Making A Place For Community Local Politics In A Globalized World:

Bringing the Biosphere Home Mitchell Thomashow, 2001-10-26 A guide for understanding the ecological and existential aspects of global environmental change This book shows how to make global environmental problems more tangible so that they become an integral part of everyday awareness At its core is a simple assumption that the best way to learn to perceive the biosphere is to pay close attention to our immediate surroundings Through local natural history observations imagination and memory and spiritual contemplation we develop a place based environmental view that can be expanded to encompass the biosphere Interweaving global change science personal narrative and commentary on a wide range of scientific and literary works the book explores both the ecological and existential aspects of urgent issues such as the loss of biodiversity and global climate change Written in a warm engaging style Bringing the Biosphere Home considers the perceptual connections between the local and global how the ecological news of the community is of interest to the world and how the global movement of people species and weather systems affects the local community It shows how global environmental change can become the province of numerous educational initiatives from the classroom to the Internet from community forums to international conferences from the backyard to the biosphere It explains important scientific concepts in clear nontechnical language and provides dozens of ideas for learning how to practice biospheric perception

Places and Politics in an Age of Globalization Roxann Prazniak, Arif Dirlik, 2001-02-07 This ambitious work provides a unique statement on the question of place based activism and its relationship to powerful forces of international capital Arguing that specific places around the world are sites for the defense and enhancement of daily life in the context of rapidly expanding global technologies and investment options the contributors reach for a vision of social development that supports sustainable humane cultures Bringing together the local and the global this work provides the first sustained linkage of ethnic groups in diaspora to macrocosmic processes of world capital that inevitably reach down to mediate even the most local experiences The essays ranging in their discussion of place from Los Angeles and New York to New Zealand and Indonesia offer both reasoned argument and authoritative information on how local experience interacts with larger processes of global capital and the diasporic phenomenon The book will be an invaluable resource and launching point for scholars and students in ethnic and identity studies and will interest all readers exploring the production of place and identification

Local Politics, Global Impacts Olivier Charnoz, Virginie Diaz Pedregal, 2016-05-06 Serving as a touchstone for a much needed research program on social scales this volume challenges disciplinary boundaries and brings into focus a paradoxical state of affairs in contemporary thought the domain of local global interactions has not yet been identified as an object of analysis in its own right despite engaging a large multi disciplinary research community with strong potential for cross fertilization Bringing together internationally renowned as well as emerging scholars this book presents concrete case studies framed by theoretical concern with the issue of scale It demonstrates that a diverse array of theoretical methodological and empirical perspectives can productively converge on a common set of problems related to social temporal and spatial scales and contemporary globalization Local Politics Global Impacts will stimulate empirical and theoretical research that focuses on understanding how political concepts practices and instruments translate across scales and contribute to the emergence of a self aware community of scholars and practitioners focusing explicitly on modelling the dynamics of local regional global interactions Local Politics, Global Impacts Dr Olivier Charnoz, Dr Virginie Diaz Pedregal, Professor Alan L.
