Making Peace The United States And Conflict Resolution:

Making Peace Allan E. Goodman, 2019-03-07 As recent conflicts in Panama and the Persian Gulf demonstrate we know much more about making war than we do about making peace Such conflicts are not likely to disappear and this volume reviews what has and hasn't worked in negotiating an end to war Six case studies ranging from World War I to the Persian Gulf crisis illustrate a variety of actors stakes and strategies involved in the peacemaking process Key turning points toward peace or deadlock are identified along the way Making Peace also provides discussion questions historical backgrounds and theoretical introductions to show different and differentially successful avenues to peace Building Peace United States Institute of Peace, 1994 The United States Institute of Peace Journal, 1992 Biennial Report of the United States Institute of Peace United States Institute of Peace, 1992 This document is the third in a series of biennial reports on the United States Institute of Peace The Institute devotes itself to matters of international peace based on freedom and justice Functioning as a nonideological educational resource for policymakers and officials the Institute does not intervene directly in the formulation or conduct of U S foreign policy Principal purposes of the Institute include 1 expanding knowledge about international conflict and peace by sponsoring research analysis and training 2 disseminating such knowledge and 3 promoting understanding of the complexities of international conflict and peace among the U S public The Institute promotes its goals through grants fellowships research education and training and library and information services As Chapter 1 of the report indicates the Institute undertook special initiatives during fiscal years 1990 and 1991 concerning the Middle East and Eastern Europe In addition according to Chapter 2 the Institute continued ongoing efforts in such areas as international conflict management arms control East West relations and sources of violence Chapter 3 describes the Institute's education and training activities and has sections entitled Helping Educate Secondary and Postsecondary Teachers and Students and Training for Other Professions Chapter 4 discusses grants fellowships and research programs that the Institute sponsors Descriptions of management and corporate affairs and biographies of Institute board members and senior staff comprise Chapter 5 A chairman's statement message from the president an overview and three appendices regarding the United States Institute of Peace and its enabling legislation are attached SG Maintaining Order, Making Peace O. Richmond, 2001-12-17 This study explores three generations of approaches to ending conflict and examines how in the context of the failings of the Westphalian international system their peacekeeping mediation and negotiation conflict resolution and peacebuilding approaches as well as UN peace operations and asks via an empirical and theoretical analysis what role such approaches have played and are playing in replicating an international system prone to intractable forms of conflict Understanding Conflict Resolution Peter Wallensteen, 2007 This thoroughly revised edition of Peter Wallensteen's text provides a comprehensive guide to understanding conflict resolution in the contemporary global environment Understanding Conflict Resolution draws on recent and classic research from around the world linking the theory of conflict resolution to in depth case studies throughout The first part reviews the development of conflict resolution since the Cold War and demonstrates the various approaches to conflict analysis The core of the book explores the settlement of three major types of international conflict inter state internal and those arising from state formation In the final part regional and international approaches are examined and questions posed regarding the future of conflict resolution This new edition has been brought fully up to date with coverage of the ongoing war on terror as well as events in Sudan Lebanon Sri Lanka and Zimbabwe Part Three considers the developments in UN reform and the increasing importance of civil society organizations Understanding Conflict Resolution remains an essential text for all students lecturers and researchers of peace and conflict resolution in international relations global politics and political science

Peter Wallensteen: A Pioneer in Making Peace Researchable Peter Wallensteen, 2021-05-28 This book provides a broad overview of what peace research is all about by an author who has been involved in the field for more than half a century Among other things it gives a unique review of how peace research emerged in Sweden as the author was a key actor in the most crucial events during this formative period The book also portrays how the discipline has grown from an initial focus on alternatives to war to the comprehensive study of the many dimensions of a lasting and positive peace The author's own work covers causes of war sanctions conflict resolution conflict data mediation and quality peace They demonstrate the range of topics that have to be understood for a peace with quality This is exemplified by some of the author's writings specifically selected for this volume plus a few ones original to it Some accounts of the author's involvements in actual peace processes in the 1990s are also included This publication offers a substantial contribution to understanding the evolution of peace research as a field and is an important reading for scholars policy makers journalists students and any aspiring peace researcher as well as for the public at large Peter Wallensteen is a global pioneer of peace research due to his involvement in the creation of the Department of Peace and Conflict Research at Uppsala University a major center in the field He served as Head of Department from 1972 to 1999 Peter Wallensteen set up and directed the well known Uppsala Conflict Data Program UCDP the global resource for the study of armed conflicts and peace negotiations 1978 2015 Peter Wallensteen was the first holder of the Dag Hammarskjöld Chair in Peace and Conflict Research at Uppsala University 1985 2012 He was also the first holder of the position as the Richard G Starmann Sr Research Professor of Peace Studies at the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies University of Notre Dame USA 2006 2018

