Making Spiritual Sense D. Scott Cormode, 2013-01-07 Endorsements Christian leaders help other Christians see and understand everything in their lives in spiritual terms Scott Cormode is a pioneer in understanding church leadership with the theological disciplines of the faith Making Spiritual Sense captures in a marvelous way the distinctive character of church leadership as the Christian leader is defined as theological interpreter Lovett H Weems Jr Distinguished Professor of Church Leadership at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington DC and author of Take the Next Step Leading Lasting Change in the Church Those who know Scott Cormode well and have long respected his teaching and leadership in church and academy have eagerly anticipated the publication of his first in depth study of leadership At last our hopes have been rewarded and generously so This book demonstrates a rare breadth of scholarly knowledge and possesses the humility and confidence that characterizes the best leadership today It invites those who lead to remember that the best leaders give people the tools to think for themselves a fact that any leader neglects at the greatest of peril Michael Jinkins Dean and Professor of Pastoral Theology Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary Austin TX This is a profoundly important book Finally someone has taken seriously the need to deeply integrate social science perspectives in relation to a Christian understanding of leadership Cormode creatively integrates key theoretical insights within a theological framework in helping Christian leaders understand how to lead by making spiritual sense Extensive use of narrative stories brings his argument to life and provides accessible ways for readers to further develop their own repertoire of meaning for leading through sense making Craig Van Gelder Professor of Congregational Mission Luther Seminary Saint Paul MN About the Contributor s Scott Cormode is the Hugh De Pree Associate Professor of Leadership Development at Fuller Theological Seminary and the De Pree Leadership Center He is an ordained Presbyterian minister and the founder of both the Academy of Religious Leadership and the Journal of Religious Leadership

Making Sense of Christ and the Spirit Wayne A. Grudem, 2011-02-01 Wayne Grudem s Systematic Theology is required reading in many courses on biblical theology and with good reason The textbook s emphasis on the scriptural basis for each doctrine along with its clear writing and contemporary approach make it an indispensable resource for many Christians This series presents as a separate book each of the seven main parts that make up the 1 600 page Systematic Theology making it more portable affordable and less daunting Part 4 Making Sense of Christ and the Spirit explores Jesus Christ as fully God and fully man in one person Important Topics Include The Person of Christ including the virgin birth uniting full deity and humanity in one person while enabling Christ s humanity to be without inherited sin and the incarnation the act of God the Son whereby he took himself a human nature The Doctrine of the Atonement the work Christ did in his life and death to earn our salvation Jesus Resurrection and Ascension affirming the goodness of God s original creation of man as a creature with a physical body that was very good and his rightful place in glory and honor that had not been his before as the God man Written in a friendly tone appealing to the emotions and the spirit as well as the intellect Making Sense of Christ and the Spirit helps readers overcome wrong ideas make better decisions on new questions and grow as Christians

Making Sense in (and Of) the First Christian Century Francis Gerald Downing, 2000-08-01 The first Christian century must be approached with careful attention to its cultural and linguistic heterogeneity It should not simply be assumed that this past is a different place they do things differently there Downing treats the ways in which early Christians tried to make things make sense within their cultures noting both the similarities and differences between their ways and contemporary ones and stressing the variety of contexts and influences on first century communication Downing brings his renowned expertise to bear in illuminating the cultural features of early Christian society with a range of fascinating and telling examples

Does Christianity Still Make Sense? Study Guide Bobby Conway, 2024-04-23 A study guide that helps you understand and respond to the biggest challenges to the Christian faith Written by a former skeptic Does Christianity still make sense Years after Bobby Conway became a Christian this question haunted him Even though by then he was the pastor of a thriving church it seemed as if his entire belief structure was being dismantled Had he been duped Perhaps you can relate to how Bobby felt Maybe you find yourself questioning in the same way In this study guide designed to be used alongside the book Does Christianity Still Make Sense Bobby explores four key challenges to the faith Why Are There So Many Scandals in the Church Why If God Is Good Is There So Much Evil Why Is Christianity So Exclusive Hasn't Science Buried God Join Bobby as he explores these questions while describing his own journey through doubt to a settled trust in God Companion videos available for streaming at Tyndale Christian Resources

