Sabol, 1973

The Principles of the Most Ancient and Modern Philosophy Anne Conway, 1996 Translated for the first time into modern English Anne Conway's book is the most interesting and original philosophical work written by a woman in the 17th century This fully annotated edition includes a chronology of her life Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 6 John Donne, 1995 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscript and print history of Donne's poetry this edition presents newly edited critical texts of the poems and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time forward Textual introductions briefly locate the poems in the context of Donne's life or poetic development outline the 17th century textual history of the poems and sketch the treatment of the text by modern editors A detailed textual apparatus presents variants collated from many sources and traces the lines of textual transmission Provided by publisher Collected Vocal Music, Part 1 William Lawes, 2002-01-01 xxxvi 91 pp The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne John Donne, 2021-01-05 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared the eighth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of thirteen Divine Poems and details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion Arranged chronologically within sections the material is organized under the following headings Dates and Circumstances General Commentary Genre Language Versification and Style the Poet Persona and Themes The volume also offers a comprehensive digest of general and topical commentary on the Divine Poems from Donne's time through 2012 Religion and Culture in Renaissance England Claire McEachern, Debora Shuger, 1997-06-28 These essays by leading historians and literary scholars investigate the role of religion in shaping political social and literary forms and their reciprocal role in shaping early modern religion from the Reformation to the Civil Wars Reflecting and rethinking the insights of new historicism and cultural studies individual essays take up various aspects of the productive if tense relation between Tudor Stuart Christianity and culture and explore how religion informs some of the central texts of English Renaissance literature the vernacular Bible Foxe's Acts and Monuments Hooker's Laws Shakespeare's plays and sonnets the poems of John Donne Amelia Lanyer and John Milton The collection demonstrates the centrality of religion to sixteenth and seventeenth century

England and its influence on early modern constructions of gender subjectivity and nationhood Major Writers of Early American Literature Everett H. Emerson, 1972 An outstanding collection of original critical essays by distinguished specialists this book is both a chronological survey of nearly 200 years of American literature and an exciting reappraisal of the major figures of that period Includes works from Benjamin Franklin Jonathan Edwards William Bryd Anne Bradstreet William Bradford and others The Renaissance Bible Debora K. Shuger, 1998 The book explores among other topics the links between late medieval Christology and early modern subjectivity religious eroticism and the origins of the sexualized body the interweavings of jurisprudence colonial discourse and the theology of the Atonement the transformation of humanist philology into comparative religion and the representation of daughter sacrifice and female erotic desire The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 7, Part 1 John Donne, Gary A. Stringer, Paul A. Parrish, 2005-12-01 Praise for previous volumes This variorum edition will be the basis of all future Donne scholarship Chronicle This is the 4th volume of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne to appear This volume presents a newly edited critical text of the Holy Sonnets and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time through 1995 The editors identify and print both an earlier and a revised authorial sequence of sonnets as well as presenting the scribal collection which contains unique authorial versions of several of the sonnets inscribed by Donne's friend Rowland Woodward in the Westmoreland manuscript Co-Creative Communication in George Herbert and John Donne Sara Rogalski, 2025-03-17 This study examines the co creative relationship between speakers hearers and God in poetry and prose by George Herbert and John Donne Through analyses of communicative situations communicative interactions and reflections on communication models of communication are established that underlie the texts selected In particular the activity of hearing is shown to be considered essential to the constitution of a meaningful utterance In this way a key function of communication becomes apparent it can yield a range of creative products from the conversation itself to a literary artefact and its extratextual effects This study thus offers a new reading of the texts of George Herbert and John Donne and provides a clear perspective on how early modern religious texts regarded communication and co creativity as connected concepts Form and Reform in Renaissance England Barbara Kiefer Lewalski, 2000 Written by scholars on both sides of the Atlantic they reexamine the categories which have shaped recent studies of early modern culture and literature such as what constitutes the category of author or reader what demarcates a particular literary form and how its discursive shape might influence and in turn be influenced by contemporary political practices BOOK JACKET An Introduction to the French Poets Geoffrey Brereton, 2022-07-10 The French poetry of some five centuries is here surveyed in a series of studies of the work and personality of individual poets from Villon to the present day Each chapter is primarily concerned with establishing the literary identity of the poet or poets with whom it deals the work of each is outlined and related to the historical and biographical circumstances in which it was written and its characteristics are then examined critically in terms relevant to the modern reader Comparisons are made between different poets and more general topics such as the concepts of classic and baroque are discussed This book first published in 1956 had become a standard introductory work for students of French poetry and general readers alike For this revised edition originally published in 1973 new chapters have been added on irregular seventeenth century poets and on various modern poets whose work now enables the Surrealist movement to be seen in clearer perspective The bibliography has been revised extensively

The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 2 John Donne, Gary A. Stringer, 2000 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscript and print history of Donne's poetry this edition presents newly edited critical texts of the poems and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time forward Textual introductions briefly locate the poems in the context of Donne's life or poetic development outline the 17th century textual history of the poems and sketch the treatment of the text by modern editors A detailed textual apparatus presents variants collated from many sources and traces the lines of textual transmission Provided by publisher