A Handbook of International Peacebuilding John Paul Lederach, Janice Moomaw Jenner, 2002-10-10 This much needed handbook offers conflict resolution professionals working or planning to work in foreign countries a critical step by step guide for dealing with difficult and potentially dangerous disputes in other nations The editors John Paul Lederach and Janice Moomaw Jenner have gathered a stellar panel of seasoned experts who illustrate how to approach international peacebuilding with effective actions and approaches gained through experience that will contribute ultimately to a more positive outcome Based on the experience of the contributors work as global peace brokers the book includes a wide array of guidelines pragmatic approaches and models of constructive culturally appropriate ways to respond to conflict Peaceworks, 1995 The Routledge Handbook of Intercultural Mediation Dominic Busch, 2022-11-15 Offering unique coverage of an emerging interdisciplinary area this comprehensive handbook examines the theoretical underpinnings and emergent conceptions of intercultural mediation in related fields of study Authored by global experts in fields from intercultural communication and conflict resolution to translation studies literature political science and foreign language teaching chapters trace the history development and present state of approaches to intercultural mediation The sections in this volume show how the concept of intercultural mediation has been constructed among different fields and shaped by its specific applications in an open cycle of influence The book parses different philosophical conceptions as well as pragmatic approaches providing ample grounding in the key perspectives on this growing field of discourse The Routledge Handbook of Intercultural Mediation is a valuable reference for graduate and postgraduate students studying mediation conflict resolution intercultural communication translation and psychology as well as for practitioners and researchers in those fields and beyond Negotiated Risks Rudolf Avenhaus, Gunnar Sjöstedt, 2009-04-28 The International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis IIASA has had risk as a research topic on its agenda right from its inception in 1972 Risk has played a jor role in the Energy Program with research being carried out both in house and in cooperation with other international institutions like the International Atomic Energy Agency IAEA and national research centers Research areas were primarily the evaluation of all possible risks within one category of energy supply like nuclear fission or fusion or fossil fuels and even more important the comparison of risks of different energy supply strategies Later on an independent program was started which still exists today under the name Risk and Vulnerability There is a large amount of literature on risks to which IIASA's research programs have contributed significantly over the years and there is of course an abundance of published work on international negotiations part of which is a result of the work of the Processes of International Negotiation PIN Program There are however so far no studies on the combination of these two strands Therefore and as research on both topics is housed at IIASA we are happy that our PIN Program has undertaken the difficult and important task of analyzing what the editors of this book have called negotiated risks Rethinking Conflict Resolution and Management I. W. Zartman, Siniša Vuković, 2023-02-14 Rethinking and revising the established knowledge and practice of conflict resolution and management this innovative book brings together complementary perspectives to consider what novel approaches to conflict need to be invented after the collapse of the World Order International Negotiation and Mediation in Violent Conflict Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, Pamela Aall, 2018-02-06 This collection of essays situates the study and practice of international mediation and peaceful settlement of disputes within a changing global context The book is organized around issues of concern to practitioners including the broader regional global and institutional context of mediation and how this broader environment shapes the opportunities and prospects for successful mediation A major theme is complexity and how the complex contemporary context presents serious challenges to mediation This environment describes a world where great power rivalries and politics are coming back into play and international and regional organizations are playing different roles and facing different kinds of constraints in the peaceful settlement of disputes The first section discusses the changing international environment for conflict management and reflects on some of the challenges that this changing environment raises for addressing conflict Part II focuses on the consequences of bringing new actors into third party engagement and examines what may be harbingers for how we will attempt to resolve conflict in the future The third section turns to the world of practice and discusses mediation statecraft and how to employ it in this current international environment The volume aims to situate the practice and study of mediation within this wider social and political context to better understand the opportunities and constraints of mediation in today's world The value of the book lies in its focus on complex and serious issues that challenge both mediators and scholars This volume will be of much interest to students practitioners and policymakers in the area of international negotiation mediation conflict resolution and international relations

