Making A Living In Europe Human Geographies Of Economic Change:

Making a Living in Europe Alan Townsend, 2005-08-18 Will making a Living remain a dream for the deprived and excluded Jobs are one of Europe's most important problems Employment provides the basic means of distributing wealth in society in providing for families and ensuring pensions for the elderly Yet unemployment and increasingly non employment continues at near record levels in the European Union Making a Living in Europe shows how the culture of work has been transformed in the industrialised nations of the EU Exploring the relationship between employment change society and economic restructuring the shift toward flexible work for women in services away from traditional industrial jobs for men is demonstrated within three key sectors business services retailing and tourism The outcome of change is discussed in terms of shifts of people and jobs from urban to rural areas Europe must be understood in the context of the new Europe of change in the USA and of global change Drawing on examples from UK and European Regions and USA the author challenges long standing assumptions about changes in economy and society and highlights the need for stronger local and European policies to reduce inequality at large and contribute positively to local people's struggles to make a living in Europe

Making a Living in Europe Alan Townsend, 2005-08-18 Exploring the relationship between employment change society and economic restructuring Making a Living in Europe shows how the culture of work has been transformed in the industrialized nations of the EU

European Union Discourses on Un/employment Peter Muntigl, Gilbert Weiss, Ruth

Wodak,2000-10-15 Employment is clearly one of those fields of political activity that reveal the manifold problems and difficulties accompanying the process of European integration and supranational institutionalization In particular the conflict between supranationalists and intergovernmentalists and the degree to which member states show willingness to cooperate with each other become manifest The Union is struggling for new employment policies that should on the one hand be compatible with the European model of the welfare state and on the other adopt to new economic constraints These debates are accompanied by many conflicts between different interest groups and lobbies This study succeeded in looking behind closed doors within the EU organizational system Committee meetings were tape recorded and analysed drafts of policy papers were examined for recontextualizations and the impact of interest groups and different economic and ideological concepts on policy making made explicit A comparison of decision making processes in the European Parliament and in small networks of the Commission illustrates the different argumentation patterns and discursive practices that are involved in the formation of new employment policies The ethnographic research is accompanied by a systemic linguistic and sociological analysis of various institutional genres and political spaces

Handbook of Urban Studies Ronan Paddison,2001 The Handbook of Urban Studies provides the first comprehensive up to date account of the urban condition relevant to a wide readership from academics to researchers and policymakers It provides a theoretically and empirically informed account embracing all the different disciplines contributing to urban studies Leading authors identify key issues and questions and future trends for further research and present their findings so that where appropriate they are relevant to the needs of policymakers Using the city as a unifying structure the Handbook provides an holistic appreciation of urban structure and change and of the theories by which we understand the structure development and changing character of cities SAGE

Secondary Data Analysis John Goodwin,2012-07-23 One central and enduring image of the social science researcher is of an individual who commits a great deal of time to collecting original primary data from a field of enquiry This approach is often underpinned by a sincerely held belief that key research questions can only be explored by the collection of ever new and ever greater amounts of data or that already existing data are insufficient for researchers to test their ideas Yet such an approach to social science research can be problematic not least because the collection of primary data can be an expensive time consuming and even wasteful approach to social enquiry Secondary analysis can serve many purposes as well as being a valid approach in its own right However despite its widespread application secondary analysis is often undervalued or perceived to be the preserve of only those interested in the re use of large scale survey data Highlighting both the theory and practice of secondary analysis and the use of secondary sources this collection considers the nature of secondary analysis as a research tool reflects on the definitional debates surrounding terms such as secondary analysis data re use and restudies illustrates how secondary analysis is used in social science research and finally reviews the practical methodological and ethical aspects of secondary analysis Volume One Using Secondary Sources and Secondary Analysis Volume Two Quantitative Approaches to Secondary Analysis Volume Three Qualitative Data and Research in Secondary Analysis Volume Four Ethical Methodological and Practical Issues in Secondary Analysis The Amenity Migrants Laurence A. G.

Moss,2006 This book describes and analyses the challenges and opportunities of amenity migration to mountain areas and its management and offers related recommendations The book s chapters cover the subject through case studies at international regional and local levels along with overarching themes such as environmental sustainability and equity mountain recreation users housing and spiritual motivation Crucial issues addressed are the relationship of amenity migration to tourism and migration motivated by economic gain Part I chapters 1 3 describes and analyses key aspects of the amenity migration phenomenon that arch across specific place experiences while chapters 4 20 are organized geographically covering amenity migration in the Americas part II in Europe part III and in the Asia Pacific region part IV Chapter 21 concludes by bringing all the information together and focusing on the future of amenity led migration The book has a subject index Against

