Adapting Nathaniel Hawthorne to the Screen Laurence Raw, 2008 Raw explains how some filmmakers have tackled the difficulty of Hawthorne's material by treating it as being firmly situated in American life of the mid nineteenth century while others have used Hawthorne s work to comment on various aspects of twentieth century American life This latter device is particularly evident in the many versions of The Scarlet Letter including a 1950 television broadcast that aired two months after senator Joseph McCarthy s speech about card carrying members of the Communist Party and 1960s and early 70s versions supporting countercultural values Fruit Chan's Made in Hong Kong Esther M.K. Cheung,2009-07-01 This tragic coming of age story follows three disillusioned local youths struggling to navigate Hong Kong public housing projects and late adolescence amid violent crime gang pressure and broken homes Shot on a very low budget the film marked the beginning of Chan s career as an independent film director

Mathematics, Art, Technology and Cinema MIRELLA MANARESI,2003-07-21 This book is about mathematics But also about art technology and images And above all about cinema which in the past years together with theater has discovered mathematics and mathematicians It was conceived as a contribution to the World Year on Mathematics The authors argue that the discussion about the differences between the so called two cultures of science and humanism is a thing of the past They hold that both cultures are truly linked through ideas and creativity not only through technology In doing so they succeed in reaching out to non mathematicians and those who are not particularly fond of mathematics An insightful book for mathematicians film lovers those who feel passionate about images and those with a questioning mind

Su Friedrich Barbara Mennel,2023-09-05 Auteurism expanded With acclaimed films like Sink or Swim and The Odds of Recovery Su Friedrich s body of work stands at the forefront of avant garde and Queer cinema Barbara Mennel examines the career of an experimental auteur whose merger of technical innovation and political critique connects with both cinephiles and activists Friedrich s integration of cinematic experimentation with lesbian advocacy serves as a beginning rather than an end point of analysis With that in mind Mennel provides an essential overview of the filmmaker s oeuvre while highlighting the defining characteristics of her artistic and political signature She also situates Friedrich within the cultural political and historical contexts that both shape the films and are shaped by them Finally Mennel expands our notion of auteurism to include directors who engage in collaborative and creative processes rooted in communities The Documentary
