Knowing My Inner Self Fazel Naghdy, 2014-06-06 Knowing my inner self is written for teenagers to assist them in their journey to discover inner self and to cultivate their hidden capacities as they blossom from childhood to maturity It explores answers to the fundamental questions that often occupy the mind of adolescents at some stage of their growth What am I Who am I What is the purpose of my life The concepts and issues associated with these questions are examined and their implications for teenagers are highlighted The content of the book is inspired by universal spiritual principles particularly the concepts taught by Bah u ll h the Prophet Founder of the Bah Faith The approach and pedagogy is the result of nearly twenty years of sharing these concepts with teenagers of different age groups in the Education for Peace Program offered by the Yerrinbool Bah Centre of Learning in Australia The style of writing is simple but logical and conclusions are reached through observation and reasoning It simulates as much as possible a tutor tutored relationship in which the tutor facilitates learning for an individual or a small group In summary the book represents a manual on practical spirituality for teenagers and a workbook of activities to assist the reader to assimilate the concepts and apply them to personal situations The book consists of four major parts a The emergence of human beings This section has its focus on the evolution of life on the earth Efforts are made in this section to distinguish between the facts and theories surrounding the concept of evolution b The nature of human beings Through observation and reasoning it is demonstrated that a pure materialistic view is far from adequate to explain all the characteristics of man c Cultivating inner capacities The cultivation of inner capacities identified as a major objective of human life is emphasised and practical steps to accomplish this are explored d A mystical journey The final part of the book looks into the mystical aspects of spiritual growth which is the process of drawing closer to God through knowledge and recognition of His Manifestation growing love of Him and serving His Cause The book consists of 24 chapters Each chapter starts with an introduction that highlights the key concepts addressed The topic covered in the chapter is then explored in sections of relatively short length The chapter then ends with a series of activities aimed at assisting the reader to assimilate the concepts The activities are designed to stimulate thought and reflection at three levels acquisition of knowledge provided in each chapter analysis of this knowledge and the application of this knowledge particularly to personal situations

Moskop, L.M. Kopelman, 1985-09-30 The expense of critical care and emergency medicine along with widespread expectations for good care when the need arises pose hard moral and political problems How should we spend our tax dollars and who should get help The purpose of this volume is to reflect upon our choices The authors whose papers appear herein identify major difficulties and offer various solutions to them Four topics are discussed throughout the volume First encounters between patients and health professionals in critical situations in general and where scarcity makes rationing necessary second allocation and social policy including how much to spend on preventive chronic or critical care medicine or for medicine in general compared to other important social projects third conflicts between or ranking of important goals and values and fourth conceptual issues affecting the choices we make Since these topics are raised by the authors in almost every essay we did not divide the papers into separate sections within the volume Warren Reich begins the volume with a parable illustrating a key problem for contemporary medicine and two very different approaches to its solution His story begins with the delivery of three indigent critically ill foreign patients to the emergency room of a large American private hospital Although the hospital is legally bound to care for these patients providing long term high cost care for them and others soon becomes a major financial strain Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine
