

Honeymoon Prep Guide

Marriage is more than the honeymoon and the honeymoon is more than sex...but all the talk and anticipation surrounding it tend to make that the focus. It can definitely feel overwhelming. Rest assured that it's perfectly normal to be nervous about it. There's a lot of new things happening all of a sudden! And there's a lot of pressure to know everything and to "do it right."

But do you really have to know it all? No! Your honeymoon is just the beginning of your marriage. It's just the start of the most sacred and precious experiences of your life. Remember that intimacy isn't just sex. It's so much more than a bodily exchange. It is spiritual, emotional, and physical. It's a unique oneness that only marriage can bring. And it's beautiful.

Also know that this is entirely between you and your husband. Don't compare yourself to other couples, or to what you've heard or seen in movies. Every couple is different, so every honeymoon will look different. And that's ok. You're supposed to make it yours and enjoy all the new things together!

All that being said, there are plenty of things you can do to prepare for your honeymoon to help make it go smoothly and fun! And it's definitely ok to prepare! You can read through this guide as soon as you get engaged, but most of the preparations would be best done about 1-2 months before your wedding. This gives you ample time to complete it, but also helps you be careful to not go too deeply too soon.

So, without further ado, here is how to best prepare for your honeymoon!
