The Sewing Circles of Herat Christina Lamb, 2002-12-03 A gold inscribed invitation to a wedding in a foreign land led Christina Lamb at the age of twenty one to leave suburban England for Peshawar on the frontier of the Afghan war Like the Englishmen in the Great Game of the nineteenth century she was captivated by the Afghans she met For two years she tracked the final stages of the mujaheddin victory over the Soviets as Afghan friends smuggled her in and out of their country in a variety of guises from burqa clad wife to Kandahari boy travelling by foot on donkeys or hidden under the floor of an ambulance Among those friends was Abdul Haq the recently executed Kabul commander and Hamid Karzai the new president of Afghanistan who took Lamb to his hometown of Kandahar where they rode around on the backs of motorbikes belonging to a group of fighters known as the Mullahs Front It was these figures who went on to become founding members of the Taliban Long haunted by her experiences in Afghanistan Lamb returned there after the attacks on the World Trade Center to find out what had become of the people and places that had marked her life as a young graduate and to report for Britain's Sunday Telegraph newspaper She was now seeing the land anew through the eyes of a mother and an experienced foreign correspondent who has lived in Africa South America Portugal and the United States Lamb's journey brought her in touch with the people no one else has written about the abandoned victims of almost a quarter century of war Among them are the brave women writers of Herat who risked their lives to carry on the literary tradition of this ancient Persian city under the guise of sewing circles the princess whose palace was surrounded by tanks on the eve of her wedding the artist who painted out all the people in his works to prevent their being destroyed by the Taliban and Khalil Ahmed Hassani a former Taliban torturer who admits to breaking the spines of men then making them stand on their heads Christina Lamb's evocative reporting brings to life these stories Her unique perspective on Afghanistan and deep passion for the people she writes about makes this the definitive account of the tragic plight of a proud nation

Sewing Circles of Herat: A Personal Voyage Through Afghanistan Christina Lamb, 2004-02-01 Twenty one year old Christina Lamb left suburban England for Peshawar on the frontier of the Afghan war Captivated she spent two years tracking the final stages of the mujaheddin victory over the Soviets as Afghan friends smuggled her in and out of their country in a variety of guises Returning to Afghanistan after the attacks on the World Trade Center to report for Britain's Sunday Telegraph Lamb discovered the people no one else had written about the abandoned victims of almost a quarter century of war Among them the brave women writers of Herat who risked their lives to carry on a literary tradition under the guise of sewing circles the princess whose palace was surrounded by tanks on the eve of her wedding the artist who painted out all the people in his works to prevent them from being destroyed by the Taliban and Khalil Ahmed Hassani a former Taliban torturer who admitted to breaking the spines of men and then making them stand on their heads Christina Lamb's evocative reporting brings to life these stories Her unique perspective on Afghanistan and deep passion for the people she writes about make this the definitive account of the tragic plight of a proud nation      The Woman Reader Belinda Jack,2012-07-17 Explores what and how women of widely differing cultures have read through the ages from Cro Magnon caves to the digital readers of today drawing distinctions between male and female readers and detailing how female literacy has been suppressed in some parts of the world      Afghanistan Under Siege Bojan Savic,2020-05-28 In this book based on field work undertaken in Afghanistan itself and through engagement with postcolonial theory Bojan Savic critiques western intervention in Afghanistan by showing how its casting of Afghan natives as dangerous has created a power network which fractures the country in echoes of 19th and 20th century colonial powers in the region Savic also offers an analysis of how and by what means global security priorities have affected Afghan lives      The Pakistan Cauldron James P. Farwell,2011 Understanding the treacherous currents of Pakistani politics      Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing      Afghanistan Dispossessed Razia Sultanova,2023-01-24 A focused history of women and popular culture in Afghanistan from the Soviet invasion to 9 11 to the Taliban's takeover How does normal social cultural religious life survive in constant turmoil How can the people flourish These basic questions are examined and answered by Razia Sultanova's academic analysis and deep fieldwork with extensive eyewitness and personal contacts and conversations with a wide variety of Afghan men and women She looks at basic questions of gender identity nation tradition history popular culture and especially the role of music classical popular modern and contemporary as a vital element for survival And all is over shadowed by the Taliban with on going threat of terror and repression especially for women and girls Here is a classical story of a people's struggle for everyday normality and preservation of cherished traditions in a war torn society      When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again Gregory Sarno,2005 Screenplays about soldiers in three wars the Civil War the Vietnam War and the War in Afghanistan      The Sewing Circles of Herat Christina Lamb,2002-01-01 Chronicles the human cost of decades of war in Afghanistan      Kabul Carnival Julie Billaud,2015-03-09 After the attacks of September 11 2001 the plight of Afghan women under Taliban rule was widely