mastery brought a cosmopolitan edge to the magazine's pages a vitality that would soon cement The New Yorker as one of the world's most celebrated publications Alongside New Yorker luminaries such as E B White James Thurber and founding editor Harold Ross Arno is one of the select few who made the magazine the cultural touchstone it is today In this intimate biography of one of The New Yorker's first geniuses Michael Maslin dives into Arno's rocky relationship with the magazine his fiery marriage to the columnist Lois Long and his tabloid cover altercations involving pistols fists and barely legal debutantes Maslin invites us inside the Roaring Twenties cultural swirl known as Caf Society in which Arno was an insider and observant outsider both fascinated and repulsed by America's swelling concept of celebrity Through a nuanced constellation of Arno's most defining experiences and escapades that inspired his work in the pages of The New Yorker Maslin explores the formative years of the publication and its iconic cartoon tradition In tandem he traces the shifting gradations of Arno's brushstrokes and characters over the decades all in light of the cultural upheavals that informed Arno's sardonic humor In this first ever portrait of America's seminal cartoonist we finally come eye to eye with the irreverent spirit at the core of the New Yorker cartoon a genre in itself and leave with no doubt as to how and why this genre came to be embraced by the masses as a timeless reflection of ourselves
