Northeast India Samrat,Samrat Choudhury,2023 A journalist s history of the short yet troubled life of this new region bordering China and Southeast Asia exploring its significance for the idea of India Gorkhaland Movement Amiya K. Samanta,2000 Ranis And The Raj Queeny Pradhan,2022-10-28 Traditionally history has been telling us the stories of kings In the long tradition of history writing his story has always dominated over her story Though queens evoke a sense of romance and their stories are told like fairy tales it is common enough to find that these stories end in tragedy In India s history not all queens are remembered today Some are celebrated while others have been almost ignored by historians In Ranis and the Raj Queeny Pradhan has selected six queens All the six queens are from the nineteenth century and have faced the British Raj the East India Company and the Crown From the Rani of Sirmur who was the earliest to deal with the British authorities to Rani Chennamma Rani Jindan Begum Zeenat Mahal Rani Lakshmi Bai to the Sikkim Queen from the 1860s to 1890s Pradhan has attempted to carve an engrossing historical narrative for each of these important figures in Indian history Unlike the biographical convention in traditional history writing the research in this book can be placed in the realm of microhistory The life stories of these queens are fragmented due to the silences and invisibilization in political history of the time and this book aims to fill these gaps Knowing How to Know Narmala Halstead,Eric Hirsch,Judith Okely,2008-04-01 This volume examines some crucial issues in the conduct of fieldwork and ethnography and provides new insights into the problems of constructing anthropological knowledge How is anthropological knowledge created from fieldwork whose knowledge is this who determines what is of significance in any ethnographic context and how is the fieldsite extended in both time and place Nine anthropologists examine these problems drawing on diverse case studies These range from the dilemmas of the religious refashioning of the ethnographer in contemporary Indonesia to the embodied knowledge of ballet performers and from ignorance about post colonial ritual innovations by the anthropologist in highland Papua to the skilled visions of slow food producers in Italy It is a key text for new fieldworkers as much as for established researchers The anthropological insights developed here are of interdisciplinary relevance cultural studies scholars sociologists and historians will be as interested as anthropologists in this re evaluation of fieldwork and the project of ethnography
