Seventy Prepositions Poems:

The Seventy Prepositions Carol Snow, 2004-04-19 Carol Snow s award winning poetry has been admired and celebrated as work of difficult beauty Robert Hass ever restless ever re framing the frame of reference Boston Review teaching us how brutally self transforming a verbal action can be when undertaken in good faith Jorie Graham In this her third volume Snow continues to mine the language to its most mysterious depths and to explore the possibilities its meanings and mechanics hold for definition transformation and emotional truth These poems place us before and in language as we stand before and in the world The Seventy Prepositions comprises three suites of poems The first Vocabulary Sentences reflects on words and reality by taking as a formal motif the sort of sentences used to test vocabulary skills in elementary school The poems of the second suite Vantage gather loosely around questions of perspective and perception The closing suite finds its inspiration in the Japanese dry landscape gardens known as karesansui such as the famous rock garden at Ryoan ji Temple in Kyoto Here the poet approaches composition as one faces a miniature Zen garden choosing and positioning words rather than stones formally precisely evocatively Position Paper: New and Selected Poems Carol Snow, 2016-05-17 In Position Paper Carol Snows project of noting the world in relation comes fully assembled This New and Selected Poems gathers work from ArtistandModel a first book of singular poetic intelligence and attention Michael Palmer to what Brian Teare called the compassionately witty karesansui collages citing Bash Sappho Picasso Groucho to new work in elegy to the poet's sister consolidating a startling range of means The art of Henri Matisse touchstone of invention and attention or gratitude not madness is one motif attending this collection the stone and sand arrangement of the Zen garden at Ryoan ji another not to mention the 70 prepositions the poet memorized in Junior High School Snow s work has been praised as brilliant funny subtle Robert Hass delicate masterful Cole Swenson and a new and mesmerizing way of looking at things Fanny Howe Stones art family elegy error perception prepositions permutations likening like an only hope or home Fluorescence Jennifer K. Dick, 2004 In Jennifer K Dick s first book Fluorescence very real The whole a kind of suite places Paris Massachusetts Colorado Iowa Morocco mix into the imagined into Breughelian villages where there s a persimmon in the corner knitting These places are inhabited by varied but always very real bodies stretching outward from their own edges and encountering or engendering a certain luminescence in the process What happens when we exceed ourselves When fragments of dream are lifted to the surface and through to something beyond Clues keys indications all that once seemed certain slips off into code These poems use language to crack it Publications of the Modern Language Association of America Modern Language Association of America, 2004 12 X 12 Christina Mengert, Joshua Marie Wilkinson, 2009-04-16 This book includes the poetry by and interviews with Jennifer K Dick Laura Mullen Jon Woodward Rae Armantrout Sabrina Orah Mark Claudia Rankine Christina Hawkey Toma alamun Christine Hume Rosemarie Waldrop Srinkath Reddy Mark Levine Karen Volkman Allen Grossman Paul Fattaruso Dara Wier Mark Yakich Mary Leader Michelle