Creating the Third Force Maureen P. Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusso, 2016-11-21 The profession of peacemaking has been practiced by indigenous communities around the world for many centuries however the ethnocentric world view of the West which dominated the world of ideas for the last five centuries dismissed indigenous forms of peacemaking as irrelevant and backward tribal rituals Neither did indigenous forms of peacemaking fit the conception of modernization and development of the new ruling elites who inherited the postcolonial state The new profession of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR which emerged in the West as a new profession during the 1970s neglected the tradition and practice of indigenous forms of peacemaking The scant literature which has appeared on this critical subject tends to focus on the ritual aspect of the indigenous practices of peacemaking The goal of this book is to fill this lacuna in scholarship More specifically this work focuses on the process of peacemaking exploring the major steps of process of peacemaking which the peacemakers follow in dislodging antagonists from the stage of hostile confrontation to peaceful resolution of disputes and eventual reconciliation The book commences with a critique of ADR for neglecting indigenous processes of peacemaking and then utilizes case studies from different communities around the world to focus on the following major themes the basic structure of peacemaking process change and continuity in the traditions of peacemaking the role of indigenous women in peacemaking the nature of the tools peacemakers deploy common features found in indigenous processes of peacemaking and the overarching goals of peacemaking activities in indigenous communities

The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution Jacob Bercovitch, Victor Kremenyuk, I William Zartman, 2008-12-03 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution demonstrates the range of themes that constitute modern conflict resolution It brings out its key issues methods and dilemmas through original contributions by leading scholars in a dynamic and expanding field of inquiry This handbook is exactly what it sets out to be an indispensable tool for teaching research and practice in conflict resolution Peter

Wallensteen Professor of Peace and Conflict Research Uppsala University and University of Notre Dame Bercovitch Kremenjuk and Zartman are among the most important figures in the conflict resolution field They have pieced together with the help of more than 35 colleagues from numerous countries a state of the art review of the sources of international conflict available methods of conflict management and the most difficult challenges facing the individuals and organizations trying to guide us through these conflict ridden times The collection is brimming with penetrating insights trenchant analyses compelling cases and disciplined speculation They help us understand both the promise of as well as the obstacles to theory building in the new field of conflict resolution Lawrence Susskind Professor and Director of the MIT Harvard Public Disputes Program The last three sentences of this persuasive book We conclude this volume more than ever convinced that conflict resolution is not just possible or desirable in the current international environment It is absolutely necessary Resolving conflicts and making peace is no longer an option it is an intellectual and practical skill that we must all possess If you are part of that we intellectually or professionally you will find this book a superb companion Thomas C Schelling Professor Emeritus Harvard University and University of Maryland Conflict resolution is one of the fastest growing academic fields in the world today Although it is a relatively young discipline having emerged as a specialized field in the 1950 s it has rapidly grown into a self contained vibrant interdisciplinary field The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Resolution brings together all the conceptual methodological and substantive elements of conflict resolution into one volume of over 35 specially commissioned chapters The Handbook is designed to reflect where the field is today by drawing on the contributions of experts from different fields presenting in a systematic way the most recent research and practice Jacob Bercovitch is Professor of International Relations and Fellow of the Royal Society at the University of Canterbury in Christchurch New Zealand Victor Kremenjuk is deputy director of the Institute for USA and Canada Studies Russian Academy of Sciences Moscow He is also a research associate at IIASA I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of Conflict Resolution and International Organization at the Nitze School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University
