itself Drawing on extensive interviews with Lepage Ex Machina personnel and collaborative partners Robert Lepage Ex Machina calls upon us to revise both our creative and critical perceptions of this vital and distinctive practice Robert Lepage Aleksandar Saša Dundjerovic, 2008-11-25