Robinson Paul Auster Sawako Nakayasu Carla Harryman Ben Lerner and Aaron Kunin Publications of the Modern Placed Carol Snow, 2008 Poetry PLACED KARESANSUI POEMS is a poetic Language Association of America ,2004 sequence that juxtaposes words phrases quotes and lyric excerpts in the manner of stones in a Japanese dry landscape Zen garden karesansui Subtexts identify sources of quotations ranging from Matsuo Bash o to the Marx Brothers Time is stilled here each one or two line poem for rather than about insight is both brief and durable inviting the reader to explore and reconsider a complex of associations Sight Map Brian Teare, 2009 Remarkable in its range this book serves at once as a cross country travelogue a pilgrim s Gnostic progress an improvised field guide and a postmodern pillowbook recording the erotic conflation of lover and beloved deity and doubter With startling poetic skill formal profligacy and emotional daring the author gives a series of lessons in how to read differently how to pleasure changed language Back cover Laura Walker, 2008-04-08 A poetic charting of Laura Walker's rural southern hometown Rimertown an atlas delves into the startling landscapes created by the passage of time through people and through place it is an atlas born of image and voice Composed of four interwoven strands a collection of maps a collection of stories a series of vernacular prose poems and a fractured narrative the volume explores various geographies of the physical world of the intersection of natural and peopled landscapes of the passage of time of leaving and returning of human relationships of soldiers and war Walker asks how is home carried in memory in landscape in story in time Her poems break and merge stitching and fragmenting narrative syntax and image as they push toward their own geography a fever doll tapered song engineered into dusk hold the watery stream its buck and clanging Dark Archive Laura Mullen, 2011-03-29 Dark archive The purpose of a dark archive is to function as a repository for information that can be used as a failsafe during disaster recovery Laura Mullen's fourth collection is a sequence of beautifully interrelated poems that explores how to accurately represent the reality of change and loss Mullen pinpoints what is at stake the possibility of communication and connection and the hope of intimacy Invoking Wordsworth's I wandered lonely as a cloud she pushes experiments in consciousness against their boundaries in an array of poetic forms Poetic tropes are measured against natural phenomena as Mullen examines what witness might mean in the context of the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina the failures of capitalism to effect social justice the murder of James Byrd in Texas the personal loss of a mother figure and a disintegrating love affair Transcendental Studies Keith Waldrop, 2009 From the jungles of Rwanda to the ruined streets of Somalia to the craggy mountains of Afghanistan a Pulitzer Prize winning journalist offers this intimate portrayal of war from the front lines Virgil and the Mountain Cat David Lau, 2009-03-02 Virgil and the Mountain Cat David Lau s first book of poems evokes the shattering of Western civilization not its collapse but the tense apprehensive moment before the cracked vessel falls apart What commanded trust now provokes a nihilistic retaliatory mischief making poetic language in which the only redemptive element if there is one is what Alain Badiou calls the engine of excess in the greatest 20th century art excess of the kind that allows for change a revolution Lau s high voltage language is a measure of the passion of and for belief that has been lost Lau is a remarkable young poet Calvin Bedient author of Candy Necklace It's after the end of the world and David Lau is our last first poet of the future past When words have nowhere left to go they need a new Virgil to guide them sideways in time to where they can become ferociously fractal as the cry of a mountain cat The microtonal resistances of Lau s language both remove and remotivate meaning what the poet saw was raw war David Lau s work enacts a great refusal that lights fuses beneath the psycho political dome Andrew Joron author of The Sound Mirror The scary accomplishment of Virgil and the Mountain Cat is to remind a reader that poetry has the capacity to disturb rather than calm one s nervous system Lau s poems are knowing and proficient and care nothing for your feelings Punk in its spirit sure to prove alienating to most readers over thirty and spoken from a place deep inside the annotations this book is an unforgiving glimpse of the horizonless present Mark Levine author of The Wilds the Orator Sarah Gridley, 2010-04-02 Green is the Orator follows on Sarah Gridley's brilliant first collection Weather Eye Open in addressing the challenge of representing nature through language Gridley's deftly original syntax arises from direct experience of the natural world and from encounters with other texts including the Egyptian Book of the Dead and the writings of Charles Darwin Peter Mark Roget William Morris William James and Henri Bergson Gridley's own idiom is compressed original and full of unexpected pleasures This unusual book at once austere and full of life reflects a penetrating mind at work one that is thinking through and re presenting romantic and modernist traditions of nature American Book Publishing Record, 2003 2004, Zyzzyva Harm. Steve Willard, 2007-04-09 Publisher description The Wilds Mark Levine, 2006-04-10 Mark Levine is a Wallace Stevens for our generation A book of poems involved with the processes of remembrance and questions of the personal and historical past Metropole Geoffrey G. O Brien, 2011-03-02 Geoffrey O Brien s third collection of experimental poetry Subject Laura Mullen, 2005-04-01 Calvin Bedient calls the poetry in this volume solid and brave and relentlessly inventive Forrest Gander says The obsessive force of this poetry ruptured by caesura and stanza is remarkable Despite the considerable intellectual torque the poems concerned always with identity the borders of the I and the Here are quite funny in passages The drama of this work is gripping convulsive and intense Subject holds the mirror up to language attempting to find out and find ways out of the limits of the world we are sentenced to The lyric impulse exists but the surface is rough reflecting the violence of the effort to see into seeing itself the voice is ragged syntax is torn words have been broken into syllable and sound images dissolve the page holds out alternate visions and versions in double or triple columns leaving any would be univocal truth always in doubt The Totality for Kids Joshua Clover, 2006-04-10 The Totality for Kids is the second collection of poems by Joshua Clover whose debut Madonna anno domini won the Walt Whitman award from the Academy of American Poets This volume takes as its subject the troubled sleep of late modernity from the grandeur and failure of megacities to the retreats and displacements of the suburbs The power of crowds and architecture commingles with the alienation and idleness of the observer caught between the brutal red dream

Of the collective and the parade Of the ideal citizen The book s action takes place in these gaps dead spaces beside the endlessly grieving stream The frozen tableau of the spectacle meets its double in the sense that something is always about to happen Political furies and erotic imaginings coalesce and escape within a welter of unmoored allusions encounters citations and histories the dreams possible within the modern s excess of signification as if to return revolutionary possibility to the regime of information by singing it its own song
