Body, Mind, and Sport John Douillard, 2018-08-14 Until recently the effortless Zone of peak performance was only within the reach of serious athletes Now with Body Mind and Sport anyone can reach the Zone regardless of fitness level Designed to accommodate a variety of individual fitness needs the Body Mind and Sport program is split into two levels Level 1 is for non athletes who want to improve overall fitness Level 2 is for those who want to train for competitive or recreational purposes Your own unique mind body type is taken into account to guide you in achieving your personal best without stress or strain In this revised and updated edition of Body Mind and Sport fitness expert and trainer John Douillard outlines a program in which your individual seasonal constitution Winter Spring or Summer determines what exercises or sports are best suited to your mind body type and what foods you should eat for optimum results Using the Body Mind and Sport approach you can decrease heart and breath rates while improving both fitness and performance Dozens of world class athletes including Martina Navratilova and Billie Jean King have used John Douillard s expert breathing techniques dietary recommendations and seasonally balanced workouts Now you can too Champion's Handbook Rishank Jhavar, Don t be mistaken Champion s Handbook isn t a motivational book More specifically it isn t merely a motivational book Most motivational books are about following others lives and reading success stories But Champion s Handbook encourages you to write your own successful life story This book doesn t ask its readers to bring about drastic changes in their lives nor does it contain dozens of foolish exercises that they may even forget after turning a few pages Written in casual style this book will help tweak their lives to attain success in their respective fields It is casual and is meant to invoke a deeper sense of you in you Going through it promises to be an intimate experience one that can actually help you achieve your aims and transcend them A refreshing view is provided on some previously agreed upon topics like anger being good belief even when no one does among others Beginning with addressing you as the underdog and emphasizing on acceptance as the first step towards betterment it touches on all the aspects that make and break a champion The aim is not the destination but the journey The journey from underdog to champion New Black Cyclones Marlon Lee Moncrieffe, 2024-11-21 Cycling as never told before Nicholas Dlamini South African cycling champion Revolutionary Bradley Wiggins British Tour de France champion This is a call for a revolution by the global Black cycling community to reform the sport and for changing the way cycling is seen Despite the rise of anti racism in light of the Black Lives Matter movement professional cycling is still predominately a white and European centred sport Former international racing cyclist Marlon Lee Moncrieffe and author of the award winning Desire Discrimination Determination Black Champions in Cycling examines how the industry is tackling racism within the sport today Sharing his experiences and learnings from his journeys across the UK the USA and the African continent

Moncrieffe brings together the voices of Black cycling cultures He speaks to Black elite and professional riders members of national cycling bodies commentators grassroots riders community leaders teachers and activists discovering how they are disrupting the sport s white led norms of power In response to his commentary and evidence Moncrieffe invites us to critically consider the past present and future of the sport What transformations if any towards equality in Black representation and empowerment are happening in the world of cycling and particularly in the highest realms of the sport What could be the potential force of Black cycling movements across the world converging as New Black Cyclones in reforming how the sport is seen and known
