Seventy-three poems Edward E. Cummings,1967 Producing Women's Poetry, 1600-1730 Gillian

Wright,2013-04-18 Producing Women s Poetry is the first specialist study to consider English language poetry by women across the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries Gillian Wright explores not only the forms and topics favoured by women but also how their verse was enabled and shaped by their textual and biographical circumstances She combines traditional literary and bibliographical approaches to address women s complex use of manuscript and print and their relationships with the male generated genres of the traditional literary canon as well as the role of agents such as scribes publishers and editors in helping to determine how women s poetry was preserved circulated and remembered Wright focuses on key figures in the emerging canon of early modern women s writing Anne Bradstreet Katherine Philips and Anne Finch alongside the work of lesser known poets Anne Southwell and Mary Monck to create a new and compelling account of early modern women s literary history From Somewhere to Here Stephen Scorer,2018-09-24 From somewhere to here is a collection of my second 50 poems my writing journey started after I became redundant from my job as a post person in March 2016 There is a wide range of topics that I have tried to cover these still include some sports poems and some on mental health but I have started to branch out and put a pen to paper whenever the urge strikes When I decided on making my own poetry book to which I mean from writing printing then putting it all together to make a small collection I also thought after reading so many different types of poetry books Just like taking life s many routes and paths so will my poetry books and if you are mad enough to become a fan you will take on my journeys This collection starts where my first collection finished so from May 2017 to October 2017 I managed to write these fifty poems If you were mad enough to follow my poetic journey the first fifty took me over a year to put together whilst this second fifty took half the time The Power of Numbers Schrödinger,Stilovsky,2019-10-09 In today s world the use of numbers grows by the day and we depend on them for so much This book contains a series of lists that contain information about numbers and their use in society They will be most useful to those with a quizzical nature but should be of general interest to all Schr dinger s cat was an infamous and cruel thought experiment dreamt up in the last century to expose one of the mistaken ideas current in science at that time Since escaping from the box Felix has taken up writing and in collaboration with retired water engineer Pyotr Stilovsky he has compiled this factual compendium The Poems of Optatian Linda Jones Hall,2024-01-11 For the first time the poems and accompanying letters of Publilius Optatianus Porfyrius Optatian are published here with a translation and detailed commentary along with a full introduction to Optatian s work during this period Optatian was sent into exile by Constantine sometime after the Emperor s ascent to power in Rome in 312 AD Hoping to receive pardon Optatian sent a gift of probably twenty design poems to Constantine around the time of the ruler s twentieth anniversary 325 326 AD To enable the reader to experience the multiple messages of the poems the Latin text is presented near the English translation with any related design close by Some poems laid out on a grid of up to 35 letters across and down have an interwoven poem marking key letters in the primary poem thereby revealing a highlighted image Some designs include the Chi Rho or numerals created from V s and X s to mark imperial anniversaries Other previously unrecognised designs seem to represent senatorial imperial military or bureaucratic motifs or to derive from coin images Shape poems representing a water organ an altar and a panpipe reveal their relevance immediately The introduction and commentary elucidate literary allusions from over 100 authors lines from Vergil Ovid Lucan Silius Italicus Statius and lesser known writers abound and mythological references mostly to the Muses and Apollo Optatian s prestige as an official in both Greece and Rome is well attested these poems mark Optatian as a fascinating writer of his time holding onto the classical past while acknowledging Christian symbolism

The Shadow of Eternity Sharon C. Seelig, 2021-12-14 The poetry of Herbert Vaughan and Traherne represents an attempt to shape their lives and verse around the fact of divine presence and influence writes Sharon Seelig The relationship between belief and expression in these three metaphysical poets is the subject of this deeply perceptive study Each of these poets held to some extent the notion of dual reality of the world as indicative of a higher reality but their responses to this tradition vary greatly from the ongoing struggle between God and the poet of The Temple which finally transforms the materials of everyday life and worship to the more difficult unity of Silex Scintillans with its tension between illumination and resignation to the ecstatic proclamations of Thomas Traherne whose sense of divine reality at first seems so strong as to destroy the characteristic metaphysical tension between this world and the next Seelig s study proceeds from individual poems to the whole work exploring the relation of cosmology and religious experience to poetic form vanden Driesen Janet Wilson Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsrådet. Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect. Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history. Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods. Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible. As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions. The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection. The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature, Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden. All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language. Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic.

The Byrnes and the O'Byrnes Daniel Byrne-Rothwell, 2010 Documents of Protest and Compassion Angelika Arend, 1999-11-02 Documents of Protest and Compassion offers the first extensive critical assessment of Bauer's considerable poetic oeuvre. In this long overdue supplement to recent anthologies of Bauer's poetry and essays on his life and work Angelika Arend draws on Bauer's diaries and letters to reveal the profoundly humane intentions that guided his choice of themes and structures. She shows that social protest and brotherly compassion, shared responsibility and critical self-reflection are Bauer's main thematic fare which he presented in simple yet carefully crafted poetic structures and explains how these ideas and forms developed or remained constant in light of historical, cultural, social and personal developments. Documents of Protest and Compassion is important for those interested in Bauer's work, German poetry, German-Canadian literature and the immigrant writing experience.

First Buddhist Women Susan Murcott, 2002-02-09 First Buddhist Women is a readable contemporary translation of and commentary on the enlightenment verses of the first female disciples of the Buddha. The book explores Buddhism's relatively liberal attitude towards women since its founding nearly 2,600 years ago through the study of the Therigatham, the earliest known collection of women's religious poetry. Through commentary and storytelling, author Susan Murcott traces the journey of the wives, mothers, teachers, courtesans, prostitutes and wanderers who became leaders in the Buddhist community, roles that even today are rarely filled by women in other patriarchal religions. Their poetry beautifully expresses their search for spiritual attainment and their struggles in society.
