Making Change Happen:

Making Change Happen Bill Lamperes, 2005 Educators will find more than sixty strategies and reflections to help guide the success of any new or experienced school leader Beginning with methods of assessing the organization's culture the book expands on ways to empower staff students and community members to embrace change It is filled with creative approaches that make more out of less work with individuals from an asset model and assess results This book examines the process used by one Colorado school to achieve two five year visions and to change its image in the community Once staff students parents and community stakeholders catch the vision programs people and resources are aligned to promote success As a result the school once slated for the financial chopping block effectively moved from potential closure to national recognition as an exemplary program Like its unique programs most of the visions strategies can be replicated and adapted to any organizational setting For aspiring or veteran principals or school leaders

Making Change Happen George Vukotich, 2015-04-18 Being able to make change happen is the key to success In this work a number of tools and examples are provided to help you be the 1% that makes change happen not the 99% who wonders what happened Most people are so preoccupied with surviving day to day they do not take the time to look at how to make things better They live in organizations that are reactionary and hope to be around in the future With today's pace of change and the number of things that drive change technology politics environment and globalization we cannot just wait and hope for the best We need to make change happen Yesterday's corporate giants and the biggest names on the Fortune 500 cannot survive on past successes Those that understand the capabilities that change provides us with and apply innovative ways to leverage the tools of change are those that will be successful in the future Identifying trends easing the pain that others have and providing products and services that lead to a better quality of life are the keys to making a difference Whether through direct change or indirect change the ongoing questions related to being better faster and cheaper need to be addressed to grow and prosper Individuals that gain the insight and know how to use the tools are those that will make change happen They are the ones that make a difference They are the leaders of change that help others understand how to make change happen This work will give you a number of tools and insights you can use to make a difference To make change happen

Making Change Happen Kevin Cook, Heather Goodall, 2013-09-11 This book is a unique window into a dynamic time in the politics and history of Australia The two decades from 1970 to the Bicentennial in 1988 saw the emergence of a new landscape in Australian Indigenous politics There were struggles triumphs and defeats around land rights community control of organisations national coalitions and the international movement for Indigenous rights The changes of these years generated new roles for Aboriginal people Leaders had to grapple with demands to be administrators and managers as well as spokespeople and lobbyists The challenges were personal as well as organisational with a central one being how to retain personal integrity in the highly politicised atmosphere of the Aboriginal Industry Kevin Cook was in the middle of many of these changes as a unionist educator land rights campaigner cultural activist and advocate for liberation movements in Southern Africa the Pacific and around the world But Cookie has not wanted to tell the story of his own life in these pages Instead with Heather Goodall a long time friend he has gathered together many of the activists with whom he worked to tell their stories of this important time Readers are invited into the frank and vivid conversations Cookie had with forty five black and white activists about what they wanted to achieve the plans they made and the risks they took to make change happen You never doubted Kevin Cook His very presence made you confident because the guiding hand is always there Equal attention is given to all I am one of many who worked with Cookie and Judy through the Tranby days and in particular the 1988 Bicentennial March for Freedom Justice and Hope What days they were I m glad this story is being told Linda Burney MLA New South Wales Kevin Cook was a giant in the post war struggle for Aboriginal rights His ability to connect the dots and make things happen was important in both the political and cultural resurgence of the 1970s onwards Meredith Burgmann former MLC New South Wales Kevin has had a transformative effect on the direction of my life and the lives of so many other people This book is an important contribution to understanding not only Kevin s life but also the broader struggles for social and economic justice for community empowerment and of the cooperative progressive movement It will greatly assist the ongoing campaign for full and sustainable reconciliation Paddy Crumlin National Secretary Maritime Union of Australia Cookie has made great contributions in enhancing the struggles of our people He is a motivator an astute strategist and an excellent communicator with wonderful people skills It s a pleasure to be able to call him a mate and a brother John Ah Kit former MLA Northern Territory
