Hill, Ashley E. Jochim, 2025-03-31 An expansive study shows how politics can work for not just against efforts to improve America s schools The education reform project has always been about making America s schools more effective for the children who attend them In Making Politics Work authors Paul T Hill and Ashley E Jochim show that this project cannot succeed without mastering what is the single largest constraint on its success politics Drawing upon more than a decade of work with dozens of school systems Hill and Jochim show how failures to secure political support or mitigate inevitable opposition dooms the education reform project from the start But this outcome is not inevitable By tracing the evolution of the portfolio strategy across 27 localities that implemented it they uncover practical lessons that superintendents state leaders and foundation officials can use to increase the likelihood that their ideas for improving public education don t join the list of once promising initiatives that could not be sustained in the face of intractable political conflict      Making Minnesota Liberal Jennifer Alice Delton, 2002 In Making Minnesota

Liberal Jennifer A Delton delves into the roots of Minnesota politics and traces the change from the regional third party class oriented politics of the Farmer Labor party to the national two party pluralistic liberalism of the Democratic Farmer Labor party DFL While others have examined how anticommunism and the Cold War shaped this transformation Delton takes a new approach showing the key roles played by antiracism and the civil rights movement In telling this story Delton contributes to our understanding not only of Minnesotas political history but also of Rowing News ,2003-10-19 Age Is Just a Number Dara Torres,Elizabeth Weil,2010-03-02 From legendary Olympic gold medalist Dara Torres comes a motivational inspirational memoir about staying fit aging gracefully and pursuing your dreams Dara Torres captured the hearts and minds of Americans of all ages when she launched her Olympic comeback as a new mother at the age of forty one years after she had retired from competitive swimming and eight years since her last Olympics When she took three silver medals in Beijing including a heartbreaking 01 second finish behind the gold medalist in the women s 50 meter freestyle America loved her all the more for her astonishing achievement and her good natured acceptance of the results Now in Age Is Just a Number Dara reveals how the dream of an Olympic comeback first came to her when she was months into her first hard won pregnancy With humor and candor Dara recounts how she returned to serious training while nursing her infant daughter and contending with her beloved father s long battle with cancer Dara talks frankly about diving back in for this comeback about being an older athlete in a younger athletes game about competition doubt and belief about working through pain and uncertainty and finally about seizing the moment and most important never giving up A truly self made legend her story will resonate with women of all ages and with anyone daring to entertain a seemingly impossible dream The Making of Chicana/o Studies Rodolfo Acuña,2011 The Making of Chicana o Studies traces the philosophy and historical development of the field of Chicana o studies from precursor movements to the Civil Rights era to today focusing its lens on the political machinations in higher education that sought to destroy the discipline As a renowned leader activist scholar and founding member of the movement to establish this curriculum in the California State University system which serves as a model for the rest of the country Rodolfo F Acu a has for more than forty years battled the trend in academia to deprive this group of its academic presence The book assesses the development of Chicana o studies an area of studies that has even more value today than at its inception myths about its epistemological foundations have remained uncontested Acu a sets the record straight challenging those in the academy who would fold the discipline into Latino studies shadow it under the dubious umbrella of ethnic studies or eliminate it altogether Building the largest Chicana o studies program in the nation was no easy feat especially in an atmosphere of academic contention In this remarkable account Acu a reveals how California State University Northridge was instrumental in developing an area of study that offers more than 166 sections per semester taught by 26 tenured and 45 part time instructors He provides vignettes of successful programs across the country and offers contemporary educators and students a game plan the mechanics for creating a successful Chicana o studies discipline and a comprehensive index of current Chicana o studies programs nationwide Latinas os of which Mexican Americans are nearly seventy percent comprise a complex sector of society projected to be just shy of thirty percent of the nation s population by 2050 The Making of Chicana o Studies identifies what went wrong in the history of Chicana o studies and offers tangible solutions for the future      The National Security Law of Hong Kong Hualing Fu, Michael Hor, 2022-07-12 The Law of the People s Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong SAR the NSL promises to be the most important legal development in Hong Kong since the advent of the Basic Law Many wondered in the aftermath of the NSL how the foundations of Hong Kong s system might be changed and in what way the freedoms valued by Hong Kong may be affected Supporters view the law as essential for the preservation of public order and the national security of China and to support the fundamental well being of One Country Two Systems an arrangement that has been in place since the return of Hong Kong to China Critics fear an adverse impact on the spirit of One Country Two Systems From a discussion initiated by the University of Hong Kong s Faculty of Law this collection of essays brings together leading experts on Hong Kong and Chinese law to offer an exploratory study of the NSL and its impact on the legal system and the principle of the rule of law in Hong Kong The book examines the ramifications of the law in relation to constitutional matters protecting national security and sustaining One Country Two Systems policing judicial independence and extraterritoriality as well as its wider implications in areas such as academic freedom and the business environment It explores the interaction between Hong Kong and Chinese law occasioned by the NSL Finally the book offers a comparative perspective of the experience of other jurisdictions that have engaged with similar security legislation This collection addresses an important and timely issue and provides an invaluable resource for all lawyers interested in Hong Kong as they grapple with the momentous changes in its legal landscape The collection will surely serve as a reference point for further discussion and debate Victor V Ramraj University of Victoria Canada This book covers the most important aspects of national security issues including freedom and security that we have always been concerned about This timely publication not only offers the latest research results for the academic community but also provides important reference materials for the Hong Kong society to understand the important topics of national security Zhu Guobin City University of Hong Kong      Motion Picture Projectionist ,1928