Making Sense of "God" Norman Solomon, 2023-05-04 All over the world people talk about God and argue endlessly about what God said and what if anything we should do about it Do they know what are they talking about Do they ever seriously consider what it might look like or feel like if God actually spoke to you How could you tell if someone said God spoke to them whether they were deluded bluffing or high on drugs The reflections dialogues and arguments in this book address such questions often with humor sometimes provocatively as when the author suggests the ancient gods have returned to invade the institutions of our great religions or when two spirits William and James viewing the world from afar voice their doubt as to whether the human species will ever attain the pinnacles of cooperation reason beauty and love Ancient texts from the Mayan Popol Vuh through the Bible to the Chinese classics are invoked and the discoveries of modern science from anthropology to zoology are brought into play as the reader is gently led to an appreciation of the role of religious language in modern society

Making Sense of God's Love Lorraine Cavanagh, 2012-05-04 How can we be restored to God's love Is there a way back Many people are put off Christianity by the idea of God punishing his Son for our sins They find it hard to believe in a loving God who appears to be so angry and vindictive Many also feel that the things Christians teach publicly or privately do not work for them in real life This book therefore addresses some of the difficult questions that these people are asking It is also for those who may be wanting to return to their faith and for those who would like to explore it in greater depth It aims to create an open theological landscape which will take account of the many different ways in which we are saved and restored Making Sense of God's Love will help to guide seekers towards a new understanding of what it really means to live as people who have been forgiven and brought into an honest and deep relationship with God through the atoning and redemptive work of Jesus Christ

Making Sense of Old Testament Genocide Christian Hofreiter, 2018 The divine commands to annihilate the seven nations living in Canaan to devote them to destruction herem in Biblical Hebrew are perhaps the most morally troubling texts of the Hebrew and Christian bibles Making Sense of Old Testament Genocide Christian Interpretations of Herem Passages addresses the challenges these texts pose It presents the various ways in which interpreters from the first century to the twenty first have attempted to make sense of them The most troubling approach was no doubt to read them as divine sanction and inspiration for violence and war the analysis of the use of herem texts in the crusades the inquisition and various colonial conquests illustrates this violent way of reading the texts which has such alarming contemporary relevance Three additional approaches can also be traced to antiquity viz pre critical non literal and divine command theory readings Finally critics of Christianity from antiquity via the Enlightenment to today have referenced herem texts their critical voices are included as well Christian Hofreiter combines a presentation of a wide range of historical sources with careful analysis that scrutinizes the arguments made and locates the texts in their wider contexts Influential contributions of such well known figures as Augustine Origen Gregory the Great Thomas Aquinas and John Calvin are included as well as those of critics such as Marcion Celsus and Matthew Tindal and less widely known texts such as crusading histories songs and sermons colonial conquest accounts and inquisition manuals The book thus sheds new light on the ways in which these texts have shaped the thoughts and actions of their readers through the centuries and offers pertinent insights into how readers might be able to make sense of them today

Making Sense of It All Thomas V. Morris, 1992-10-06 Thomas V Morris discusses life death religion the nature of faith and more This captivating book is ideal both for thoughtful unbelievers who consider Christianity unreasonable and Christians wanting to know how to share their faith with sceptics Writing in an engaging conversational style Morris takes an intriguing new look at the big questions that keep coming up questions about life death God religion the nature of faith the formation of an adequate worldview and the meaning of life Morris explores these kinds of questions in an earnest yet thoroughly entertaining and easily readable way relating numerous personal anecdotes incorporating intriguing material from the films of Woody Allen and the journals of Tolstoy and using the writings of the seventeenth century genius Blaise Pascal as a central guide
