The Publishers Weekly ,1898 Drugs, Alcohol and Addiction in the Long Nineteenth Century Daniel Malleck, 2020-01-24 This collection captures key themes and issues in the broad history of addiction and vice in the Anglo American world Focusing on the long nineteenth century the volumes consider how scientific social and cultural experiences with drugs alcohol addiction gambling and prostitution varied around the world What might be considered vice or addiction could be interpreted in various ways through various lenses and such activities were interpreted differently depending upon the observer the medical practitioner the evangelical missionary the thrill seeking bon vivant and the concerned government commissioner to name but a few For example opium addiction in middle class households resulting from medical treatment was judged much differently than Chinese opium smoking by those in poverty or poor living conditions in North American work camps on the west coast or on the streets of Soho This collection will assemble key documents representing both the official and general view of these various activities providing readers with a cross section of interpretations and a solid grounding in the material that shaped policy change cultural interpretation and social action The News-letter of the Society for the Study of Southern Literature Society for the Study of Southern Literature, 1994 Telling Stories to Children Sylvia Ziskind, 1976 Tales Under a Full Moon J. P. Cardone, 2006-11-20 Designed to massage your emotions Tales Under A Full Moon is comprised of seven modern day short stories that prove once again that people do act strangely and weird things can happen Escape into the lives of ordinary people who for one reason or another find themselves caught up in the events of the moment Rich with likeable characters oftentimes pushed to their limits these stories will capture your attention and your heart While the stories go in one direction the conclusions always have a twist that will land you in the unexpected Also by J P Cardone Check this out Without Consent Narrative Progression in the Short Story Michael J. Toolan, 2009 One of our most valuable capacities is our ability partly to predict what will come next in a text But linguistic understanding of this remains very limited especially in genres such as the short story where there is a staging of the clash between predictability and unpredictability This book proposes that a matrix of narrativity furthering textual features is crucial to the reader s forming of expectations about how a literary story will continue to its close Toolan uses corpus linguistic software and methods and stylistic and narratological theory in the course of delineating the matrix of eight parameters that he sees as crucial to creating narrative progression and expectation The book will be of interest to stylisticians narratologists corpus linguists and short story scholars Best of Times, Worst of Times Wendy Martin, Cecelia