Leviathan Robert Higgs,2025-10-07 What is fundamentally wrong with government today In Against Leviathan economist and historian Robert Higgs offers an unflinching critical analysis of government power Against Leviathan combines an economist s analytical scrutiny an historian s respect for the facts and a refusal to accept the standard excuses and cruelties of government officialdom Topics include Social Security the paternalism of the FDA the War on Drugs the nature of political leadership civil liberties the conduct of the national surveillance state and governmental responses to a continuing stream of crises including domestic economic busts and foreign wars both hot and cold Against Leviathan is a thorough and penetrating critique and a significant contribution in this current time of crisis and unchecked expansion of government power Poverty and the Third Way Colin C Williams,Colin C. Williams,Jan Windebank,2003-08-29 The subject of poverty and how it can be tackled is a significant issue at the moment both in the UK and the US This book provides a thought provoking new approach to the subject developing a method which transcends capitalism and socialism Wide ranging audience human geography social policy sociology economics etc also practitioners in fields of community development and local economic development International market written as much for the North American market as for the UK and European The New Competition for Inward Investment Nicholas A. Phelps,Philip Raines,2003-01-01 The competition for inward investment among regions and within and between nations is intense and the promotional agencies concerned are increasingly innovative in their competitive strategies This book examines the new competition for inward investment

Informal Employment in Advanced Economies Colin C. Williams,Jan Windebank,2002-09-11 Re Placing Informal Employment challenges many of the popular myths surrounding informal economic activities and offers a radical reassessment of their extent growth location and nature The book uses case studies from the UK France Italy the Netherlands the US and Canada to challenge the popular belief that informal employment is growing throughout the advanced economies the myth that this work is undertaken mostly by marginalized groups the dominant view that we should replace informal with formal employment through enforcement of regulations Examining policy options and their consequences the authors show that conventional approaches only increase inequalities and that a radical alternative solution is essential A Commodified World Colin C. Williams,2005-03-04 This volume provides a critique of the assumption of increasing commodification in the modern economy Revitalising Deprived Urban Neighbourhoods Colin C. Williams,Jan Windebank,2017-03-02 Governments in Western Europe and North America have placed job creation initiatives at the heart of their policy for revitalizing deprived neighbourhoods However relying on this alone is problematic and these governments are becoming increasingly interested in finding ways of enabling communities to help themselves Drawing upon original in depth studies of self help activities in both deprived and affluent neighbourhoods in UK cities this book examines why the populations of deprived neighbourhoods are more likely to be excluded not only from the labour market but also from adopting self help practices in response to their situation It also identifies the barriers which discourage participation in self help projects A combination of policies are advocated bringing together innovative bottom up initiatives such as LETS time currencies and Employee Mutuals with top down policies such as Active Citizens Credits This book instead suggests a fresh and positive approach towards revitalizing deprived neighbourhoods based on seeking the full engagement rather than merely the full employment of deprived populations Knowledge and Economic Conduct Nico Stehr,2002-01-01 Changing economic circumstances namely an end to the primacy of labour and property as determinants of prosperity have created a need for a new theoretical platform one that transcends standard economic discourse Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations Pauline Leonard,2016-04-15 Expatriate Identities in Postcolonial Organizations offers a timely and contemporary discussion of the role of organizations in maintaining or challenging structures and cultures based on racism and discrimination It offers a key exploration of the relations between whiteness identity and organization in migratory contexts It delves into the experiences of expatriates in Hong Kong and the ways in which new identities are constructed in the destinations of migration by exploring the renegotiation of white identities and racialized relationships and the extent to which colonial imaginations still inform contemporary organizations By drawing on existing theoretical and empirical material on post colonialism identity making privileged migration relocation transnational work and organizations this volume brings disparate discussions together in a new and accessible way It will appeal to a range of sociology scholars as well as to those working in the fields of migration gender studies and cultural geography Re-Thinking the Future of Work Colin C. Williams,2007-02-28 How will work be organised in the future With its global perspective and critical approach Re Thinking the Future of Work provides not only an overview and examination of the array of competing visions but also a radical rethink about the direction of change Informal Work in Developed Nations Enrico Marcelli,Colin C. Williams,Pascale Joassart,2009-09-11 The authors of this volume take the orthodox view of informal work and dismantle it piece by piece presenting an analysis of the extent to which this phenomenon plays a significant role in developing countries across the world Nature-based Tourism in Peripheral Areas Colin Michael Hall, Stephen W. Boyd, 2005-01-01 Nature based Tourism in Peripheral Areas provides a comprehensive examination of this form of tourism development as it occurs within alpine forest sub polar island coastal and marine environments This book goes beyond much of the debate surrounding ecotourism and the impacts of tourism in vulnerable environments to place nature based tourism in a wider regional context particularly when for many peripheral regions tourism remains one of the key opportunities for economic development Therefore a central theme that is present throughout many of the chapters is the role that nature based tourism can play as the catalyst for larger regional development of regions The book will serve as essential reading to senior undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in tourism and related degrees where the major focus is on tourism that occurs within peripheral regions It will also serve as a key reference to researchers and professionals interested in the role of tourism as a regional development tool Regional Development Agencies and Business Change Gill Bentley, John Gibney, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 Providing an introduction to contemporary regional economic development issues this book analyzes whether the Regional Development Agencies ROAs have the organizational capacities to cope with complex business and economic development challenges
