A Pencil in God's Hand in the Life of a Child Mogamat Tasleem Ludolph,2018-06-14 This book is about working with children that comes fro broken homes or children you come across everyday this book is for those who wants to be a leader in the life of a child for those people that see that every child has potential to be a great leader one day if you believe that every child is special no matter the race age or gender then this is for you in this book we speak about games we played as children and what message these games bought with it Cultural foods and cultures that childrenLife space work and many moreits a must read for everyone from parents Child and youth care workers guardians youth leadersWe talk about disengagement when a child is about to leave carewe talk about ADHD and how to deal with children being Diagnosed with ADHD UN Mediators in Syria Fadi Nicholas Nassar,2024-05-31 Since 2011 the conflict in Syria has been one of the most catastrophic conflicts of our time and a dark stain on the peacemaking abilities of the United Nations UN At the heart of this book is a simple but critical question what do UN mediators tasked with the responsibility to make peace actually do By explaining this the book offers a detailed record of what Kofi Annan Lakhdar Brahimi and Staffan de Mistura did in their roles as UN mediators in Syria and presents a comprehensive analysis of the dynamics that shaped their decision making Beyond the cases of these three mediators Fadi Nicholas Nassar introduces a method by which to forensically identify a mediator s fingerprints on the peacemaking process and charts a map to examine their decision making processes In doing so it paves the way to evaluate the performance of these mediators to hold them accountable for their successes and failures Making Choices about Conflict, Security, and Peacemaking Carol Miller Lieber,1994 From the Back Cover What are the roots of our everyday conflicts How and why do conflicts escalate into violence Why does the U S spend more per capita on the elderly than on children High school students explore these questions and more in this comprehensive conflict resolution curriculum By looking deeply at their own lives and community students make connections about the nature of conflict and its relationship to public policy Through hands on activities role plays group brainstorming and innovative projects students develop a conflict toolbox to help them resolve their differences without resorting to violence Making Choices benefits both teachers and students The curriculum includes practical classroom management tools for setting expectations making contracts building teams prioritizing and problem solving and building agreement Making Choices can be taught as a course unit or as individual skill activities

Peacebuilding for Adolescents Linda Rennie Forcey,Ian M. Harris,1999 Relying largely on the work of peace and conflict resolution scholars from many disciplines Peacebuilding for Adolescents presents proactive strategies for educators and community leaders In order to deter adolescent violence educators have been responding to increasing levels of school violence by severely punishing aggressive children and politicians have been clamoring for tougher criminal justice measures to deter youth from crime The authors in this book argue instead for a more humane response by teaching young people to value peace to learn to manage their own conflicts and to live more peacefully They take a broad view that ranges over three strategic levels of analysis personal school and community They argue for the promotion of a culture of nonviolence in the schools to help create what Dr Martin Luther King Jr called the beloved community Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooche Aniche,Ikenna Mike Alumona,Inocent Moyo,2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism
