Sex Equality Catharine A. MacKinnon, 2001 Penetratingly re thinks gender relations as it maps legal doctrine with cutting edge theoretical tools Equips the litigator with basic technical skills while examining the political and theoretical issues on procedural terrain Sex Equality Catharine A. MacKinnon, 2016 Equality Race and racism Sex and sexism Sex race and nation Burdens of proof Family Sexual subordination Lesbian and gay rights Reproductive control Sex trafficking Essays on Sex Equality John Stuart Mill, Harriet Taylor Mill, 2015-08-03 This volume brings together for the first time all the writings of John Stuart Mill and Harriet Taylor Mill on equality between the sexes including John Stuart Mill's The Subjection of Women a classic in the history of the women's rights movement since its publication one hundred years ago Also contained in this volume is a major interpretative essay by Alice S Rossi on Mill and Harriet Taylor which describes and analyzes their long personal and intellectual relationship Sex Equality A Solution Of The Women Problem EMMET. DENSMORE, 2025-05-22 In Sex Equality A Solution of the Women Problem Emmet Densmore presents a compelling argument for gender equality in the early 20th century Densmore tackles the complex societal issues surrounding women's roles advocating for their equal participation in all aspects of life This work provides historical context to the ongoing discussions about women's rights and serves as a valuable resource for those interested in the history of feminist thought and social reform movements Densmore's book remains relevant for its insights into the challenges and opportunities for achieving true equality between the sexes It is a significant contribution to the literature on gender studies and civil rights This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Sex Equality Policy in Western Europe Frances Gardiner, 2005-07-25 This book presents a wide ranging comparative analysis of the development of sex equality policies within Europe The contributors comprising both European and US based scholars address a very current political issue This is an area of policy that has reached the decision making stage in much of Europe and it is thus possible to assess the outcome of policy making and to account for cross national variations of sex equality policy measures The contributors discuss the similarities and differences in levels of awareness commitment to equality of opportunity and readiness to turn rhetoric into reality in a number of west European countries including Spain the Netherlands Britain Norway and Ireland      Sexuality and Identity Leslie J. Moran,2017-11-30 Born in the late nineteenth century sexuality is a relatively new category within the human sciences in general and law and society scholarship in particular Despite its novelty it is now a central category through which we understand ourselves both as individuals and as members of communities This volume offers a collection of essays selected to reflect the ever widening horizons and diverse methodologies of law and society scholarship on sexual and identity in law The essays offer an insight into some of the key themes and recent developments in this body of work Each in different ways offers an evaluation of the nature meaning and effects of sexuality thereby providing a critical evaluation of the politics of sexual identity as it appears in and through the law      Sex Equality Catharine A. MacKinnon,2003 This law school casebook explores the major developments in the field Social and legal materials on sexual harassment in employment and education are presented The first half of the book examines conventional sex equality law and theory The second half extends the analysis onto social terrain not generally recognized by law as posing sex discrimination questions      Essays on Sex Equality Alice S. Rossi,1970      Sex Equality Emmet Densmore,1907

Sex Equality Catharine A. MacKinnon,2001 Law school casebook for the study of family law Penetratingly re thinks gender relations as it maps legal doctrine with cutting edge theoretical tools      Playing the State Sophie Watson,1990 Essays focused on the implications of feminist intervention in systems of power Chapter 4 entitled Colonization and Decolonization An Aboriginal Experience by Barbara Flick pp 61 66 Chapter 5 entitled The Aboriginal Struggle in the Face of Terrorism by Rose Wanganeen pp 67 70      Are Women Human? Catharine A. MacKinnon,2007-11-30 More than half a century after the Universal Declaration of Human Rights defined what a human being is and is entitled to MacKinnon asks Are women human yet She exposes the consequences and significance of the systematic maltreatment of women and its systemic condonation as she points toward fresh ways of targeting its toxic orthodoxies      In the Way of Women Cynthia Cockburn,1991 Based on interviews and observations explores the reasons and methods of men s resistance to sex equality in a retail chain a government department a local elected body and a national trade union Paper edition unseen 16 95 Acidic paper Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The Project on Sex Equality in Guidance Opportunities American Personnel and Guidance Association. Calling for Change Sheila McIntyre,Elizabeth Sheehy,2006-06-28 Unique in both scope and perspective Calling for Change investigates the status of women within the Canadian legal profession ten years after the first national report on the subject was published by the Canadian Bar Association Elizabeth Sheehy and Sheila McIntyre bring together essays that investigate a wide range of topics from the status of women in law schools the practicing bar and on the bench to women s grassroots engagement with law and with female lawyers from the frontlines Contributors not only reflect critically on the gains losses and barriers to change of the past decade but also provide blueprints for political action Academics community activists practitioners law students women litigants and law society benchers and staff explore how egalitarian change is occurring and or being impeded in their particular contexts Each of these unique voices offers lessons from their individual collective and institutional efforts to confront and counter the interrelated forms of systemic inequality that compromise women s access to education and employment equity within legal institutions and ultimately to equal justice in Canada

Published in English      Responsible Selves Kevat Nousiainen,Asa Gunnarsson,Johanna Niemi-Kiesilinen,Karin Lundstrom,2018-12-20 This title was first published in 2001 In the Nordic countries women are considered equal to men Advanced social and economic rights are often given as the explanation for the equality In this volume Nordic feminist legal scholars give a more contradictory image of gender equality The gendered construction of the legal subject and the legal understanding of gender have a two pronged potential both to change and to reproduce gender relations Nordic women have been considered responsible for upholding the gendered social system as responsible selves rather than as individuals engaged in rights discourse The authors claim with examples that the belief in equality has made certain discriminative practices difficult to recognize and conceptualize Also a transformation of the social welfare system puts the collective equality policies to the test      The Female Body and the Law Zillah R. Eisenstein,2024-07-26 The Female Body and the Law provides an original and incisive reexamination of the dynamics of sexual equality Eisenstein contends that sexual inequality is fostered both by the law and by the insistence that men and women are biologically different Through a fascinating discussion of a series of issues including affirmative action AIDS Baby M pornography and abortion Eisenstein shows how the law operates as a political language that establishes and curtails choices and actions This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990      Femmes Et L'état Canadien Caroline Andrew,Sanda Rodgers,1997 A collection of essays presented at a conference to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the release of the Report of the Royal Commission on the Status of Women Women and the Canadian State both celebrates and critically assesses the Report Women bureaucrats activists and academics consider the impact successes and failures of the Report from a variety of viewpoints and reflect on the experience of Canadian women since its publication in 1970      The Impact of the Equal Rights Amendment United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution,1985
