private collections located in New York City and its suburbs Organized jointly by The Pierpont Morgan Library and The Metropolitan Museum of Art the exhibitions alternate between the two institutions the first of the Italian Renaissance having been shown at The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the second which took place at the Morgan Library Each exhibition is commemorated in a catalogue in which every drawing is fully described and illustrated This series was a cooperative venture in which the Metropolitan's late director James J. Rorimer took particular pleasure participating actively in its planning reading with a close critical eye the printer's proof of the first catalogue and presiding at the inaugural exhibition We shall carry on the projected series but with a deep sense of loss Italian painting of the seventeenth century aroused little enthusiasm among Americans in the first half of the twentieth century It is all the more gratifying that we have been able to assemble so representative a selection of drawings of the period from within our immediate area To be sure we have been fortunate as before in being able to borrow from collectors who began their buying as Europeans but it is also evident that recently in this country museums and their patrons increasingly appreciate seventeenth century Italian drawings and paintings This book was originally published in 1967 and has gone out of print This edition is a print on demand version of the original book Mariette and the Science of the Connoisseur in Eighteenth-Century Europe Kristel Smentek, 2017-07-05 Celebrated connoisseur drawings collector print dealer book publisher and authority on the art of antiquity Pierre Jean Mariette 1694-1774 was a pivotal figure in the eighteenth century European art world Focusing on the trajectory of Mariette's career this book examines the material practices and social networks through which connoisseurs forged the idea of art as an object of empirical and historical analysis Drawing on significant unpublished archival material as well as on histories of science publishing collecting and display this book shows how Mariette and his colleagues' practices of classification and interpretation of the graphic arts gave rise to new conceptions of artistic authorship and to a history of art that transcended the biographies of individual artists To follow Mariette's career through the eighteenth century is to see that art was consolidated as a specialized category of intellectual inquiry and that style emerged as its structuring analytic device in the overlapping spaces of the collector's cabinet the connoisseur's portfolio and the dealer's shop European Drawings 4 Nicholas Turner, 2001-01-03 The collection of drawings at the Getty Museum was started in 1981 with the purchase of Rembrandt's Nude Woman with a Snake and has steadily expanded since then so that now at the turn of the new millennium it stands at more than six hundred drawings and is sheet for sheet one of the best anywhere The Getty goal is to create from the finest examples a collection of the different Western European schools of drawing before 1900 with special emphasis on the work of the most important and accomplished draftsmen The collection now contains superb examples of the work of Leonardo da Vinci Raphael Michelangelo Dürer Rembrandt Claude Lorraine Watteau Gainsborough David Millet Manet Van Gogh and Degas This is the fourth in the series of catalogues describing the drawings in the Getty Museum Most of the drawings discussed in the present volume were chosen for the collection in the period of 1994 to 1998 and include examples from the Italian German Dutch and Flemish French Spanish and British schools Also included are several gifts from private collectors which mark the start of a tradition that it is hoped will continue in the future The catalogue entries for these new acquisitions are organized first by national school and then by artist The book also includes a bibliography and indexes of artists former owners related drawings prints and works in other media European Drawings 1 George R. Goldner, Lee Hendrix, Gloria Williams, 1988-04-01 Within a short time the Department of Drawings has acquired impressive holdings of European works on paper This volume the first in a series intended to keep scholars apprised of acquisitions contains 149 entries on Italian French Flemish Dutch and other works ranging in date from the Renaissance through the nineteenth century Artists represented include Rembrandt Cezanne Blake Goya D rer Savery Rubens Millet Veronese Caravaggio Raphael and numerous others All drawings are illustrated at full page size Peter Paul Rubens Anne-Marie S. Logan, Peter Paul Rubens, Michiel Plomp, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2005 Catalogue of an exhibition held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Jan 15 Apr 3 2005 Raphael to Renoir Stijn Alsteens, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery of Scotland, 2009 The works from the Bonna Collection are illustrated in color and whenever possible at their actual sizes They are arranged chronologically by the artist s date of birth and are grouped according to the main artistic schools This volume is introduced by an interview with Jean Bonna by George Goldner Each drawing is then described in an entry many of which have comparative illustrations that shed further light on individual works BOOK JACKET "Collecting Prints and Drawings in Europe, c. 1500?750 " Christopher Baker, 2017-09-29 Prints and drawings have been keenly collected in Europe since at least the early sixteenth century Relatively modest in price they offered artists amateurs and collectors of a systematic turn of mind the opportunity to put together holdings with a wide representation of different hands schools and types of subject Prints and drawings are traditionally treated separately but their collecting is shown here to raise many interrelated issues Employing a wide range of methodologies the essays in this volume offer a number of innovative investigations into the collecting perception classification and display of works on paper
