Finding Freedom and Grace in a Broken World Thomas M. Stallter,2024-02-09 We have been brought up to see things in a particular way to interpret our experience and respond to events people and even to God in cultural and personal ways This has given us a frame of reference that undergirds all else we know trust and love in life as well as all we question distrust and hate But this foundation is not without its cracks We live in a broken world and it has influenced us more than we know Various Christians give us advice but we often find ourselves stuck in the emotional pain of past experiences We may not realize how much it controls our thinking and we wonder why we are unable to experience the freedom and peace Jesus talks about But things are not always what they seem we need to see them as they are not as other influences have shaped them It is time we let God speak for himself on the matter This book turns our minds to trust and freedom in our walk with God It leads us to know God's grace providence and purposes in a way that changes our lives and experiences in this broken world from this day on The Human Odyssey Duncan S. Ferguson,2025-04-10 These are perilous times and people need to prepare themselves to navigate these troubled days by staying informed about their challenging environment structuring their lives in a healthy way and striving for a level of maturity that allows them to cope and live in a manner that brings stability and deep peace People can arrive at a place of stability and purpose by engaging in a life that is patterned after the life and teachings of Jesus called by the first generation of Christians the Way of Jesus The central value of this pattern of living is unconditional love a commitment to the truth and a life of integrity and seeking a more just society that leads to a culture of peace and collaboration People need to prepare themselves for this way of life by cultivating a deep spirituality that will empower them to thoughtfully carefully and fully commit themselves to the divine mission of love In Season and Out David A. deSilva,2019-09-18 Grow in the Scriptures throughout the church year with David deSilva as your mentor Beginning with Advent and moving through the church year David deSilva brings his years of experience as a biblical scholar to the church in the form of sermons delivered to his home congregation throughout the church year now adapted into a thoughtful and inspiring collection of reflections These reflections which draw on readings from the Revised Common

Scarcely any book of the New Testament with the possible exception of Revelation is so perplexing as the Letter to the Hebrews Not really a letter but a sermon with some features of a letter added to it not really by its putative author Paul but by an anonymous Christian who wrote some of the most elegant Greek in the Bible not really addressed to the Hebrews but to Christians probably in Rome this is the work that Alan Mitchell explains in this commentary Many scholars have written fine commentaries on Hebrews and Mitchell stands on their shoulders noting where he proposes alternate interpretations Mitchell pays particular attention to the reliance of the author of Hebrews on the Greek Old Testament the Septuagint He also compares the language of Hebrews with similar usage and ideas of first century Hellenistic Jewish authors notably Flavius Josephus and Philo of Alexandria Furthermore he situates Hebrews against the background of the tradition of Hellenistic Moral Philosophy where that is appropriate Mitchell thus locates Hebrews in its proper thought world something that is essential for the modern reader in dealing with some of the thornier questions raised by this biblical book Chief among these are the role of sacrificial atonement the question of second repentance and the spiritual and moral formation of the Roman Christians who were its recipients Like all the volumes in the Sacra Pagina series this work examines the text in detail with careful attention to the words and phrasing and then brings those individual insights together into a coherent summary The bibliography and special lists appended teach chapter cover the best of recent scholarship on the Letter to the Hebrews Alan C Mitchell PhD is Associate Professor of New Testament Studies and Christian Origins at Georgetown University and is Director of the Annual Georgetown University Institute on Sacred Scripture He is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature and Catholic Biblical Association
