Sex After Sixty A Guide For Men And Women For Their Later Years:

Sex After Sixty Robert N. Butler, Myrna I. Lewis, 1976-01-01 Reviews normal physical changes and common medical and emotional problems associated with aging and offers advice and information on the possibilities and pleasures of sexual activity after sixty Sexuality in the Later Years Ruth B. Weg, 2013-09-24 Sexuality in the Later Years Roles and Behavior pulls together evidence from the anthropological psychological social and physiological disciplines and represents an effort to present a coherent picture of sexual roles and behavior in the later years This work does not pretend to answer all questions that could be raised concerning sexuality and aging but attempts rather to concentrate on issues that have been relatively neglected primarily options potentials and possibilities for the individualization and humanization of sex roles and sexual behavior of older persons The book is organized into five parts Part I examines concepts of sexuality in the later years including cultural attitudes and behaviors towards sexuality psychological and sociological perspectives and a life span model of sex role development Part II on life styles deals with the impact of aging on the sexuality of those who are unmarried in later life the relationship between interpersonal intimacy and adaptation to stress throughout adult life and the range of sexual orientations in the later years along with their incidence their contributions to social adaptation and the particular constraints surrounding them Part III discusses issues in research and therapy while Part IV considers views of sexuality and aging in other countries namely Canada and Sweden Part V inquires into the problems associated with transitions in the later part of the life cycle of love

Sexuality and the Elderly Bonnie L. Walker, 1997-05-12 This literature review was undertaken in order to determine what caregivers needed to know about elderly sexuality to determine the needs of elderly people related to their sexuality and to determine how caregivers could best assist them in meeting those needs In selecting materials to be annotated for this book the first priority was given to empirical studies Also included were articles by prominent practitioners and researchers interested in elderly sexuality literature reviews and books written for the lay population which are often cited in the professional literature In addition to seeking knowledge about elderly sexuality and understanding attitudes about sexuality this literature review sought information about measurement issues and measurement instruments frequently used in research within elderly populations Also of interest were investigations of educational and training programs involving caregivers

Men and Aging Edward H. Thompson, 1996-01-30 Until recently older men were not a social phenomenon commanding great attention Older men are a distinct minority among men accounting for 15 percent of the adult male population Among elders older men are still outnumbered by older women three to two and there are only two men for every five women over age 85 However the importance of gender to age and age to gender is being acknowledged by gerontologists as well as gender scholars This work is the first thorough study of the research examining older men as men Thompson was able to locate more than 750 articles which are organized by subject Gendered Aging Health and Well Being Sexuality Suicide and Alcohol Religiosity and Spirituality Stereotypes and Social Constructions Relationships and Social Life Family Relations Caregiving Economics and Retirement Living Arrangements and Resources and Needs and selectively annotated Access is also aided by extensive subject and author indexes This groundbreaking volume will be of great interest to gerontologists sociologists and all researchers concerned with gender issues Aging and Technological Advances Pauline K. Robinson, Judy Livingston, James E. Birren, 2012-12-06 The chapters and reports in this publication have been selected from presentations at a Symposium on Aging and Technological Advances held in August 1983 at the Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center of the University of Southern California The Symposium was made possible by a grant from the NATO Special Programme Panel on Human Factors and the support of this program is gratefully acknowledged Members of the Symposium Advisory Board were James E. Birren, Judy Livingston, Erhard Olbrich, Victor Regnier, Pauline Robinson, Thomas Singleton, Arnold Small, Harvey Sterns and Alvar Svanborg Professor Lambros Houssiadis also provided invaluable encouragement Appreciation is also extended to the Andrew Norman Institute for Advanced Study in Gerontology and Geriatrics for support of planning activities leading up to the Symposium and for support of events surrounding the Symposium itself A generous gift from The UPS Foundation to the Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center made possible the compilation, editing and preparation of this manuscript and helped to support Symposium activities We thank David Bergstone and Mary Margaret Ragan who together carefully and skillfully organized and carried out the typing of the manuscript Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Broken Connections: Alzheimer's Disease: Emile Franssen, Liduin Souren, 1994-01-01 A manual to providing nursing care during the functional decline of Alzheimer's patients emphasizing how to evaluate the patient's competence at each stage and allow them to take as much care of themselves as possible Part I describes the now predictable course of the decline The Feeling Great!  Funk Place, 2019-03-13 This book introduces undergraduates to library research in the field of gerontology and focuses on the wide variety of sources available for research It covers physiological and psychological aspects of aging social aspects of aging and environmental aspects of aging Aging Moderns Scott Herring, 2022-12-13 What happens when the avant garde grows old Examining a group of writers and artists who continued the modernist experiment into later life Scott Herring reveals how their radical artistic principles set out a new path for creative aging Aging Moderns provides portraits of writers and artists who sought out or employed unconventional methods and collaborations up until the early twenty first century Herring finds Djuna Barnes performing the principles of high modernism not only in poetry but also in pharmacy orders and grocery lists In mystery novels featuring Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas along with modernist souvenir collections the gay writer Samuel Steward elaborated a queer theory of aging and challenged gay male ageism The Harlem Renaissance dancer Mabel Hampton dispelled stereotypes about aging through her queer of color performances at the Lesbian Herstory Archives Herring explores Ivan Albright s magic realist portraits of elders Tillie Olsen s writings on the aging female worker and the surrealistic works made by Charles Henri Ford and his caregiver Indra Bahadur Tamang at the Dakota apartment building in New York City Showcasing previously unpublished experimental art and writing this deeply interdisciplinary book unites new modernist studies American studies disability studies and critical age studies Aging Moderns rethinks assumptions about literary creativity the depiction of old age and the boundaries of modernism Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 6, 1986 ,1987-03-15 Self Hypnosis (Volume 2 Of 2) (Easyread Super Large 24Pt Edition) , We are Not Alone Sefra Pitzele, 1986-01-01 Explains the problems faced by victims of chronic illnesses gives practical advice on coping and discusses sexuality diet exercise and adaptive living devices Human Development in Adulthood Lewis R.

