Making Of The Second World War:

The Making of the Second World War Anthony P. Adamthwaite, 1992 First Published in 1979 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Origins of the Second World War Victor Rothwell, 2001 Victor Rothwell examines the origins of World War II from the flawed peace settlement in 1919 to the start of the true world war at Pearl Harbor in 1941 He asks many important questions Why did the cause of peace advance in the 1920s only to be stopped in its tracks and threatened with reversal by the Great Depression what was the nature of Nazi thinking about war foreign policy and the policy of appeasement that sought to accommodate the Third Reich without again going to war He also examines the events in the Far East at the time and draws a contrast between the role of the US and the Far East throughout the 1930s Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved      The Making of the Second World War Anthony P. Adamthwaite, 1977      Theories of War and Peace Michael E. Brown, Owen R. Cote, Jr., Sean M. Lynn-Jones, Steven E. Miller, 1998-09-15 New approaches to understanding war and peace in the changing international system What causes war How can wars be prevented Scholars and policymakers have sought the answers to these questions for centuries Although wars continue to occur recent scholarship has made progress toward developing more sophisticated and perhaps more useful theories on the causes and prevention of war This volume includes essays by leading scholars on contemporary approaches to understanding war and peace The essays include expositions analyses and critiques of some of the more prominent and enduring explanations of war Several authors discuss realist theories of war which focus on the distribution of power and the potential for offensive war Others examine the prominent hypothesis that the spread of democracy will usher in an era of peace In light of the apparent increase in nationalism and ethnic conflict several authors present hypotheses on how nationalism causes war and how such wars can be controlled Contributors also engage in a vigorous debate on whether international institutions can promote peace In a section on war and peace in the changing international system several authors consider whether rising levels of international economic independence and environmental scarcity will influence the likelihood of war      1939, 1973      The Great War and the Making of the Modern World Jeremy Black, 2011-03-17 This new work demonstrates how the outcome of the First World War has formed the modern world we live in today The First World War was the Great War for its leading participants In revisiting the events of 1914-1918 a century on Jeremy Black considers how we now look at the impact of the conflict across the globe and how it came to be World War I in our consciousness For millions both soldiers and civilians the conflict proved fatal The suffering and loss of the war provides much of its resonance and significance but this book seeks to throw light beyond this not least in asking how it ended in victory and defeat Casting aside the conventional narrative Jeremy Black returns to a vast range of original sources and investigates not only the key events of the war but its consequences in restructuring the old order As its significance has changed with time and not only with the loss of first hand testimony Black considers the struggle not only in its historical context but through its memorialisation today      Grandeur And Misery

Anthony Adamthwaite, 2014-03-04 A central question in European history is how did a great power pre eminent in 1918 lie defeated by the same enemy less than 20 years later Until recently the explanation has been sought in fundamental weaknesses that could only leave the French of 1940 hamstrung and demoralized Recent studies have challenged that view and now for the first time the revisionist approach is displayed in a single volume both summarizing the research of others and drawing on the author s own work in the archives The book is about as far from dry as dust diplomatic history as it s possible to get Its very readable and the author manages to show with the telling anecdote that even a serious subject has its comic side that for instance the French High Command kept forces stationed in the Alps for seven years because no one in the foreign service had thought to pass on news about a secret treaty between Italy and France in 1902 or that after a particularly stressful meeting Andrew Bonar Law the British prime minister mouth to Poincar the French president through the closed carriage window of his train and you go to hell all the while smiling and exuding affability Such episodes are not the substance of the book but they oil its progress

The Making of India Ranbir Vohra, 2000-10-03 Revised to encompass developments through to the end of the 20th century this is a study of India s complex history and society The author views the development of Indian civilization in terms of the socio religious conflicts and traditions through time and their impact on political culture

Evacuee Encounters on the Soviet Home Front During the Second World War Natalie Belsky, 2023-12-19 This study is the first to examine the experiences of the millions of Soviet civilians evacuated to the interior of the country during the Second World War in the context of their encounters and relations with local communities and populations across Soviet Central Asia Kazakhstan Siberia and the Urals The book considers the impact of this episode of massive population displacement across Eurasia on individuals communities and society more broadly It explores how the challenges associated with wartime displacement gave rise to tensions between evacuees and local residents These frictions in turn forced individuals to interrogate the meaning terms and limitations of citizenship and belonging in the Soviet Union Evacuation thus played a critical role in the changing relationship between citizens and the Soviet state in the war and postwar periods Furthermore this study pays particular attention to the plight of Soviet Jewish evacuees who constitute the largest contingent of Holocaust survivors in Europe and the rise of anti Semitism on the Soviet home front during the war This volume will be of interest to students and scholars of the Second World War migration and displacement the Holocaust Soviet Jewish history and the Soviet experience more broadly

Soviet Women on the Frontline in the Second World War R. Markwick, E. Charon Cardona, Euridice Charon Cardona, 2012-06-26 This is the first comprehensive study in English of Soviet women who fought against the genocidal misogynist Nazi enemy on the Eastern Front during the Second World War Drawing on a vast array of original archival memoir and published sources this book captures the everyday experiences of Soviet women fighting living and dying on the front

Germany and the Second World War , 1990 This is the second in the comprehensive ten volume Germany and the Second World War The five volumes so far published in German take the story to the end of 1941 and have achieved international acclaim as a major contribution to historical study Under the auspices of the Militargeschichtliches Forschungsamt Research Institute for Military History a team of renowned historians has combined a full synthesis of existing material with the latest research to produce what will be the definitive history of the Second World War This volume surveys the first year of the war deliberately begun by Nazi Germany The authors examine the train of interconnected political and military events and set military operations against the background of Hitler's war policy and general aims both immediate and long term The authors show that the conflict took a course quite different from that which Hitler had intended but nevertheless resulted in a series of conquests for the Third Reich

Soviet Veterans of the Second World War Mark Edele, 2008-11-27 Millions of Soviet soldiers died in the USSR's struggle for survival against Nazi Germany but millions more returned to Stalin's state after victory Mark Edele traces the veterans' story from the early post-war years through to the end of the Soviet Union in 1991 He describes in detail the problems they encountered during demobilization the dysfunctional bureaucracy they had to deal with once back and the way their reintegration into civilian life worked in practice in one of the most devastated countries of Europe He pays particular attention to groups with specific problems such as the disabled former prisoners of war women soldiers and youth The study analyses the old soldiers' long struggle for recognition and the eventual emergence of an organized movement in the years after Stalin's death The Soviet state at first refused to recognize veterans as a group worthy of special privileges or as an organization They were not a group conceived of in Marxist-Leninist theory there was suspicion about their political loyalty and the leadership worried about the costs of affording a special status to such a large population group These preconceptions were overcome only after a long hard struggle by a popular movement that slowly emerged within the strict confines of the authoritarian Soviet regime

Local Dimensions of the Second World War in Southeastern Europe Xavier Bougarel, Hannes Grandits, Marija Vulesica, 2019-03-15 This book deals with the Second World War in Southeastern Europe from the perspective of conditions on the ground during the conflict The focus is on the reshaping of ethnic and religious groups in wartime on the top-down and bottom-up dynamics of mass violence and on the local dimensions of the Holocaust The approach breaks with the national narratives and top-down political and military histories that continue to be the predominant paradigms for the Second World War in this part of Europe

The Memory of the Second World War in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia David L. Hoffmann, 2021-08-26 This volume showcases important new research on World War II memory both in the Soviet Union and in Russia today Through an examination of war remembrance in its various forms official histories school textbooks museums monuments literature films and Victory Day parades chapters illustrate how the heroic narrative of the war was established in Soviet times and how it continues to shape war memorialization under Putin This war narrative resonates with the Russian population due to decades of Soviet commemoration which continued virtually uninterrupted into the post-Soviet period Major themes of the volume include the use of World War II memory for political legitimization and patriotic mobilization the striking continuities between Soviet and post Soviet commemorative practices the place of Holocaust memorialization in contemporary Russia Putin s invocation of the war to bolster national pride and international prestige and the relationship between individual memory and collective remembrance Authored by an international group of distinguished specialists this collection is ideal for scholars of Russia across a range of disciplines including history political science sociology and cultural studies

