In Hajj Travelogues Texts and Contexts from the 12th Century until 1950 Richard van Leeuwen maps the corpus of hajj accounts from the Muslim world and Europe The work outlines the main issues in a field of study which has largely been neglected A large number of hajj travelogues are described as a textual type integrating religious discourse into the form of the journey Special attention is given to their intertextual embedding in the broader discursive tradition of the hajj Since the corpus is seen as dynamic and responsive to historical developments the texts are situated in their historical context and the subsequent phases of globalisation It is shown how in travelogues forms of religious subjectivity are constructed and expressed Territory, State and Nationalism Adel Soheil, 2018-10-18

The Sykes Picot Agreement map signed in May 1918 by the Imperial powers of Great Britain and France constituted the blueprint for redrawing the map of the Middle East after the dismemberment of the Ottoman Empire in 1918 by the victorious Allies thus dividing the Arab territories as well as Kurdistan into its current form In this book the author makes an ambitious attempt to provide a comprehensive new insight into the Kurdish national movement and its struggle against the mandatory power the British and the Iraqi government for achievement of national self determination from 1918 to 1932 The book explores both Kurdish and Arab nationalism within the context of power relations in international politics at the time on the one hand and in relation to domestic political development in Iraq on the other Thereby salient issues are explored inter alia the reasons for the British failure to create a modern national state in Iraq the reluctance of the Anglo Iraqi authorities to accommodate Kurdish rights and their policy to incorporate Kurdistan into the nascent Iraqi state the U S interests and implication in the region and the impact of the principle of self determination advocated by President Wilson on Kurdish and Arab nationalism Revised with a new chapter The United States and Iran James F. Goode, 2016-07-27 revolution Throughout it examines Anglo American views of Iranians and by implication of other non Westerners which affected and still affect the conduct of international relations

America's Forgotten Middle East Initiative Andrew Patrick,2015-06-25 Sent to the Middle East by Woodrow Wilson to ascertain the viability of self determination in the disintegrating Ottoman Empire the King Crane Commission of 1919 was America s first foray into the region The commission s controversial recommendations included the rejection of the idea of a Jewish state in Syria US intervention in the Middle East and the end of French colonial aspirations The Commission s recommendations proved inflammatory even though its counsel on the question of the Palestinian mandate was eventually disregarded by Lloyd George and Georges Clemenceau in favour of their own national interests In the ensuing years the Commission s dismissal of claims by Zionist representatives like David Ben Gurion on their right to Palestine proved particularly divisive with some historians labeling it prophetic and accurate and others arguing that Commission members were biased and ill informed Here in the first book length analysis of the King Crane report in nearly 50 years Andrew Patrick chronicles the history of early US involvement in the region and challenges extant interpretations of the turbulent relationship between the United States and the Middle East
