Make Love, Not War David Allyn, 2016-05-23 When Helen Gurley Brown's Sex and the Single Girl hit bookstores in 1962 the sexual revolution was launched and there was no turning back Soon came the pill the end of censorship the advent of feminism and the rise of commercial pornography Our daily lives changed in an unprecedented time of sexual openness and experimentation Make Love Not War is the first serious treatment of the complicated events ideas and personalities that drove the sexual revolution forward Based on first hand accounts diaries interviews and period research it traces changes in private lives and public discourse from the fearful fifties to the first tremors of rebellion in the early sixties to the heady heyday of the revolution Bringing a fresh perspective to the turbulence of these decades David Allyn argues that the sexual revolutionaries of the 60s and 70s by telling the truth about their own histories and desires forced all Americans to re-examine the very meaning of freedom Written with a historian's attention to nuance and a novelist's narrative drive Make Love Not War is a provocative vivid and thoughtful account of one of the most captivating episodes in American history Also includes an 8 page insert

Yagoda, 2009-11-12 From a critically acclaimed cultural and literary critic a definitive history and analysis of the memoir From Saint Augustine's Confessions to Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors from Julius Caesar to Ulysses Grant from Mark Twain to David Sedaris the art of memoir has had a fascinating life and deserves its own biography Cultural and literary critic Ben Yagoda traces the memoir from its birth in early Christian writings and Roman generals' journals all the way up to the banner year of 2007 which saw memoirs from and about dogs rock stars bad dads good dads alternadads waitresses George Foreman Iranian women and a slew of other illustrious persons and animals In a time when memoir seems ubiquitous and is still highly controversial Yagoda tackles the autobiography and memoir in all its forms and iterations He discusses the fraudulent memoir and provides many examples from the past and addresses the ramifications and consequences of these books Spanning decades and nations styles and subjects he analyzes the hallmark memoirs of the Western tradition Rousseau Ben Franklin Henry Adams Gertrude Stein Edward Gibbon among others Yagoda also describes historical trends such as Native American captive memoirs slave narratives courtier dramas where one had to pay to NOT be included in a courtesan's memoir Throughout the idea of memory and truth how we remember and how well we remember lives is intimately explored Yagoda's elegant examination of memoir is at once a history of literature and taste and an absorbing glimpse into what humans find interesting one another God Is Not a Homophobe Philo Thelos, 2004

Homosexuality is perhaps the most volatile topic discussed in today's church and society A war rages that will ultimately determine how much civil liberty can be enjoyed by consenting homosexuals and how much religious equality they will be granted Several books already exist attempting to demonstrate that the Christian Bible does not in fact condemn consenting adult homosexuality But God Is Not a Homophobe has a unique perspective in that the author has a lifetime of experience in pastoring hard core fundamentalist churches His former bitter opposition to all forms of homosexuality has given way to a rational unbiased acceptance that the Bible says hardly anything about homosexuality and what it does say cannot honestly be used to condemn consenting same sex unions In God Is Not a Homophobe the author examines in detail every Bible verse and every Bible based argument against homosexuality and concludes with a view radically different from what is offered by the modern church His conclusions will surprise many and will surely aggravate and anger many more But he believes the evidence in this book will stand the test of investigation This unbiased look at homosexuality in the Bible gives much food for thought and hopefully much incentive for change in our attitude toward and treatment of those whose sexual orientation is different Masking Selves, Making Subjects Associate Professor of English and Associate Professor of English Traise