The Second World War A. W. Purdue, 2011-08-25 The Second World War ended the Nazi attempt to establish Germany as the dominant power in Europe and the world and Japan s aim of controlling South East Asia and the Pacific It also resulted in the creation of two super powers and led to the Cold War A W Purdue provides one of the most concise yet comprehensive accounts of the entire course of World War Two covering both the European and the Asian Pacific conflicts Thoroughly revised and updated in the light of the latest scholarship this second edition of an established text Challenges accepted views and reassesses the war rejecting the simplistic concept of a war against fascism Discusses the historiography and critically analyses key themes and issues as well as examining current debates Considers changes in popular attitudes to the Second World War Ideal for students and general readers alike this is an essential introduction to the causes nature and significance of World War Two from the perspective of the twenty first century

Things That Make for Peace Peter B. Price, 2020-04-28 Drawing on the experiences and lessons of over forty years working on the frontline of reconciliation and peace building in Northern Ireland Latin America Africa and the Middle East Peter B Price explores what it means to respond to the biblical call to seek peace and pursue it Psalm 34 14 What is required of Christians today in the light of the increasing number of wars insurgencies holocausts and genocide is a deeper understanding of what true peacemaking costs and an answer to the question Can Christianity continue to sanction war

The Second World War John Keegan, 2005-05-03 Praised as the best military historian of our generation by Tom Clancy John Keegan reconsiders his masterful study of World War II The Second World War with a new foreword Keegan examines each theater of the war focusing on five crucial battles and offering new insights into the distinctive methods and motivations of modern warfare In eloquent perceptive analyses of the airborne battle of Crete the carrier battle of Midway the tank battle of Falaise the city battle of Berlin and the amphibious battle of Okinawa Keegan illuminates the strategic dilemmas faced by the leaders and the consequences of their decisions on the fighting men and the course of the war as a whole An extraordinary definitive history The Second World War will be required reading for generations to come The Second World War merits the acceptance as the standard work that it will surely receive The Washington Post If you want to know how it happened read Keegan s thoughtful and elegant prose Los Angeles Times

India in the Second World War Diya Gupta, 2023-06-15 In 1940s India revolutionary and nationalistic feeling surged against colonial subjecthood and imperial war Two and a half million men from undivided India served the British during the Second World War while 3 million civilians were killed by the war induced Bengal Famine and Indian National Army soldiers fought against the British for Indian independence This captivating new history shines a spotlight on emotions as a way of unearthing these troubled and contested experiences exposing the personal as political Diya Gupta draws upon photographs letters memoirs novels poetry and philosophical essays in both English and Bengali languages to weave a compelling tapestry of emotions felt by Indians in service and at home during the war She brings to life an unknown sepoy in the Middle East yearning for home and anti fascist activist Tara Ali Baig a disillusioned doctor on the Burma frontline and Sukanta Bhattacharya s modernist poetry of hunger Mulk Raj Anand s revolutionary home front and Rabindranath Tagore s critique of civilisation This vivid book recovers a truly global history of the Second World War revealing the crucial importance of cultural approaches in challenging a traditional focus on the wartime experiences of European populations Seen through Indian eyes this conflict is no longer the good war

Making Makers Michael P. M. Finch, 2024-05-07 Making Makers presents a comprehensive history of a seminal work of scholarship which has exerted a persistent attraction for scholars of war and strategy Makers of Modern Strategy It reveals the processes by which scholars conceived and devised the book considering both successful and failed attempts to make and remake the work across the twentieth century and illuminating its impact and legacy It explains how and why these influential volumes took their particular forms unearths the broader intellectual processes that shaped them and reflects on the academic parameters of the study of war in the twentieth century In presenting a complete genesis of the Makers project in the context of intellectual trends and historical contingency this book reflects on a more complex and nuanced appraisal of the development of scholarship on war In so doing it also offers contributions to the intellectual biographies of key figures in the history of war in the twentieth century such as Edward Mead Earle Peter Paret Gordon Craig and Theodore Ropp Making Makers contributes to an intellectual history of military history and contextualises the place of history and historians in strategic and security studies It is not only a history of the book but a history of the networks of scholars involved in its creation their careers and lines of patronage crossing international boundaries from Europe to the USA to Asia and Australia It is an investigation of ideas individuals and groups of work completed and scholarship produced as well as contingency and opportunities missed
