Encyclopedia of Educational Psychology Neil J. Salkind, Kristin Rasmussen, 2008-01-17 The field of educational psychology draws from a variety of diverse disciplines including human development across the life span measurement and statistics learning and motivation and teaching And within these different disciplines many other fields are featured including psychology anthropology education sociology public health school psychology counseling history and philosophy In fact when taught at the college or university level educational psychology is an ambitious course that undertakes the presentation of many different topics all tied together by the theme of how the individual can best function in an educational setting loosely defined as anything from pre school through adult education Educational psychology can be defined as the application of what we know about learning and motivation development and measurement and statistics to educational settings both school and community based

Gender Bias in School Text Books Bronwyn Davies, 1995 Gender bias in school textbooks takes many forms and is often subtle and difficult to detect It creates and sustains a view of the world in which male activity and male persons are of primary importance and of greatest value while female activity and female persons are marginalised made invisible or downgraded This book has been produced in response to the lack of information on gender bias in existing textbooks in the countries of the Commonwealth Section I presents three major studies of primary school textbooks one in the Caribbean one in Asia and one in Africa Section II describes inclusive language and provides guidelines for textbook writers and producers Section III assists teachers and teacher educators to develop strategies Section IV provides a guide to evaluating gender bias in specific textbooks and other materials used in primary school classrooms An Educator's Guide to the Correction of Sex Bias in Education Linda MacDonald,1974 Issues of Sex Bias and Sex Fairness in Career Interest Measurement National Institute of Education (U.S.). Career Education Program,1975 Sex Bias in Education Margaret B. Sutherland,1981 Sex Bias in School Leadership Jacqueline Parker Clement,1975 Gender Balance and Gender Bias in Education Deirdre Raftery,Maryann Valiulis,2013-09-13 This book presents a compelling range of international research on the issues of gender balance and gender bias in education The chapters draw on cutting edge work from the US Latin America the UK Ireland and Africa presenting readers with new insights into how educators and students often negotiate deeply ingrained prejudices that are expressed in gendered terms The book reflects research that draws on a range of methodologies and both historical and contemporary education contexts are examined Drawing on historical research the book widens our understanding of gender issues in education and provides chapters on physical activity for girls in nineteenth century America and on the patriarchal imperative in mission education in Africa in the nineteenth century Turning to research on contemporary education settings the book explores the global phenomenon of the feminisation of teaching It also illustrates how teachers work in classrooms in which boys expressions of masculinities explicitly challenge school order and looks at the performance of both masculinities and femininities in several education contexts The book also includes absorbing work on the practices and processes that contribute to the gendering of digital technologies and it demonstrates ways in which parents unwittingly accept the gendered management of internet risk for their daughters This book was published as a special issue of Gender and Education Resources in Women's Educational Equity ,1979 Support to Eliminate Sex Bias in Education Kathryn G. Heath,National University Extension Association,United States.
