The Archaeology of Medieval Islamic Frontiers

A. Asa Eger, 2019-05-15 The Archaeology of Medieval Islamic Frontiers demonstrates that different areas of the Islamic polity previously understood as minor frontiers were in fact of substantial importance to state formation Contributors explore different conceptualizations of border the importance of which previously went unrecognized examining frontiers in regions including the Magreb the Mediterranean Egypt Nubia and the Caucasus through a combination of archaeological and documentary evidence Chapters highlight the significance of these respective regions to the emergence of new sociopolitical cultural and economic practices within the Islamic world These studies successfully overcome the dichotomy of civilization s center and peripheries in academic discourse by presenting the actual dynamics of identity formation and the definition both spatial and cultural of boundaries The Archaeology of Medieval Islamic Frontiers is a rare combination of a new reading of written evidence with results from archaeological studies that will modify established opinions on the character of the Islamic frontiers and stimulate similar studies for other regions The book will be relevant to medieval Islamic studies as well as to research in the medieval world in general Contributors Karim Alizadeh Jana Eger Kathryn J Franklin Renata Holod Tarek Kahlaoui Anthony J Lauricella Ian Randall Giovanni R Ruffini Tasha Vorderstrasse

Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006)

Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today s Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization Saracens and Franks in 12th - 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature Aman Y. Nadhiri, 2016-06-10 Saracens and Franks in 12th 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature examines the tension between two competing discourses in the medieval Muslim Mediterranean and medieval Christian Europe one rooted in the desire to understand the world and one s place in it and another promoting an ethnocentric narrative To this end it examines the construction of an image of the Other for Muslims in the Eastern Mediterranean and for Christians in Western Europe in works of literature particularly in the works produced in the centuries preceding the Crusades and it explores the ways in which both Muslim and Christian writers depicted the Enemy in historical accounts of the Crusades The author focuses on medieval works of ethnography and geography travel literature Muslim and Christian accounts of the Crusades and the romances of Western Europe to trace the evolution of the image of the Eastern Mediterranean Muslim in medieval Western Europe and the Western European Christian in the medieval Muslim world first to understand the construct in the respective scholarly communities and then to analyze the ways in which this conception informs subsequent works of non fiction and fiction in the Western European context in which this Muslim or Christian Other plays a prominent role In its analysis of the medieval Mediterranean Muslim and European Christian approaches to difference this book interrogates the premises underlying the concept of the Other challenging formulations of binary opposition such as the West versus Islam Muslims Geography , The Making of Modern Muslim Selves through Architecture Farhan S. Karim, Patricia Blessing, 2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation citizenship cities and architecture It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora Essays in this book seeks to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define enable obstruct accumulate and or control flows able to disrupt bounded territories or identities More generally the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series

The Muslim 100 Muhammad Khan,2009-09-01 Short biographies of the most influential Muslims in history and today A must have book Nature and Identity in Cross-Cultural Perspective A. Buttimer,L. Wallin,2013-04-17 Nature and Identity in Cross Cultural Perspective presents 20 essays which explore diverse cultural interpretations of the earth s surface Contrasted with each other and with the potentially cosmopolitan culture of science these detailed studies of ways in which different cultures conceptualise nature appear in the context of global environmental change Understanding across cultural lines has never been more important This book shows how individual cultures see their own histories as offering protection for nature while often viewing others as lacking such ethical restraints Through such writing a discourse of understanding and common action becomes possible The authors come from the places they discuss and offer passionate as well as scholarly visions of nature within their cultural homes Audience This volume is of interest to academics and professionals working in the fields of cultural geography environmental history environmental studies history of environmental ideas environmental education landscape and literature nature and culture It can be used for courses in the above mentioned areas and seminars in comparative literature It can also be used as a complimentary text to provide cultural context to literary readings and for seminars on cultural aspects of the environment Islamic History R. Stephen Humphreys,2020-06-16 This book will be immensely helpful to those who wish to orient themselves to what has become a very large body of literature on medieval Islamic history Combining a bibliographic study with an inquiry into method it opens with a survey of the principal reference tools available to historians of Islam and a systematic review of the sources they will confront Problems of method are then examined in a series of chapters each exploring a broad topic in the social and political history of the Middle East and North Africa between A D 600 and 1500 The topics selected represent a cross section of Islamic historical studies and range from the struggles for power within the early Islamic community to the life of the peasantry Each chapter pursues four questions What concrete research problems are likely to be most challenging and productive What resources do we possess for dealing with these problems What strategies can we devise to exploit our resources most effectively What is the current state of the scholarly literature for the topic under study Geographical Thought Lalita Rana,2014-01-01 Geographical thought at any point in time is a manifestation of the prevailing viewpoints and methodological approaches in vogue The development of geography has a history of evolution of over 2000 years The discipline has been crafted over time to incorporate ideas from various schools of thought and several other disciplines from ancient to modern times The existing methodology and the subject matter of Geography is a reflection of this assemblage and evolution The nature of development remained more philosophical up to modern period The First edition of this book published in 2008 was an attempt towards compilation of relevant study material on evolution of Geographic thought in a systematic way up to the modern period The book has been revised with the addition of two elaborated sections i e one each on the Classical and the Contemporary tradition in geography However the major thrust of present book is on the nature of geographic developments in its contemporary phase More recently the anthropocentrism and a concern about methodology are more evident in the development of discipline

Palestine Nur

Masalha,2018-08-15 This rich and magisterial work traces Palestine s millennia old heritage uncovering cultures and societies of astounding depth and complexity that stretch back to the very beginnings of recorded history Starting with the earliest references in Egyptian and Assyrian texts Nur Masalha explores how Palestine and its Palestinian identity have evolved over thousands of years from the Bronze Age to the present day Drawing on a rich body of sources and the latest archaeological evidence Masalha shows how Palestine s multicultural past has been distorted and mythologised by Biblical lore and the Israel Palestinian conflict In the process Masalha reveals that the concept of Palestine contrary to accepted belief is not a modern invention or one constructed in opposition to Israel but rooted firmly in ancient past Palestine
