A.E. Housman at University College London Naiditch,2023-09-20 The Making of a Shropshire Lad; A Manuscript Variorum Edited by Tom Burns Haber Tom Burns Haber,1966 The Making of A Shropshire Lad. A Manuscript Variorum. By Tom Burns Haber Alfred Edward Housman,Tom Burns HABER,1966 Literature in the Making, by Some of Its Makers Joyce Kilmer,1917 Inventing Modern John H. Lienhard,2003 Modern is a word much used but hard to pin down In Inventing Modern John H Lienhard uses that word to capture the furious rush of newness in the first half of 20th century America An unexpected world emerges from under the more familiar Modern Beyond the airplanes radios art deco skyscrapers Fritz Lang s Metropolis Buck Rogers the culture of the open road Burma Shave Kerouac and White Castles lie driving forces that set this account of Modern apart One force says Lienhard was a new concept of boyhood the risk taking hands on savage inventor Driven by an admiration of recklessness America developed its technological empire with stunning speed Bringing the airplane to fruition in so short a time for example were people such as Katherine Stinson Lincoln Beachey Amelia Earhart and Charles Lindbergh The rediscovery of mystery powerfully drove Modern as well X Rays quantum mechanics and relativity theory had followed electricity and radium Here we read how with reality seemingly altered hope seemed limitless Lienhard blends these forces with his childhood in the brave new world The result is perceptive engaging and filled with surprise Whether he talks about Alexander Calder an engineer whose sculptures were exercises in materials science or that wacky paean to flight Flying Down to Rio unexpected detail emerges from every tile of this large mosaic Inventing Modern is a personal book that displays rather than defines an age that ended before most of us were born It is an engineer s homage to a time before the bomb and our terrible loss of confidence a time that might yet rise again out of its own postmodern ashes A. E. Housman NA NA,2016-04-30 This collection of essays was conceived as part of the centenary celebrations of the first publication in 1896 of one of the most popular collections of poetry ever written A Shropshire Lad a collection never out of print in a hundred years Yet Housman was a recluse an austere classicist of great renown who devoted his academic life to the correction of ancient texts He filled his poems with the lives loves and deaths of simple country people whose emotions are intense and often violent but lived his own life in stoic acceptance of his loveless arid existence Why his life should have been so intentionally empty of emotion raises questions about Housman s own sexuality and the relationship he had with his friend Moses Jackson and Jackson s brother Afalbert Housman s poetry like his life is deceptively simple this volume shows some of the complex currents below the surface Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1968 Reluctant Modernists Peter Edgerly Firchow,2002 The essays collected here deal with modernist writers who on the whole felt reluctant about their modernist status because they believed that it was just as important to look backward as it was to look forward Indeed for most of them looking backward was more important because it was only through the past that one could understand one's proper place in the present and in the future That is why in Huxley's Brave New World it is the rejection of the past in the future and by implication in the present that makes its satire so penetrating Modernism in other words means for these writers not a radical break with the past but a continuing search for what still connects them and us vitally with it Peter Firchow Professor of English at the University of Minnesota is the author of several books on modern and modernist literary subjects including books on Huxley Conrad and Auden The publication of some of his hitherto uncollected essays in this volume is intended to honor

Housman Country Peter Parker, 2017-06-20 Parker's beautiful Housman Country tells you everything you want to know about the life and influence of England's most satirised but inimitable poets Evening Standard A New York Times Book Review Editor's Choice Nominated for the 2017 PEN Bograd Weld Prize for Biography A E Housman's A Shropshire Lad made little impression when it was first published in 1896 but has since become one of the best loved volumes of poetry in the English language Its evocation of the English countryside thwarted love and a yearning for things lost is as potent today as it was more than a century ago and the book has never been out of print In Housman Country Peter Parker explores the lives of A E Housman and his most famous book and in doing so shows how A Shropshire Lad has permeated English life and culture since its publication The poems were taken to war by soldiers who wanted to carry England in their pockets were adapted by composers trying to create a new kind of English music and have influenced poetry fiction music and drama right up to the present day Everyone has a personal land of lost content with blue remembered hills and Housman has been a tangible and far reaching presence in a startling range of work from the war poets and Ralph Vaughan Williams to Inspector Morse and Morrissey Housman Country is a vivid exploration of England and Englishness in which Parker maps out terrain that is as historical and emotional as it is topographical A rich blend of literary criticism and cultural history The Spectator

Housman Tom Burns Haber, 1955-01-01 The Manuscript Poems of A E Housman was first published in 1955 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Poetry lovers everywhere and devotees of A E Housman in particular will recognize a major literary event in the publication of this volume for it makes available for the first time some 800 lines of hitherto unpublished poetry by the well loved author of A Shropshire Lad This is a significant addition to the Housman treasury because the English poet published a total of only 2216 lines of poetry during his lifetime Dr Haber has drawn the material for this volume from the four Housman notebooks in the Library of Congress where they were deposited in 1940 four years after the poet s death In an introductory section the editor describes the notebooks themselves and tells in detail the fascinating story of how the manuscripts erased canceled and glued fast to mounting sheets were preserved and deciphered The notebooks dated from 1890 to 1925 contain the most valuable manuscript remains of Housman s poetic writings In the material that is published here for the first time there are included complete poems fragments of poems and abandoned lines and stanzas from well known lyrics In addition the editor has provided a list of variants which the poet inserted into his printers copies of A Shropshire Lad and Last Poems Among the newly published complete poems are some that Dr Haber believes should be ranked with Housman s outstanding work In the material that shows the poet s revisions of his own writings the reader is afforded an intimate glimpse into the creative processes of a poetic genius a privilege that will be especially appreciated by students and critics Many explanatory notes are appended to show how Housman s poetry matured from first draft through final copy to the printed page A. E. Housman Philip Gardner, 2024-11-01 First published in 1992 A E Housman The Critical Heritage brings together the most important and significant critical response to the poetry of A E Housman from the time of his writing to 1951 It contains ninety four items articles reviews and comments which provide an accurate picture of how Housman the poet was seen during his lifetime and for some years beyond it The picture which emerges is of a poet not only of popular appeal but of great literary distinction who was admired by the majority of reviewers and critics who discussed his work Among those quoted are J B Priestley Edmund Gosse Cyril Connolly T S Eliot George Orwell Cleanth Brooke Stephen Spender John Sparrow and E M Forster