publicized in the United States as one of the humanitarian issues justifying intervention Kabul Carnival explores the contradictions ambiguities and unintended effects of the emancipatory projects for Afghan women designed and imposed by external organizations Building on embodiment and performance theory this evocative ethnography describes Afghan women s responses to social anxieties about identity that have emerged as a result of the military occupation Offering one of the first long term on the ground studies since the arrival of allied forces in 2001 Julie Billaud introduces readers to daily life in Afghanistan through portraits of women targeted by international aid policies Examining encounters between international experts in gender and transitional justice Afghan civil servants and NGO staff and women unaffiliated with these organizations Billaud unpacks some of the paradoxes that arise from competing understandings of democracy and rights practices Kabul Carnival reveals the ways in which the international community s concern with the visibility of women in public has ultimately created tensions and constrained women s capacity to find a culturally legitimate voice

Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker,2015 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism New and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create Rebuilding Afghanistan in Times of Crisis Adenrele Awotona,2019-06-11 Rebuilding Afghanistan in Times of Crisis provides academics and researchers interested in planning urbanism and conflict studies with a multidisciplinary international assessment of the reconstruction and foreign aid efforts in Afghanistan The book draws together expert contributions from countries across three continents Asia Europe and North America which have provided external aid to Afghanistan Using international regional and local approaches it highlights the importance of rebuilding sustainable communities in the midst of ongoing uncertainties It explores the efficacy of external aid challenges faced the response of multilateral international agencies the role of women in the reconstruction process and community based natural disaster risk management strategies Finally it looks at the lessons learned in the conflict reconstruction process to better prepare the country for future potential human economic infrastructural and institutional vulnerabilities Afghanistan Kim Whitehead,2014-10-21 Over the past four decades Afghanistan has been torn apart by social unrest and civil war Most recently the harsh government of the Taliban which ruled according to a strict interpretation of Islamic law was overthrown by a U S led invasion of the country in 2001 Since then foreign assistance has helped Afghanistan begin rebuilding and the country has taken important steps toward democracy Yet difficult problems remain In parts of the country for example the elected government must still contend with various factions for actual control and poverty and disease are widespread This book examines the economic and political issues facing Afghanistan today It provides up to date information about the country s geography and climate history society important cities and communities and relations with other countries Founded in 1955 the Foreign Policy Research Institute FPRI is one of the nation s oldest think tanks It brings the insights of scholarship to bear on issues in American foreign policy

Through its Wachman Center it promotes international and civic literacy in the classroom FPRI s Wachman Center produces webcasts for students and conferences and lesson plans for teachers Land of the Unconquerable Jennifer Heath,Ashraf Zahedi,2011-03-23 Reaching beyond sensational headlines Land of the Unconquerable at last offers a three dimensional portrait of Afghan women In a series of wide ranging deeply reflective essays accomplished scholars humanitarian workers politicians and journalists most with extended experience inside Afghanistan examine the realities of life for women in both urban and rural settings They address topics including food security sex work health marriage education poetry politics prisoners and community development Eschewing stereotypes about the burqa the contributors focus instead on women s empowerment and agency and their struggles for peace and justice in the face of a brutal ongoing war A fuller picture of Afghanistan s women past and present emerges leading to social policy suggestions and pragmatic solutions for a peaceful future Babur and Humayun: Modern Learning Organisation Aditya Gupta,2008-09-15 A must have book for Managers and those who want to enhance their skill for Learning Organisation as it covers an in depth for Learning Organisation Book for Modern Learning Organisation This book features the Use of Learning Organisation and its success and failure with refrence to Babur and Humayun A Kingdom of Their Own Joshua Partlow,2017-08-08 The key to understanding the calamitous Afghan war is the complex ultimately failed relationship between the powerful duplicitous Karzai family and the United States brilliantly portrayed here by the former Kabul bureau chief for The Washington Post The United States went to Afghanistan on a simple mission avenge the September 11 attacks and drive the Taliban from power This took less than two months Over the course of the next decade the ensuing fight for power and money supplied to one of the poorest nations on earth in ever greater amounts left the region even more dangerous than before the first troops arrived At the center of this story is the Karzai family President Hamid Karzai and his brothers began the war as symbols of a new Afghanistan moderate educated fluent in the cultures of East and West and the antithesis of the brutish and backward Taliban regime The siblings from a prominent political family close to Afghanistan