Americans Robin D. G. Kelley, Earl Lewis, 2000-05-30 Written by the most prominent of the new generation of historians this superb volume offers the most up to date and authoritative account available of African American history ranging from the first Africans brought as slaves into the Americas to today's black filmmakers and politicians Here is a panoramic view of African American life rich in gripping first person accounts and short character sketches that invite readers to relive history as African Americans experienced it We begin in Africa with the growth of the slave trade and follow the forced migration of what is estimated to be between ten and twenty million people witnessing the terrible human cost of slavery in the colonies of England and Spain We read of the Haitian Revolution which ended victoriously in 1804 with the birth of the first independent black nation in the New World and of slave rebellions and resistance in the United States in the years leading up to the Civil War There are vivid accounts of the Civil War and Reconstruction years the backlash of notorious Jim Crow laws and mob lynchings and the founding of key black educational institutions The contributors also trace the migration of blacks to the major cities the birth of the Harlem Renaissance the hardships of the Great Depression and the service of African Americans in World War II the struggle for Civil Rights in the 1950s and 60s and the emergence of today's black middle class From Harriet Tubman and Frederick Douglass to Martin Luther King Jr and Louis Farrakhan To Make Our World Anew is an unforgettable portrait of a people

The Making and Unmaking of Whiteness Birgit Brander Rasmussen, Eric Klinenberg, Irene J. Nexica, Matt Wray, 2001-09-07 Bringing together new articles and essays from the controversial Berkeley conference of the same name The Making and Unmaking of Whiteness presents a fascinating range of inquiry into the nature of whiteness Representing academics independent scholars community organizers and antiracist activists the contributors are all leaders in the second wave of whiteness studies who collectively aim to combat the historical legacies of white supremacy and to inform those who seek to understand the changing nature of white identity both in the United States and abroad With essays devoted to theories of racial domination comparative global racisms and transnational white identity the geographical reach of the volume is significant and broad Dalton Conley writes on How I Learned to Be White Allan B rub discusses the intersection of gay identity and whiteness and Mab Segrest describes the spiritual price white people pay for living in a system of white supremacy Other pieces examine the utility of whiteness as a critical term for social analysis and contextualize different attempts at antiracist activism In a razor sharp introduction the editors not only raise provocative questions about the intellectual social and political goals of those interested in the study of whiteness but assess several of the topic s major recurrent themes the visibility of whiteness or the lack thereof the emptiness of whiteness as a category of identification and conceptions of whiteness as a structural privilege a harbinger of violence or an institutionalization of European imperialism Contributors William Aal Allan B rub Birgit Brander Rasmussen Dalton Conley Troy Duster Ruth Frankenberg John Hartigan Jr Eric Klinenberg Eric Lott Irene J Nexica Michael Omi Jasbir Kaur Puar Mab Segrest Vron Ware Howard Winant Matt Wray

1968 (Exploring Civil Rights: The Rise) Jay Leslie, 2023-04-04 Learn about the key events of the civil rights movement in the latest installment of this exciting and informative series The year 1968 was one of progress and loss in the civil rights movement In February the Memphis Worker s Strike showed African American men protesting with powerful I Am a Man signs The world stopped in April when Martin Luther King Jr was assassinated in Memphis Tennessee That same month President Johnson expanded the historic Civil Rights Act of 1964 by implementing the Fair Housing Act to further prohibit against discrimination And in May 2 700 Black Americans established Resurrection City an encampment near the Lincoln Memorial in Washington DC in a 6 week long protest against the US government s inaction on poverty This detailed account explains why 1968 was such a critical year in the civil rights movement ABOUT THE SERIES The years from 1967 to 1978 were critical to the civil rights movement Resistance was often met with violence against Black Americans struggling to end discrimination and segregation Yet the courage of those yearning for equal opportunities under the law continued to persevere and set the stage for even more progress in the

Race and the Making of American Liberalism
Carol A. Horton, 2005-09-08 Race and the Making of American Liberalism traces the roots of the contemporary crisis of progressive liberalism deep into the nation's racial past Horton argues that the contemporary conservative claim that the American liberal tradition has been rooted in a color blind conception of individual rights is inaccurate and misleading In contrast American liberalism has alternatively served both to support and oppose racial hierarchy as well as socioeconomic inequality more broadly Racial politics in the United States have repeatedly made it exceedingly difficult to establish powerful constituencies that understand socioeconomic equity as vital to American democracy and aspire to limit gross disparities of wealth power and status Revitalizing such equalitarian conceptions of American liberalism Horton suggests will require developing new forms of racial and class identity that support rather than sabotage this fundamental political commitment

The Old Left and the Rise of the Civil Rights Movement, 1930-1964 Matt Nichter, 2005 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1994

Stuck In The Sixties George Rising, 2010-11-08 The 1960s were a colorful tumultuous age that transformed American society Ever since the decade ended Americans have debated the changes that it unleashed While most liberals argue that the era's effects were mainly positive and long overdue conservatives perceive the 1960s as a disastrous time that has left ruinous legacies for us Stuck in the Sixties analyzes conservatives' views about the 1960s era and its legacies by examining their discourse about such sixties figures and movements as John F Kennedy Martin Luther King Jr the civil rights movement the Warren Court the Great Society the Vietnam War the anti war movement the New Left and the counterculture The book reveals that for a generation a focus on attacking and reversing the legacies of the 1960s has been essential to the conservative Republican agenda

Find a Way Or Make One Alma J. Carten, 2021 Clark Atlanta University Whitney M Young Jr School of Social Work was founded in 1920 in Atlanta Georgia as the Atlanta School of Social Work to prepare social workers for practice in underserved black neighborhoods Spearheaded by black scholars and progressive whites during an era of racial segregation 2020 marks its centennial as the first accredited social work program at a historically black college and university In this book social work professor Alma J Carten describes the School's transitions from its beginnings amid the pervasive racism sanctioned by Supreme Court rulings in the Dred Scott and Plessy v Ferguson cases through the decades of 20th century progressive civil rights reforms and into the new conservatism of the 21st century Referencing archival documents Carten illustrates the School's commitment to the democratic principles of the profession despite the blatant racism of the segregated South and the less visible structural inequalities following desegregation from which mainstream social work education was not immune The book describes the influence of iconic thought leaders on the School's culture and academic programs beginning with Jesse O Thomas's speech on the need for a black school of social work given from the segregated section of the 1920 National Conference on Social Work and including W E B DuBois Atlanta University Studies that pioneered the model of social progress powered by science E Franklin Frazier and Forrester B Washington who championed black social work and the integration of race critical content in the curriculum of all schools and Whitney M Young Jr who chastised social workers for their waning interest in advocacy for marginalized populations and encouraged them to become politically active Carten examines the evolution of the School within the context of changes in US social welfare policy CSWE accrediting standards and NASW Code of Ethics Highly readable the book brings to light the under reported contributions of HBCU social work programs to social work education and it thoughtfully engages with the School's efforts to legitimize the Afrocentric perspective and the humanistic values embraced by HBCU social work programs
