Lashback Frank Maguire, 2014-05-07 Devils Chair Island is a fictional island off the Kerry Coast of Ireland and it is reached by the equally fictional Gorney Peninsula Apparently the huge head of the devil can be seen reclining on his throne from halfway along the Gorney Blades called because it is an extremely narrow sandstone spit 2500 feet high The local police represented by Andy Buggy have for various reasons incurred the wrath of the villagers of Oughtnamadra Every Tuesday morning Andy Buggy the local guard must drive across Knuckle Strand to collect the social security papers known as dole chits from the villagers of Oughtnamadra Sayville Crummy who lives there and is almost an idiot savant discovers that he has the power to move things with the power of his mind and that he can make use of the idle power that exists in his neighbours Now because of a stupid and unfeeling remark made by a Dole cop he has decided to send any cop who comes to the village for any reason to the moon This is called lashing the cop up to the moon and after a year of trying it works The cop goes there but comes back almost instantly this is called Lashback The villagers are using a power of which they have no understanding For instance the length of time that the person stays on the moon and the time of the month when he goes all have an effect on when and where he will return to on earth There is another strange effect in that due his being under the psychic power of the teleportation the teleported does not suffer any physical damage to his person Gravity affects him and he might lose whatever clothes he was wearing but his blood does not boil and he does not suffer oxygen deprivation This is because he is in a psychic balloon which also explains why he always returns to earth

Making Time for Making Music Amy Nathan, 2018 Are you a former music maker who yearns to return to music but aren't sure where to begin Or are you a person who never played music as a child but you are now curious about trying You're not alone Many adults who used to play an instrument haven't touched it in years because either they can't find the time to practice are afraid their skills are too rusty or are unsure of what kind of group they could join Others are afraid to sing or start playing an instrument because they received negative feedback from childhood experiences Performing practicing and composing music may seem like unattainable goals with insurmountable obstacles for busy adults with non-musical careers Making Time for Making Music can help adults find ways to make music part of their lives The first book of its kind it is filled with real life success stories from more than 350 adults who manage to fit music making into their jam-packed schedules They polished rusty skills found musical groups to join and are having a great time Their testimonies prove that you are never too old to learn to make music and that there are numerous musical paths to explore Featuring advice from dozens of music educators health care professionals and music researchers who point out that making music can even be good for your health as well as an extensive resource list of websites organizations and summer programs this book offers inspiration and tried and true strategies for anyone who wishes to return to music making or begin as an adult Count Me In!: Resources for Making Music Inclusively with Children and Young People with Learning Difficulties Adam Ockelford, Sophie Gray, Jon Cohen, Max Mai, 2023-03-20 This engaging practical resource sets out twelve original projects for making music inclusively with children and young people of all ages who have special abilities or needs including those with profound and multiple learning difficulties those on the autism spectrum those who have a vision or hearing impairment and those with social emotional and mental health needs Created by leaders in the music and special needs field working with music industry professionals Count Me In includes projects with a wide range of musical styles and genres and there is an accompanying website with hundreds of freely downloadable audio files The resource is based on the Sounds of Intent framework which encourages teachers and others to target activities at their pupils and students particular levels of musical development The pieces of music are deconstructed into separate activities that are individually targeted at sound makers pattern makers motif makers and song makers so that all young people can join in at the same time Count Me In is a must have resource for