s former king had been thrust into exile by the Soviet war While Hamid Karzai lived in Pakistan and worked with the resistance others moved to the United States finding work as waiters and managers before opening their own restaurants After September 11 the brothers returned home to help rebuild Afghanistan and reshape their homeland with ambitious plans Today with the country in shambles they are in open conflict with one another and their Western allies Joshua Partlow s clear eyed analysis reveals the mistakes squandered hopes and wasted chances behind the scenes of a would be political dynasty Nothing illustrates the arc of the war and America s relationship with Afghanistan from optimism to despair friendship to enmity as neatly as the story of the Karzai family itself told here in its entirety for the first time Journey into Islam Akbar Ahmed,2007-08-30 Globalization the war on terror and Islamic fundamentalism followed closely by a rise in Islamophobia have escalated tensions between Western nations and the Muslim world Yet internationally renowned Islamic scholar Akbar Ahmed believes that through dialogue and understanding these cultures can coexist peacefully and respectfully That hope and belief result in an extraordinary journey To learn what Muslims think and how they really view America Ahmed traveled to the three major regions of the Muslim world the Middle East South Asia and East Asia Journey into Islam The Crisis of Globalization is the riveting story of his search for common ground His absorbing narrative and personal photos bring the reader on a tour of Islam and its peoples Ahmed sought to understand the experiences and perceptions of ordinary Muslims Visiting mosques madrassahs and universities he met with people ranging from Pakistan President Pervez Musharraf to prime ministers princes sheikhs professors and students He observed listened and asked them questions For example who inspires them What are they reading How do the Internet and international media impact their lives How do they view America the West and changes in society Ahmed's anthropological expedition enjoyed extensive access to women and youths revealing unique information on large yet often misunderstood populations Lamentably he found high levels of anti Americanism and anti Semitism and a widespread perception that Islam is under attack from the West But he also brought back reason for hope He returned from his groundbreaking travels both impressed with the concerned kind nature of the individuals he encountered and invigorated with the vitality and passion they displayed Journey into Islam makes a powerful plea for forming friendships across religion race and tradition to create lasting peace between Islam and the West      Fearless Eric Blehm,2012 Chronicles the life of Navy SEAL Team Six operator Adam Brown a man whose heroism and devotion still stand as a beacon to his friends and family even after his death in the Afghan Hindu Kush mountains in 2010      You Can't Read This Val Ross,2009-07-10 Wherever people can read there are stories about the magic mystery and power of what they read Val Ross presents a history of reading that is in fact the story of the monumental on going struggle to read From Enheduanna daughter of Sargon the Great the world's oldest signed author to Empress Shotoku of Japan who in 764 ordered the printing of one million Buddhist prayers from the story of Hulagu Ghengis Khan's nasty brother who destroyed the library of Baghdad to Bowdler and the censorship of Shakespeare there have been barriers to reading ranging from the physical to the economical social and political Written for children ages ten and up You Can't Read This explores the development of alphabets the decoding of ancient languages and censorship in Ancient Rome and modern America It's about secret writing trashed libraries writers on the run writers in hiding books that are thought to have magical powers and mistranslations that started wars It's about people from the American slave Frederick Douglass to girls in Afghanistan in the year 2001 who defied laws that prevented them from learning to read What do all these stories have in common They're all about how texts contain power and how people everywhere throughout history have devoted their wills and their brains to reading and unleashing the power of the word With lavish illustrations and an index this is history at its finest      Kabul in Winter Ann Jones,2025-06-25 A sharp and arresting people's eye view of real life in Afghanistan after the Taliban Soon after the bombing of Kabul ceased award winning journalist and women's rights activist Ann Jones set out for the shattered city determined to bring help where her country had brought destruction Here is her trenchant report from inside a city struggling to rise from the ruins Working among the multitude of impoverished war widows retraining Kabul s long silenced English teachers and investigating the city s prison for women Jones enters a large community of female outcasts runaway child brides pariah prostitutes cast off wives victims of rape In the streets and markets she hears the Afghan view of the supposed benefits brought by the fall of the Taliban and learns that regarding women as less than human is the norm not the aberration of one conspicuously repressive regime Jones confronts the ways in which Afghan education culture and politics have repeatedly been hijacked by Communists Islamic fundamentalists and the Western free marketeers always with disastrous results And she reveals through small events the big disjunctions between U S promises and performance between the new democracy and the still entrenched warlords between what s boasted of and what is At once angry profound and starkly beautiful Kabul in Winter brings alive the people and day to day life of a place whose future depends so much upon our own
