Making Of A Nation:

American History James Alton James, Albert Hart Sanford, 1912 The Making of a Nation H. Ng'weno, 2008

Materializing the Nation Robert J. Foster, 2002-10-24 Foster shows us how seemingly banal activities like making a phone call chewing betel nut watching a Coke commercial may give important insights into the ways in which the nation is constructed materialized or contested Orvar L. Fjörén author of On Holiday A History of Vacationing Why in the current era of globalization does nationality remain an important dimension of personal and collective identities In Materializing the Nation Robert J. Foster argues that the contested process of nation making in Papua New Guinea unfolds not only through organized politics but also through mundane engagements with commodities and mass media He offers a thoughtful critique of recent approaches to nationalism and consumption and an ethnographic perspective on constructs of the nation found in official policy documents letters to the editor school textbooks song lyrics advertisements and other materials This volume will appeal to readers interested in the links among nationalism consumption and media in Melanesia and elsewhere

Making of a Nation Don W. Allison, 2019-03-13 Thanksgiving Day 1621 marked the beginning of a relationship between the settlers and Natives of America it was a celebration spurred by Natives of America having a heart for the new settlers reaching out to them teaching them how to work the land fish and grow corn They also shared their food with them during the first winter when their own food supplies ran out Thanksgiving day 2007 began a reality of freedom from the stallion of an oppressive government that knew no limits when it came to abuse over the years On this day gone would be the days of others dictating the Indian's path that always returned to a restrictive reservation without sovereignty Deeply entrenched spiritual beings would set the stage for the liberation of a people from a government who claimed centuries ago to have discovered or found a new land already inhabited A land the government sanctioned the importation of another people to work the land for the sake of wealth Wealth that required shuffling those in the way out of the way The federal government feared a common practice of the Indian called the Ghost Dance The practice was perceived to be a threat to expansion wealth and power They couldn't have been more right

Irudaya Rajan,2022-03-10 This handbook marks a key intervention in refugee studies in India home to diverse groups of refugees including an entire government in exile It unravels the various socio economic political and cultural dimensions of refugee issues in India The volume examines the various legal political and policy frameworks for accommodating refugees or asylum seekers in India including the Citizenship Amendment Act and the National Registry of Citizens It evaluates the lack of uniformity in the Indian legal and political framework to deal with its refugee population and analyzes the grounds of inclusion or exclusion for different groups Drawing from the experiences of Jewish Tibetan Pakistani Bangladeshi Sri Lankan Afghan and Rohingya refugees in India it analyzes debates around marginalization citizenship and refugee rights It also explores the spatial and gendered dimensions of forced migration and the cultural and social lives of displaced communities including their quest for decent work education and health The volume will be an indispensable reference for scholars lawyers researchers and students of refugee studies migration and diaspora studies public policy social policy and development studies The Japan Financial and Economic Monthly ,1922 A United Nations for the Twenty-First Century Dimitris Bourantonis,Marios Evriviades,2023-09-14 This collective work brings together scholars international civil servants and field practitioners who examine a wide range of theoretical and practical problems as well as challenges confronting the world and the United Nations at the dawn of the twenty first century The papers in this volume have been organized under themes which focus on problem areas and challenges that mankind must unavoidably deal with collectively in the years ahead much as it has attempted to do during the past half century The contributors address the triangular relationship between peace security and development and raise questions about the relevance of the UN system in the decades to come The authors do so through reflection on past experiences and relevant philosophical inquiries They examine specific cases and experiences that are representative of the relevance or irrelevance of past collective actions in the security and non security fields and suggest new ideas and concepts that attempt to marry theory and practice In this connection aspects of peacemaking and peacekeeping arms control economic development human rights and the critical role of education are amongst the topics analyzed and assessed One of the underlying themes of the volume is that the challenges of the twenty first century will be of unprecedented magnitude Unless the UN system is reformed and revitalized it runs the risk of becoming irrelevant

Cultural Practices, Political Possibilities Rohee Dasgupta,2009-03-26 Culture has long been regarded as one of the most complicated concepts in the social sciences possibly over theorized Its ubiquity tangled senses of particularity and the almost universal recognition of that assumed particularity require an extended vocabulary for framing the politics embedded in it Cultural Practices Political Possibilities attempts to explain the political significance and overlaps of cultural constructions as witnessed in global local clashes convergences of texts and contexts within the state and community identity and the self Through various case studies concepts and interdisciplinary perspectives the multinational group of authors from diverse academic backgrounds interprets cultural constructions of politics as factionalizing identitarian situational and particularistic in their links affirmations and consequential divides Each contribution in its unique way explores the performative asymmetries and contradictions witnessed in diverse cultural interactions that shape new areas of political investigation The book will be welcomed by students of international relations environmental politics sociology anthropology and cultural studies The Nation ,1893
