Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh Mohammad Musfequs Salehin, 2016-01-13 NGOs (Non Governmental Organizations) have emerged in both a development and aid capacity in Bangladesh providing wide reaching public services to the country's population living in extreme poverty. However resistance to and limitations of NGO led development which in conjunction with Bangladesh's social transformation led to a new religious based NGO development practice. Looking at the role of Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh the book investigates new forms of neoliberal governmentality supported by international donors. It discusses how this form of social regulation produces and reproduces subjectivities particularly Muslim women subjectivity and has combined religious and economic rationality further complicating the boundaries and the relationship between Islam, modernity and development. The book argues that both secular and Islamic NGOs target women in the name of empowerment but more importantly as the most reliable partners to meet their debt obligations of micro financing schemes including shari'a based financing. The targeted women in turn experience Islamic NGOs as less coercive and more sensitive to their religious environment in the rural village community than are secular NGOs. Providing a comparative study of the role of religious and secular NGOs in the implementation of neoliberal policies and development strategies this book will be a significant addition to research on South Asian Politics, Development Studies, Gender Studies and Religion.

Pamphlets Foreign Policy Association, 1929 Brick and Clay Record, 1912 Homes Fit For Heroes Mark Swenarton, 2018-11-09 Homes fit for Heroes looks at the pledge made 100 years ago by the Lloyd George government to build half a million homes fit for heroes, the pledge which made council housing a major part of the housing system in the UK. Originally published in 1981 the book is the only full scale study of the provision and design of state housing in the period following the 1918 Armistice and remains the standard work on the subject. It looks at the municipal garden suburbs of the 1920s which were completely different from traditional working class housing inside and out. Instead of being packed onto the ground in long terraces the houses were set in spacious gardens surrounded by trees and open spaces and often they contained luxuries like upstairs bathrooms unheard of in the working class houses of the past. The book shows that in the turbulent period following the First World War the British government launched the housing campaign as a way of persuading the troops and the people that their aspirations would be met under the existing system without any need for revolution. The design of the houses based on the famous Tudor Walters Report of 1918 was a central element in this strategy; the large and comfortable houses provided by the state were intended as visible evidence of the arrival of a new era for the working classes of this country The Council of State Debates (official Report)... ,1923 Egypt's Other Wars Nancy Elizabeth Gallagher,2021-10-29 Three devastating epidemics swept Egypt in the 1940 s killing more people than all the wars Egypt has fought in the twentieth century Egypt s Other Wars vividly reconstructs the nation s struggle against malaria relapsing fever and cholera and explores the unique combination of forces that put public health at the top of the national political agenda Egypt in the 1940 s as in the throes of a nationalist upheaval Nationalists of all political ideologies attributed the sever epidemics that the country was experiencing to Egypt s status as an underdeveloped and colonized nation The epidemics were therefore viewed for the first time as not only a public health crisis but also a political problem that called for a political solution The Little Book of Role Play Windows Melanie Roan,Marion Taylor,2015-06-04 The Little Book of Role Play Windows provides a range of fun role play activities in which scenarios are acted out through a window made using just a cardboard box Playing with pedal cars can transform into a car park scenario with car park attendant dressing up play can be extended by creating a fancy dress hire shop and playing with soft toy animals can lead on to a trip to the vets The Boy's Miscellany ,1864 Egypt's Housing Crisis Yahia Shawkat,2020-09-08 A provocative analysis of the roots of Egypt s housing crisis and the ways in which it can be tackled Along with football and religion housing is a fundamental cornerstone of Egyptian life it can make or break marriage proposals invigorate or slow down the economy and popularize or embarrass a ruler Housing is political Almost every Egyptian ruler over the last eighty years has directly associated himself with at least one large scale housing project It is also big business with Egypt currently the world leader in per capita housing production building at almost double China s rate and creating a housing surplus that counts in the millions of units Despite this Egypt has been in the grip of a housing crisis for almost eight decades From the 1940s onward officials deployed a number of policies to create adequate housing for the country s growing population By the 1970s housing production had outstripped population growth but today half of Egypt s one hundred million people cannot afford a decent home Egypt s Housing Crisis takes presidential speeches parliamentary reports legislation and official statistics as the basis with which to investigate the tools that officials have used to solve the housing crisis rent control social housing and amnesties for informal self building as well as the inescapable reality of these policies outcomes Yahia Shawkat argues that wars mass displacement and rural urban migration played a part in creating the problem early on but that neoliberal deregulation crony capitalism and corruption and neglectful planning have made things steadily worse ever since In the final analysis he asks is affordable housing for all really that hard to achieve The New Yorker ,1925 The Missionary Review ,1928