 Aiken, 2005-12-21 Human Development in Adulthood is a comprehensive multidisciplinary overview of adult development in a number of areas both personal and societal from mental and physical health to economic and social conditions Variables including race gender economic status and political and religious affiliation are considered in the discussion of such human issues as love and marital relations economic concerns including employment and living conditions violence in its various forms including crime and war aging and death The numerous illustrations chapter summaries and glossary will prove especially useful to students Women's Sexual Development Martha Kirkpatrick, 2012-12-06 This is not a textbook nor an encyclopedia rather it is a collection of papers representing a variety of points of view on contemporary issues controversies and questions about female sexual development The editor has a point of view not a point of view as to which of the various authors positions presented in this book is correct or even the most useful but a point of view about the format of such a book namely that the definitive answers and the experts who will provide them are not yet identified Therefore many voices should be heard from different areas of expertise training experience and back ground Inevitably there are contradictions and disagreements There should be Several authors who were asked to provide short discus sions for papers found themselves unable to answer in less than an ad ditional paper The editor welcomed this response This is an area full of ancient myths new discoveries and alternate perspectives It is hoped that the book reflects these ambiguities and controversies and that it will stimulate as many questions as it provides answers You will find represented in this volume and its forthcoming companion volume on women s sexual experience authors not gener ally found together between the covers When useful and where pos sible a discussion or an addendum to a paper has been included by an author who approaches the subject from a different base of infor mation or experience

Women in Late Life Martha Holstein, 2015-03-19 Contemporary old age is fraught with contradiction and complexity women portrayed either as incompetent and cuddly grandmothers or as young women trapped in old bodies images that rarely reflect how women actually see themselves Women in Late Life explores the thorny issues related to gender and aging including prevailing but problematic cultural expectations body image ageism the experience of chronic illness threats to Social Security and the very possibility of a secure retirement while challenging a long term care system that disadvantages women Author Martha Holstein writes from a critical feminist perspective drawing on her many years of experience in gerontology as well as interviews and personal experience as a woman now in her seventies The book highlights how women s experience of late life is shaped by the effects of lifelong gender norms by contemporary culture from gender stereotypes to ageism and by the political context The book blends critique with proposals aimed at resisting damaging inequities resulting from being simultaneously old and a woman She focuses on changes needed on multiple levels societal cultural political and individual This interdisciplinary look at key questions around gender and aging is nuanced and beautifully written
